DIVISION III — THE CHRONOLOGICAL ROLL PASTORAL SERVICE RECORD AND CONFERENCE DIRECTORY

NOTE: The Chronological Roll, the Pastoral Service Record, and the Conference Directory are all hereby presented in a combined form, and in alphabetical order. It is our hope that we can present a more detailed as well as a more accurate record of each minister. The information in this division is compiled from my records and not from those of the Board of Pensions. I sincerely hope they are accurate, and you are asked to notify me of any discrepancies in your record. It is our plan to continue this form on a permanent basis, and we hope it meets with your approval. —The Conference Secretary.

Symbols used before each name denote the category of conference relationship and the numbers indicate place in the chronological (or other) order. Hence R—1 means the first place in the Retired category. AM—Associate Member; DIS—Disability; FC—Effective Members (Full Connection); FT—Full Time; LP—Local Pastor; PM—Probationary Member; PT—Part Time; R—Retired; S—Supply; SLP—Student Local Pastor.

The Symbols used after the name are as follows: D—When Ordained Deacon; E—When Ordained Elder; A—When Admitted on Trial or as a Probationer; FC—When Admitted into Full Membership; T—When Transferred into this Conference; LP—When Approved as a Lay Pastor or Approved Pastor; AM—When Approved as an Associate Member; and PT—Part Time Minister (one who has other employment). *—No Record of Attendance at Annual Conference.

NOTE—The service years listed with each person are included as INFORMATION ONLY. While every effort is made to make this accurate, it is not the secretary's responsibility to determine the ramifications of pension credit. This is the responsibility of the Board of Pensions. So, if the listed number of service years does not seem to be correct in your case, you will need to get in touch with the Board of Pensions. —The Conference Secretary.

- LEADER: Let us rejoice in his presence with us, in death as in life, among those who mourn as with those who now see him face to face.

THE HYMN

"A Mighty Fortress Is Our God"

Martin Luther

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. A mighty fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing;
Our helper he amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing:
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And, armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal. | 3. And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us,
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us:
The Prince of Darkness grim,
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo, his doom is sure;
One little word shall fell him. |
| 2. Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing,
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing:
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth, his name,
From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle. | 4. That word above all earthly powers,
No thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through him who with us sideth:
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also;
The body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still;
His kingdom is forever. Amen. |

INVOCATION

Father in heaven, who in creative labor brought forth the world and all that is in it, teach us your purpose for our labors. Guide us by your Spirit to put the labor of our minds and bodies to constructive, meaningful use. So may we, and all men, learn from Christ and our fallen brothers and sisters how to live in peace and harmony in every relationship. We pray through Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE ACT OF PRAISE

The Lord is my light and my salvation;
WHOM SHALL I FEAR?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life:
 OF WHOM SHALL I BE AFRAID?
 When evildoers assail me, uttering slanders against me,
 MY ADVERSARIES AND FOES, THEY SHALL STUMBLE AND FALL.
 Though a host encamp against me,
 YET WILL I BE CONFIDENT.
 One thing have I asked of the Lord.
 THAT WILL I SEEK AFTER:
 That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life
 TO BEHOLD THE BEAUTY OF THE LORD, AND TO INQUIRE IN HIS TEMPLE.
 For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble.
 FOR HE WILL SET ME HIGH UPON A ROCK.
 And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies round about me.
 I WILL SING AND MAKE MELODY TO THE LORD.
 Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud
 BE GRACIOUS TO ME AND ANSWER ME.
 Thou has said, "Seek ye my face."
 MY HEART SAYS TO THEE, "THY FACE, LORD, DO I SEEK."
 I believe that I shall see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living!
 WAIT FOR THE LORD: BE STRONG, AND LET YOUR HEART TAKE COURAGE:
 YEA, WAIT FOR THE LORD!

THE HYMN

"God of Grace and God of Glory"

John Hughes

God of Grace and God of glory,
 On thy people pour thy power;
 Crown thy ancient Church's story;
 Bring her bud to glorious flower.
 Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
 For the facing of this hour,
 For the facing of this hour.

Save us from weak resignation
 To the evils we deplore;
 Let the search for thy salvation
 Be our glory evermore.
 Grant us wisdom, Grant us courage,
 Serving thee whom we adore,
 Serving thee whom we adore. Amen.

DIVISION VIII REPORTS OF BOARDS AND AGENCIES

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The main objectives of the Board of Ordained Ministry are to give guidance, supervision, support and assistance to a minister from the time of applying for candidacy through retirement. In an attempt to fulfill these objectives, the board works with the bishop, the cabinet, nine district Committees of Ordained Ministry, through the board's three sections and its six standing committees.

Out of the Board of Ordained Ministry's desire to maintain a close relationship with our seminary students, representatives of the Membership and Ordination Section visit the students on our campuses in the southeast each year. These visits enable us to keep the channels of communication open with those who are away from the conference meeting their educational requirements.

Representatives of our Local Pastors Section visit the Emory University campus each summer during the time that a number of our local pastors are enrolled in the summer school program.

Under the direction of the Local Pastors Section, the Board of Ordained Ministry has set up a Local Pastors License School within the conference. The school consists of four weekend sessions, plus the attendance of the Minister's Workshop each June.

The Board of Ordained Ministry commends those churches that accept and pay the Ministerial Education Fund in full. It is from this fund that we derive funds with which to provide scholarships to ministers in college, seminary and Local Pastors School.

It is the dream of the Board of Ordained Ministry to develop a more thorough and on-going program of continuing education for the ministers of this conference.

Your conference Board of Ordained Ministry recommends that:

- (1) All Pastor-Parish Relations Committees become familiar with Paragraphs 401-405 of the 1976 Discipline in order that they may properly interview prospective candidates for the ministry.
- (2) Every local church observe Ministry Sunday annually.
- (3) Every church accept and pay Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) in full.
- (4) Every church accept ministerial education as an Advance Special.
- (5) Every charge make available both time and funds to enable its minister to participate in one or more continuing education events annually.
- (6) All persons in appointments beyond the local church (Special Appointments) comply with Paragraph 454 of the 1976 Discipline using report forms provided by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet.
- (7) Those who plan to seek the retired relationship file this request with the Conference Relations Section of the board by April 1st prior to the session of the Annual Conference at which they plan to retire.

William E. Calhoun, Chairman
Alvin N. Harbour, Jr., Secretary

COMMITTEE ON PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND GUIDANCE

The Committee on Psychological Testing and Guidance has had a busy year seeking to improve its procedures to better serve those coming into the Christian ministry and, at the same time, lift the level of the ministry of our conference.

All candidates for the ministry receive written examinations as well as interviews by competent counselors.

The committee makes periodic personal contacts with all ministerial candidates and offers its services whenever needed. Some members of the committee visit the seminaries during the school year to maintain a close relationship with ministerial students there.

We feel that with the help of a professional psychologist that our committee has made great progress during the past year.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Board of Diaconal Ministry continues its growth and finding where its ministry lies. Interpretation has been a big part of our task. Presently our board is responsible for the care and nurture of 18 diaconal ministers in our conference. We have had two transfers out of our conference and 3 transfers in. The board has been responsible for the professional certification of 14 musicians and 17 Christian educators. We are presently working with eight other lay employees in our conference to help them receive professional certification.

The major event of the year was a Multiple Staff Seminar held at Blue Lake, October 10-11, 1978 co-sponsored by the Board of Ordained Ministry. The leader was Professor Richard T. Murray of Perkins School of Theology in Dallas and was attended by fifty-five (55) staff people representing 12 local churches. It proved to be so successful the board has voted to sponsor the same type seminar every two years. The next will be in the Fall of 1980.

Another Salary and Support Survey has been conducted of persons working in Christian education in our conference. Local churches are invited to contact our board at the conference office for a copy of the results of this survey.

The board is also establishing a scholarship and loan fund to assist local church lay employees meet professional standards for certification and to become diaconal ministers. Contributions to establish this fund are encouraged.

New legislation will be presented to the 1980 General Conference concerning the diaconal minister. Change comes with growing pains, but the diaconal minister will continue to be called of God and consecrated to the specialized diaconal ministries of love, justice, and service.

This board stands ready to assist interested persons and local churches in any possible way in this ministry of love, justice, and service.

Mark C. Stewart, Chairman

COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

The year 1978-1979 has been one of hard work, changes and rewarding accomplishments. We began the year with a warm welcome to the newly appointed conference youth coordinator, Rev. James "Buddy" Capps.

The first major step of the conference Council on Youth Ministry, now under the Board of Education, was to revise and rewrite our Constitution and By-Laws. One major aspect under the new constitution is a system of executive committees. Each executive member of the C.Y.M. now has a distinctive area of responsibility and a committee composed of C.Y.M. members.

Under this new program, the Youth Service Fund exceeded our set goal of $10,000. The youth around our conference raised $10,856. This tremendous accomplishment is due to our hard-working district councils and local youth groups. Our Youth Service Fund goal for 1979 is $10,500. With our growing district councils, and the growing awareness of the Youth Service Fund, we are very optimistic that we will exceed the 1979 goal also.

The projects chosen to receive support from Youth Service Fund are: La Casa de Amigos Day Care Center, Baldwin County, Alabama; Sparta Hill United Methodist Church, Evergreen, Alabama; M.U.S.T. (Methodists United in Service and Training), Cobb County, Georgia; Mountain T.O.P. (Tennessee Outreach Program), Nashville, Tennessee.

The 1978 summer camping program was very successful. Eight permanent staff members were again hired to serve at Pinewood. Jr. High, Mid High, and Sr. High alike were served both through mental and spiritual growth. To further enrich this growth, summer plans for 1979 contain a special Youth Adventure in the Bible week, Officers Training Camp and canoeing down the Blackwater River.

Our Annual Fall Rally, which was held in October at Blue Lake, maintained its quality of excellence. This year's theme was "Fall Rally Roundup". We had over 1,600 youth come out for some good ol' singin', eatin', praisin' and fun field events. Dr. Harry Haines, Associate General Secretary of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), was our inspirational speaker.

As summer approaches, the conference youth will be travelling both here and abroad. A caravan of youth will be touring the conference promoting Youth Service Fund, while others will be touring Methodist missions programs in Guatemala and Costa Rica.

Through Fall Rally, Youth Service Fund, the "Innervations" paper, and the many workshops, retreats and camping programs, the conference Council on Youth Ministry continues to produce an outstanding program for our conference's outstanding youth.

Respectfully submitted,
Stuart Dill

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

This past year, 1978, the gifts of our United Methodist Women have been shared around the world. Gifts of love, prayer, giving and concern. The year has been a year of progress on all levels: increased interest, increased attendance and increased giving. "Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only" is typical of our units.

This progress has been led by the members of the Conference Executive Committee. The dedication and participation of this committee have been outstanding. Few of the members have missed a meeting and when they did miss, it was for very important reasons. They have worked diligently at deepening their spiritual lives and broadening their understanding. Their leadership has inspired district and local members to reach higher goals.

In April the National Assembly was held in Louisville, Ky. Our conference had three busloads of women to attend, including every member of the Executive Committee. The knowledge, inspiration and fellowship gained there will be reflected in our work for years to come. Two "under 35's" were sent to assembly, one having her expenses paid by the conference and one being paid for by the jurisdiction.

Our conference United Methodist Women have a scholarship at Scarritt College and in 1978 this scholarship was given to Miss Mary Lynn Rew of Auburn. Miss Rew did her internship at Nellie Burge Community Center in Montgomery.

Bishop Sanders accepted an invitation to attend and participate in our 1978 Annual Meeting. He was also installed as a member of the Conference Executive Committee. Several of the district superintendents also attended the Annual Meeting. We appreciate the support of the Cabinet.

As tangible evidence of our concern for human rights our women were asked to buy the victory shawl made by families of political prisoners in Korea. Our Annual Meeting was well dotted with the different shades of purple shawls. Showing our continued concern each person, who would take one, was given a name of a political prisoner and asked to pledge to pray for this person during this next year. The money from the shawl will help support the families.

Also, each woman who attended the Annual Meeting was offered a dollar. She is to take this dollar and use it as seed money to increase it. The total will be returned to the Annual Meeting in 1979. $401.00 were taken.

The $2.00 fund has been redirected and had 50¢ added to it. The $2.50 is now divided 75¢ for Nellie Burge, 75¢ for Dumas Wesley, 50¢ to Noah's Ark and 50¢ to Mobile Inner City Mission. The $2.50 is paid yearly by each member of United Methodist Women.

Our membership has increased about 800 members and our giving reached $124,000 last year.

"Let us run with patience the race that is set before us" is the goal we have as we work for our purpose and try to make ourselves and help others to be the very best they were meant to be. We are all missionaries.

Sue Jones, President

Report No. 5

Policies and Guidelines for Annual Conference Registrar

Standing Rule 8 of the Annual Conference makes the Council on Finance and Administration the Committee on Arrangements for the Annual Conference session. In keeping with this, the Council on Finance and Administration has selected one person as conference registrar to supervise registration of and assignment of rooms to Annual Conference delegates, handle calls for persons attending sessions, supervise displays and allocations of rooms for such, and handle reservations for meeting rooms and for dining areas.

In order to implement and prevent overlapping of authority, the Council on Finance and Administration adopts the following guidelines:

1. The conference registrar shall have full responsibility for interpreting the eligibility of those covered under Standing Rule 8 for entertainment at the Annual Conference session. This may be appealed to the Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Chairpersons of boards and agencies who are not elected delegates and attend the Annual Conference in order to give reports shall have their expenses paid by their own board or agency.
3. Space and/or rooms to be used for displays shall be assigned by the registrar and no other. Space shall be assigned on a first come basis.
4. Use of dining halls, rooms or areas shall be determined by the registrar.
5. No materials will be allowed on the registration table other than those necessary for registration. Other arrangements should be made to distribute materials through the registrar.
6. Commercial displays will be allowed only in a room assigned and publicized for this purpose with the exception of Cokesbury which will continue to have a room assigned only to them.
7. Special needs, such as hymnals, altar furnishings, projectors, etc. shall be arranged through the registrar at least two weeks before conference. Needs arising during conference which could not be anticipated will also be arranged through the registrar and not through the college.

Report No. 6

Special Funds and Collections

We make the following recommendations for those causes for which no funds are allocated:

3. That each local church observe World Service Sunday, World Communion Sunday, Human Relations Day, One Great Hour of Sharing, Christian Education Sunday, Hunger Sunday, and United Methodist Student Day, and that special offerings be received or budgeted for these causes.
4. That support for Golden Cross and Homes for the Aging be given through a special offering on Mother's Day each year. We further recommend that it be given promotion by the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries and support by the entire conference.
5. That the Futures Committee and the Committee on Camping of the Board of Education be granted permission to make a selective appeal for funds to help underwrite the camps for underprivileged and special youth.
6. That the conference give full support to the Youth Service Fund.
7. That permission be given to the United Methodist Women to continue their efforts to secure funds for Blue Lake.
8. That the Junaluska Development Fund continue to receive the support of our conference.
9. That permission be granted Huntingdon College to solicit funds in its major funds campaign provided that there be no conference goal or quotas on any church nor solicitation of funds through the churches.

10. That permission be granted Dumas Wesley Community Center to solicit funds in its capital funds campaign provided that there be no conference goal or quotas for any church.

Report No. 8

Stewardship Responsibilities and Local Church Concerns

1. The council believes that all apportionments are needed in the amounts apportioned. Further, the council believes that it is within the capacity of the churches to pay the apportionments in full. Great effort has been made to apportion more realistically and even greater effort will be made in the future to accomplish more manageable apportionments. We urge full acceptance and payment of all apportionments by each church.
2. We recommend that district superintendents establish suitable apportionments for new charges in harmony with the adopted basis for apportionments.
3. We recommend that apportionments be made to all churches as developed by the formula method. However, the district superintendent and the council may meet jointly prior to the mailing of apportionments to churches to make adjustments with appropriate explanations by the district superintendent to the church involved.
4. We recommend that local churches provide for the audits of local church records as provided in paragraph 260:3c of the 1976 Discipline. It is our suggestion that audits of local church financial books should be done by someone other than church staff and should involve others, though members of the Committee on Finance may be included. See the Committee on Audit and Review membership (Paragraph 905:4b, 1976 Discipline) as a possible guideline for membership selection.

Report No. 9

Disciplinary Requirement

Paragraph 721 of the 1976 Discipline requires the council to approve the bonding agent for the treasurer and/or treasurers of all agencies and boards, and to recommend amounts for which treasurers are bonded. The council recommends that the present policy of bonding be continued.

Report No. 10

Use of Formula

1. We recommend that apportionments be developed using a formula based on weights of 25% membership and 75% non-building budget (see Standing Rule 26), and that apportionments be determined by local church decimals applied to the cost of each ministry at the conference level.
2. It is recommended that the spring meeting of the council be the time for receiving requests from the Council on Ministries and boards and agencies for allocations from the benevolence budget for the ensuing year. All boards and agencies funded through the benevolence budget should be advised that they place their allocation of funds for their program in jeopardy when they fail to comply with requests for information requested and required by the Council on Ministries.
3. We further recommend that apportionments be developed and distributed to each church by September 15, in order that they may be used for development of local church budgets for the calendar year.

Report No. 12 Addendum

We call attention to the fact that in transcribing apportionments to the church treasurer's records, Ozark First United Methodist Church made a sizeable error and consequently underpaid their World Service and Missional Priorities apportionments by several hundred dollars in 1977. When informed of the error, this great church made up the deficits for 1977 to maintain their perfect record of "paying out" all items every year.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board of Missions has endeavored to be faithful to the task set before it as the connecting link between the General Board of Global Ministries and the conference, district, and local churches of United Methodism in Alabama-West Florida. We have sought to carry out the direction given to us in paragraph 729 in the 1976 Discipline of The United Methodist Church, which states that we "shall provide global ministries functions related to the objectives and scope of work of the General Board of Global Ministries as set forth in paragraph 1502" of the 1976 Discipline. If you are not familiar with these functions I strongly urge you to read paragraph 1502 as it is a tremendous challenge to each of us as United Methodist Christians. These 12 functions stated in this paragraph set before us a panorama of Christian service that each of us could and should take personally. We on your Board of Missions are deeply aware of our need for your support and cooperation and we are so very grateful to you for the marvelous way you have offered this in 1978.

Let me share with you some of the results of our work together across this past year. The reports show that 89% of our World Service and conference benevolences, or $591,848.66 was paid in 1978. Our board is committed to do all that we can to encourage and aid the churches of our Annual Conference to pay World Service and conference benevolences in full. Again, we urge those churches that are already paying World Service and conference benevolences in full to go a second mile and receive a special offering during the year or to give extra monies to this strategic cause for Christian mission at home and around the world so that we might be able to go over 100% in meeting this great need. I wanted to share with the conference a listing of those churches that have paid over 100% of their asking but it was not possible for me to get that information at the time this report was due.

In 1978 the Alabama-West Florida Conference stayed at or near the top of the list of conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in our per capita giving to Advance Specials. We gave a total of $215,095.07 to General Advance Specials. We gave $57,276.48 to Conference Advance Specials and $50,750.63 to UMCOR. We are grateful for this continued support in our giving to missions and yet, we are all aware that the needs never cease to confront us and our potential for giving is so much greater than our present giving level.

We have continued to experience a great spirit of warmth and cooperation in our board meetings with excellent participation on the part of the individual members. The membership of our board is made up of a marvelous group of people to whom we are indebted for their untiring faithfulness to their task. We are especially grateful to Ervin Dailey, our conference missionary secretary, for his seven faithful years of service to our board and to our conference. Ervin has entered a new place of service with United Methodist Communications as the field staff consultant, Program and Benevolence Interpretation, 159 Forrest Avenue, NE, Suite 406, Atlanta, Georgia, 30308, and we wish him the very best. We welcome our new conference missionary secretary, who is Frank T. Hyles, in anticipation of a meaningful experience of working together.

As you read this report and the following reports of the various committees that make up our board, I hope that you will see reflected your own faithfulness to the task of Christian mission at our own front door and in the uttermost parts of the world. If it is not what it should have been, then join hands and hearts with us who make up your Board of Missions and let's endeavor to do better to the honor and glory of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, in whose name we serve!

Douglas Newton, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

The Committee on Church Extension has had the pleasure of assisting several local churches in improving and/or expanding their building facilities in 1978. In addition, to encourage the establishment of new congregations, the Board of Missions, at the recommendation of the committee, has authorized the purchase of one single-wide and one double-wide mobile home. The mobile homes will be available on a rental basis for a limited period of time to a district in which a new church is being organized.

TEN DOLLAR CLUB

The Ten Dollar Club continues to grow, making possible financial assistance to more churches. In 1978 through the club, $2,500 was raised for Loachapoka United Methodist Church to assist in rebuilding a sanctuary destroyed by fire. The second appeal for 1978 is for Sparta Hill United Methodist Church to help in remodeling their sanctuary and in erecting a new educational building. To join the club an individual commits himself to give ten dollars no more than twice a year (total of twenty dollars), when called upon by the Board of Missions. The money is remitted to the conference through the local church treasurer, designated "Ten Dollar Club". The gift is credited to the local church as an Advance Special. Applications for membership may be obtained from the conference headquarters, P.O. Box 700, Andalusia, Alabama 36420. The committee continues to pursue its quadrennial goal of doubling the membership of the Ten Dollar Club.

AID TO ACTION MINISTRIES

The Annual Conference Board of Missions through its committee on Aid to Action Ministries has sought during 1978 to be an enabler. In two of our major cities we have enabled the Mobile Inner City Mission and the Pensacola Specialized Ministries to tap resources, both local and federal, amounting to several hundred thousands of dollars in various service projects in these two cities. Likewise in Mobile we have enabled the Dumas Wesley Community Center and in Montgomery the Nellie Burge Community Center to carry on a more effective work. These institutions are projects of our conference and we urgently need to increase our support to all of them.

In the rural areas we have sought to enable a more effective ministry through two projects in Choctaw County and one in Conecuh. Likewise we have assisted the Baldwin County ministries which carries on a ministry with migrant workers. We are at present participating in the establishment of a new church in the Dothan area.

"Aid to Action" is at the growing edge of our mission and ministry in the Alabama-West Florida Conference. Our objective in most projects is to enable the work to get started, phase out our support, and move on to new projects. For 1979 we have phased out the Conecuh County Larger Parish ministry, which is now going on its own. By 1980 we will have phased out the two Choctaw County Larger Parishes, which will then be on their own. This policy enables us to enable new projects such as the one in the Dothan area. We urge increased support in this vital ministry of our Annual Conference.

DUMAS WESLEY COMMUNITY CENTER
Mobile, Alabama

In 1978 the Dumas Wesley Community Center completed its seventy-fifth year of uninterrupted service to its neighbors. The agency historically has sought, through its varied service opportunities for men, women, youth, and children, to strengthen family life by being responsive to expressed needs and by developing leadership and responsibility in the neighborhood and community in which it serves. The agency provides the opportunity for growth in understanding the will and love of God through all of its services to individuals and to groups.

The last year, in addition to its historical significance, was a year of special note to the agency in that it achieved a broader community acceptance than ever before. During the first sixty to sixty-five years of its history the primary, almost exclusive, funding mechanism was what is now called United Methodist Women. As the structure of the church changed and financial demands grew dramatically, other types of support became necessary for the agency to exist. The past ten years have seen greater involvement of the total church. Presently the agency receives support from the Board of Global Ministries, Mobile District Board of Missions, Aid to Action Ministries, Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Women, and from many local churches through local budgets. In addition to greater church involvement, the center has been recognized as an agency involved constructively with the poor by the secular community and has received support accordingly. The center is a member agency of the United Fund of Mobile County and is the recipient of grants from the city, state, and federal governments for special projects and services.

The highlight of the last year was the recognition by the community-at-large that our present facilities are inadequate to provide the necessary social services for the neighborhood. Our Board of Directors has recognized this problem for several years and has worked to find a solution. Finally, the United Fund of Mobile County has included the agency for a capital improvement drive for January, 1980. The funds from this drive will be used to build an adequate multi-service community center in the Crichton area of Mobile, Alabama. This means a new day for the people of our neighborhood.

The center continues to provide services of many kinds. The following is an attempt to summarize these for you.

First, we have a day care center for eighty children of ages three, four, and five years. This program is provided five days a week, twelve hours a day and it features a high quality educational curriculum for pre-schoolers and a comprehensive nutritional service that provides a hot breakfast, hot lunch and one snack a day.

During the last year, the agency has entered a contract with the State Department of Education which has designated the center as the sponsor for nutritional programs for family home day care services in Mobile County. Presently, this service provides monies to eighty-four homes which give service to approximately three hundred fifty children. In excess of twelve thousand meals are provided each month and each meal must meet the standards as set by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The agency is fortunate to have on their staff two neighborhood developers. These people work in outreach programs, responding to expressed need, developing services and programs to meet needs and providing counsel as needed. The following are active groups growing out of the concept of responding to expressed need:

- (1) Boy Scouts
- (2) Cooking Classes (D.O.T.)
- (3) Ceramics for youth and adults
- (4) Arts and Crafts
- (5) Athletic teams
- (6) General recreation programs
- (7) Camping opportunities
- (8) Adult Basic Education

We continue to provide facilities for other agencies that provide needed services to our residents. We presently provide space to the Department of Pensions and Security for their food stamp program and for their Aid to Dependent Children Service. Office space has been made available to the Mobile Community Organization recently as they are sponsoring an anti-crime program for the Crichton residents.

One of the newest services rendered by our agency is being provided by the sickle cell research organization. This much needed detection and counseling service has been needed by our neighborhood residents for many years. It is imperative that we move ahead in our fight to overcome this dread disease. This disease is found to large extent in our black population. Until recently there was very little research; thus there remains much to be done.

We, Board of Directors and staff, solicit your prayers and support as we enter a new day of service. We feel, in the fullest sense, that we are practicing the great commandment of loving God and neighbor by being involved in processes that improve the quality of life for everyone. It is our conviction that there is no better way to express our love for our Creator than by being concerned for the plight of those that constitute the apex of His creation.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION

Education

During this conference year we held our School of Christian Mission at Blue Lake. We had two short schools this year (Wednesday-Thursday and Friday-Saturday). Reverend Bill Willis was this year's dean and he did an outstanding job. Attendance was up about 40%, our highest attendance in recent years.

The mission studies for 1978-1979 are (1) China, (2) Revelation and (3) Covenant Living.

Reverend James Carpenter attended a disaster relief training event near Chattanooga, Tennessee. Seven other district directors attended a local training event for disaster relief sponsored by the Department of Pensions and Security and led by Mrs. Lynda C. Biddle.

In addition each district held training or teaching events in their own districts.

Mission Experiences

In April of 1978 seven members of our conference went to Belize to meet the Church leaders there and to explore the possibility of a partnership in mission between Belize and our conference.

During the summer a group (16) from Auburn Wesley Foundation went to Belize as a work team. They went to the southern part of the country near Forest Home. They were able to take with them about $10,000.00 worth of equipment which was to be used in the church and schools to meet pressing needs.

In December a follow-up visit was made to the same area by Ervin Dailey, John Boone, and Lester Spence, Jr. They delivered around $5,000.00 worth of 16mm films, film strips, recorder, school supplies, clothing, blankets, and such items for relief victims of Hurricane Greta.

Joe Bates led a group from Linden and Jackson down to see the mission work that is presently going on in Guatemala.

We had two groups to visit Costa Rica during 1978. First a sixteen (16) member group from the Mobile District Youth Choir went in June and they were followed by a work team, led by Reverend Ted Hoagland, in July.

Mission Visits Made To Us

An important part of our Committee on Education and Cultivation work is to bring mission persons into our area and to speak in local churches.

1. Vera Hughlett, Liberia, Africa, visited with us for 4 weeks.
2. From Costa Rica we had 6 youths who spent 3 weeks with us. Also a month or so later 8 adults from Costa Rica spent three weeks visiting across our conference.
3. Bishop Bennie Warner of Liberia, Africa, visited in our area and spoke not only in several of our churches but appeared on one of the local T.V. stations.
4. Two young ladies from Belize spent 17 days here attending our conference camping program and speaking at our school of missions as well as in local churches.
5. Mr. & Mrs. Robert Bennett, missionaries to Liberia spent two weeks during the fall visiting churches in our area.

General Information

Missionary support has gone up so that it now costs $18,000.00 for a couple, $9,000.00 for a single missionary, to be maintained on the mission field. For local churches to have a share in the support of a missionary they must give $3.00 per member or $1,000.00. This will entitle them to a visit when the missionary is on furlough.

We presently have eleven missionaries assigned to our Annual Conference.

Of great concern to our committee was that we experienced a 4.71% decrease in Advance giving across The United Methodist Church. This is no time to be cutting back but is a time to be moving forward.

Missionary Commissioned

On January 31, 1978, in the Mobile District, George Sawada was commissioned to be a missionary in The United Methodist Church. His first assignment was to work in Costa Rica.

Appreciation

Our committee would like to express its deep appreciation to Reverend Ervin Dailey for the excellent work done on behalf of our committee.

Respectfully submitted,
David Chunn, Chairman

URBAN WORK COMMITTEE

The Urban Work Committee of the Board of Missions has organized and planned for a supportive ministry in the urban areas of the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

The Alabama-West Florida Urban Workers Network was organized in January. This network will interpret the urban problems and suggest programs to the Urban Work Committee. Our committee, through the Board of Missions, will relate the programs to the Annual Conference.

The church in the transitional community continues to be a matter of deep concern. Several members of the network attended a workshop in Atlanta held by the Division of National Missions.

Two persons were sent to a training session on Mobilehome Ministries. We feel this is an expanding area of concern in urban ministry, and we plan to equip each area with a trained person in this ministry.

The Mobile District planned and conducted a study of the Mobile area in October. The study revealed many areas of need, and the appointment of a metro ministry is a significant move in helping meet the needs of this great metropolitan area.

The Urban Work Committee recommends the following goals:

1. To continue our relationship with the Southeastern Jurisdiction Urban Workers Network.
2. To strengthen and interpret the needs and goals of our network.
3. To interpret to the Annual Conference the work of the Nellie Burge and Dumas Wesley Community Centers.
4. To train at least one person in Mobilehome Ministry in each urban area.
5. To encourage urban areas to engage in self-study similar to the Mobile study.
6. To support Reverend Fred Toland in developing a metro ministry for Mobile.

The Urban Work Committee deeply appreciates the guidance of Reverend Ervin Dailey as he has led us this year. We extend our best wishes to him in his new responsibilities.

Respectfully submitted,
Billy Frank Hall, Chairman

MOBILE INNER CITY MISSION

The Inner City Mission enters its 16th year of service to the disadvantaged communities of Mobile. It enters this new year with a greater sense of anticipation because of its involvement in the new concept of ministry known as the Mobile Metro Ministry. The mission has projected a budget of $45,000 of United Methodist money for this new year. This money will provide the traditional services such as Bible classes, nutrition classes, scouting, community organization, recreational programs, crafts, senior citizen activities, emergency relief, sewing classes, and special activities and trips.

The mission has always been conscious of its stewardship responsibilities in regard to this United Methodist money and has always provided the best possible programs to meet the needs of the inner city of Mobile.

It is because of the quality of these programs that the mission is also involved in delivering services through another $225,000 worth of programs that do not cost The United Methodist Church any funds. These programs come in the form of contracts and agreements with municipal, state and federal agencies. The Inner City Mission operates a Day Care Center for 75 children from poverty homes so that parents can receive training, find a job and be removed from the welfare rolls. The program itself has provided work for 14 former welfare recipients. Other contracts include the summer lunch program, special recreational services, and a contract to operate Mobile's largest swimming pool. In addition, the mission utilizes the CETA youth employment program to hire 30 youth from the community to work during the summer. Two other special programs include Santa Assurance, a program whereby local business men provided $6,000.00 to the mission this past Christmas to enable children without a Christmas to have the best Christmas of their lives.

The Appalachia Service project of the mission has, for 2 years, taken youth from the inner city to volunteer their services to repair the homes of the poor who live in the Cumberland Mountains of Kentucky and Tennessee. This year they plan to perform the same ministry at home.

The $45,000 of United Methodist money comes basically from the Mobile District Board of Missions and the conference Board of Missions. The mission is excited about the conference United Methodist Women being added to this base support with their inclusion of 50¢ per member in their program. The balance, around $25,000, comes through Conference Advance Specials and special gifts from individuals, classes and churches.

The mission has come a long way from an original budget of around $5,000 to a budget of $45,000 and a total value of service delivery of a quarter of a million dollars in 1979.

MOBILE METRO MINISTRY

The Mobile District is now involved in a new and expanded concept of ministry known as the Mobile Metro Ministry. This grew out of a year-long consultation process culminating in a 10 day meeting involving over 100 representatives of local Methodism plus special consultants from throughout the southeast.

The minister to the United Methodist Inner City Mission will be spending 50% of his time getting the program organized during the first year, and the ministry will basically be divided into three areas of service.

1. Local Church Support: The metro ministry will offer aid to churches in transition through special training events designed to enable them to discover where they have come from, where they are, and what their options for the future are. Those churches desiring it can receive regular counsel through this ministry. In addition, the ministry will assist in establishing new churches, development of new ministries through local church programs, and offer assistance to churches in analyzing their own problems and possibilities.
2. Service Delivery: This area involves the development of services to meet the needs of Mobile's inner city neighborhoods. The United Methodist Inner City Mission is an example of the type of program provided here. The mission will continue in it's ministry as a vital part of the new concept, and efforts will be made to include additional service delivery programs in other communities with these same needs.
3. Issue Oriented Activities: The metro ministry will keep local churches informed in regard to those issues that effect the metropolitan Mobile area. Matters such as education, drugs, law enforcement, problems of the elderly, and abortion are examples of issues that could be dealt with. Seminars and workshops will be one method of dealing with issues. Specific programs of involvement may be the answer in some areas of concern. Through whatever means, the metro ministry will develop awareness and involvement where major issues of concern arise within the city.

Constant research and study is a vital component of this ministry to assure that all programs and actions will be founded on specific facts and statistics.

The ministry is under a United Methodist Minister, who is responsible directly to the district superintendent of the Mobile District. It is supervised by a board composed of 16 leading Methodist laypersons and clergy, and this board includes representatives of the Inner City Mission, Dumas Wesley, the district Council on Ministries and the district Board of Missions. They meet monthly to evaluate metro needs and develop programs to meet those specific needs.

UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

One of the most creative and promising developments in the area of missions is the continuing growth of interest in personal participation in mission projects and opportunities for Christian fellowship. This development moves on in our own Annual Conference.

We have now organized the Annual Conference committee for volunteer work and its efforts are already being felt. Consider the following: Volunteer work in the construction of the Sparta Hill United Methodist Church in the Andalusia District; guidance for the Jackson, First Church team building a parsonage in Costa Rica; development of opportunities for small teams of 4 to 6 people; continuation of the Partnership in Mission between the church here and in Costa Rica with special leadership in the Mobile District; and efforts for another "Partnership" relationship with a National Church.

Churches interested in volunteer teams should contact Reverend R. L. (Ted) Hoagland, Jr. for further information and guidance.

R. L. Hoagland, Jr., Chairman

SPECIAL MINISTRIES PROGRAMS

Several programs are supported by Pensacola Special Ministries, Inc.

In the past we have sponsored Camp Discovery at Blue Lake. This is a one-week resident camp for children of the inner-city.

We now have a total person concept, counseling program going. This is designed to meet the needs of all people. It is based on the concept that all people have three basic needs — physical, mental, and spiritual. If any one of these needs are not met, then a person cannot function as a complete person. In this program we try to meet the physical needs of a person by providing them with assistance for medical needs whatever that need might be. We provide assistance with the spiritual need by referring the client to a local pastor. We are extremely hopeful that by taking this new approach people can be brought back to the Church. We provide for the mental need with our referral program. We are able, with the aide of other agencies to get people who need it into rehabilitative programs in our local colleges. This gives them a better chance in the job market. This is a relatively new program, but the success we are having with it is very encouraging.

We maintain an emergency food closet with the assistance of a local church. This project is supported by all the local churches and civic organizations in our local area. This program is designed to give fast temporary emergency assistance. As in the case of a family that has been burned out and is in need of some emergency assistance until they are able to make some other arrangements.

We maintain a Day Care Center for low income families. This program is sponsored in part by the federal government. Only people who are qualified because of low income are eligible for this program. They must be working in a job training program or enrolled in school to remain eligible for this program.

During the Christmas season Special Ministries acts as a clearing house in providing food, clothing and toys to indigent families.

We are approved by the Division of Youth Services to provide job sites and counseling for teenagers who have gotten into trouble with the authorities.

These are some of the programs that we are involved in at the present time. As the human needs in our community change; we change the programs to meet those needs.

NOAH'S ARK

Panama City Beach Ministries of the Alabama-West Florida Conference, popularly known as NOAH'S ARK, is now in its sixth year. From a struggling beginning and an uncertain future, Noah's Ark has endured because of the faith, prayer and hard work of those who believed in this new form of ministry and witness:

The purpose of Noah's Ark has been and is:

- (1) that vacationers in the beach area be confronted with the reality of the gospel of Jesus Christ, and
- (2) To provide new opportunities for persons and local church groups to make their witness for Jesus Christ.

Summer

The setting for this ministry is an unusual one for the church to be involved in; therefore, the approach must be unusual. Each summer from June through Labor Day an estimated one and one-half million people of all ages will visit the 13-mile "Miracle Strip." The commercial facilities include motels, restaurants, amusement parks, night clubs, bars, taverns, pubs, pinball palaces, and a few other type recreation and entertainment facilities. Noah's Ark is the only permanent church-operated facility daily ministering and witnessing to these vacationers.

Our witness and ministry revolves around and comes to focus in our musical witnessing programs which are presented six nights each week, twice each night for 90 days. In the past six seasons approximately 129,000 vacationers have attended these programs. Many families and young people return year after year, and Noah's Ark has become their "Christian nightspot." Countless letters are on file to testify to the life-changing effectiveness of the Christian witness made through these summer programs. So, Noah's Ark is a Christ-centered alternative to the secular glitter and glare of the "Miracle Strip."

Although most of these summer tourists are neither destitute, starved, nor homeless, many of them are spiritually hungry and impoverished and need to hear the gospel. At Noah's Ark we seek to help them find a new life in Christ and direct them back to the church at home where they can find spiritual nourishment. Noah's Ark is, therefore, a much needed "home mission" feeder project for the church.

Winter

The setting for the ministry and witness changes abruptly after Labor Day — thus the approach to witness and ministry must also change. The key to the winter ministry and witness is "service" — a ministry to the aging; a witness through serving.

After Labor Day most of the "Miracle Strip" facilities close down until the next summer. However, several motels, condominiums, and apartments prepare to receive the 6,000 to 9,000 winter visitors. Rates are cut to $200 to $300 per month on efficiency apartments. In November the "Snowbirds" begin arriving to remain until April 1. Most "Snowbirds" are retired, low and middle income couples, widows and widowers — many in ill-health. They come from the northern states and Canada to escape the cold weather (which is hard on the health of older people). Another reason they come is that they can live more cheaply on the beach than they can at home due to high utility and heating bills. This is important to them since most of them have only an American or Canadian social security retirement income.

Since there are very few facilities equipped to meet their needs many of them become bored, lonely, disappointed, and bitter. Many have no transportation and must depend on someone else. They come from scattered areas of the north; therefore, they are on the beach alone and fragmented. They need friends, fellowship, and useful activity. They need recreation, entertainment, and transportation. They need a center for their spiritual expression.

Noah's Ark seeks to serve them and their needs. God has used this ministry to create a community of love. Noah's Ark serves these wonderful, elderly, retired people seven days each week from 1 November until 1 April. Recreation, arts and crafts, entertainment, fellowship, travel, and worship activities are enjoyed by any and all who participate. Needless to say, with service such as this the Sunday worship services are packed — the snowbird community is at worship with their own choir, their own ushers, and their own organist. "A people who were at one time 'no people' are now 'God's people' — the Church." A scattered people have become a gathered people — the Church.

The struggle, faith, labor, prayers, service, and sacrifice of this ministry has not gone unnoticed by either the Lord or others. Many churches of the Alabama-West Florida Conference support Noah's Ark financially as a conference Advance Special. The conference benevolence budget provides $9,000 per year. The LYDIA AND SAM B. HEARN FOUNDATION of Panama City has provided us with a permanent site and with needed facilities. A chapel and fellowship building construction will begin soon. Truly, the Lord has brought us to a rock — a place of establishment.

The future?? The operational budget will increase. A larger facility means expanded ministry and more staff personnel. Another dormitory building is needed before Noah's Ark can stand alone. All of these operational costs must be borne by the United Methodist churches of Alabama-West Florida until the goal of self-support is reached.

Won't you become a part of this exciting, different, but effective ministry? Will you, your church, your organization, HELP Noah's Ark? The Lord will bless you and others if you do.

James C. Rains, Executive Director

NELLIE BURGE COMMUNITY CENTER

Nellie Burge Community Center is celebrating seventy-five years of continuous service in 1979. Organized in 1904 as The Methodist Settlement Home, the center was then located at 314 Chandler Street in the mill district of North Montgomery to promote improvement of the social, moral, vocational, and educational conditions through Christian involvement. The center moved to 315 Bainbridge Street in 1952 and the name was changed to the Methodist Community Center. The center remained in this location for two years when it was agreed the need was greater in another part of the city. In 1954 the center moved to its present location, 1226 Clay Street, which was purchased from the Burge family. The center was then renamed Nellie Burge Community Center in honor of the deceased wife of Mr. Sam Burge.

From its earliest beginnings, the center has operated on a foundation of Christian principles as an agency of Methodism to improve the quality of life of those it serves.

Present programs include:

1. The Young Mother's School — Here high school drop-outs who have pre-school age children are enabled to complete a high school equivalency via studies for the General Education Development Test (G.E.D.), which include: math, science, social studies, language arts, and literature. Additional services offered in this "whole person" approach are counseling (medical, financial, religious, environmental, personal and family problems), transportation (to and from the school and for necessary appointments), food and clothing, hot meals (breakfast and lunch), sewing and homemaking skills, and day care on the premises for their children. The Young Mother's School is staffed by a qualified Adult Basic Education teacher supplied by the Montgomery Board of Education as well as a full-time social services coordinator. An excellent survey, conducted by Mrs. John Bullard as a graduate school course requirement, indicates this program to be unique in the State of Alabama. The school operates Monday through Friday each week from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

2. Day Care — The children of the women in the Young Mother's School are guided by experienced teachers and their assistants in activities designed to make a positive contribution to their total development.

3. The After-School Enrichment Program (3:00 P.M. - 4:30 P.M.) — Here girls in grades 1 through 7 come from the surrounding neighborhood to engage in planned personal enrichment activities designed to supplement, not duplicate, school experiences.

4. Girl Scouts — Each week an active troop of girls meets under the capable volunteer leadership of Mrs. Margaret Howard to work on merit badges, crafts, helping skills, music education, personal grooming and leadership development. The troop, which contains both a Brownie and Girl Scout unit, enjoys numerous parties, outings, and field trips, and, of course, the annual cookie sale.

5. The Learning Partners — The center coordinates the work of volunteers who give their time and love providing special assistance to children with learning difficulties. Most of the children have problem situations within their homes which interfere with their learning. Under the patient love and attention of the Learning Partner volunteer these children make significant gains. This program is conducted within a block of the center at MacMillan Elementary School.

6. The Well-Baby Clinic — A Montgomery County Health Department nurse visits the center on the fourth Monday of the month to administer inoculations and give primary health care to the children of the center and the neighborhood in general. A number of the neighborhood adults take advantage of this service to monitor their blood pressure, blood sugar, or ask advice on related health problems.

7. Troy State University School of Nursing Learning Project — The center provides the opportunity for student nurses to gain field experience in public health education. The center's people have benefited from a variety of excellent presentations including: cancer detection in women, prevention of poisoning in the home, toy safety, nutrition education for children, detection and care of the hyperactive child (staff), day care for handicapped children (staff) and fire safety in the home, to mention a few. This program was initiated 1977-1978 and operated for three academic quarters. The program was beneficial for all concerned and beginning in the autumn of 1978 was extended to several other day care centers under the Montgomery Housing Authority.

8. Family Home Day Care Nutrition Program — This is a special project funded by the United States Department of Agriculture through the Alabama Board of Education. It is designed to improve the nutrition of meals served in day care homes. It is an excellent prevention measure for the many problems arising from poor nutrition in early childhood. The center provides the organization and administration of this program for approximately 60 homes or 300 children in Montgomery.

9. Field Work Placement — Nellie Burge Community Center is a student placement agency for social work and/or behavioral science majors from Huntingdon College, Auburn University at Montgomery, and Scarritt's Graduate School of Church and Community Work. This is a vital service in training tomorrow's workers and leaders.

10. Summer Program — This seasonal program seeks to provide recreational opportunities for the elementary grade children of the neighborhood. This past summer a spirit of cooperation was established with the West End Boys Club through the use of their swimming pool three mornings each week in return for our financial contribution to their expense in operating the pool. This was a beneficial venture for all concerned; especially the children. Some children were involved in the regular program of the Boy's Club and therefore managed to swim every day for the major part of the day. Forty-four children ages 6 to 13 participated in the program which also included crafts, field trips and sports. Nineteen of the children attended the week-long Camp Discovery at Blue Lake; for several this was their first trip out of Montgomery. Last summer this program was effectively coordinated by Mrs. Mary Lynn Rew of Auburn, a Church and Community Work graduate student at Scarritt College.

11. Bible Study — A weekly bible study class is conducted by a volunteer from the Montgomery Junior League. The past year's study has traced God's revelation from the Old Testament to Jesus Christ. The study has been well attended.

During the year a survey of the neighborhood service area of the center was conducted by a joint committee of Montgomery Area United Way and Nellie Burge Community Center. The committee functioned under the able leadership of Dr. Donald W. Bogie, PH. D., of the Department of Sociology, Auburn University at Montgomery. The survey provided much significant demographic and statistical information which will be valuable to the center's planning both short-term (2-5 years) and long term (5-10 years) goals. The research included interviews conducted with both residents and other agencies operating in the neighborhood.

Considerable renovation of the center was done both internally and externally which improved both the appearance and safety of the property. Cracking plaster was replaced by fire-resistant sheet rock. The exterior of the frame structure was scraped and repainted. Smoke alarms were installed throughout as well as an additional door for an escape route added. Since our operating budget could not accomodate all the necessary items, the generosity of various individuals and churches who gave of there time and money is greatly appreciated.

Much change has taken place in seventy-five years of service. The center has been guided and supported throughout by a tireless group of dedicated volunteers, the Board of Directors. There exists between the group of women who met in the parsonage of Court Street Methodist Church in 1904 to form the center and today's Board of Directors a bond of concern and involvement that has sustained through the difficult times and given hope for the future. The present Board of Directors consists of one-third United Methodist, one third neighborhood, and one-third community-at-large, for a total of 28 elected, members. In addition, there are twelve ex-officio members including one recent graduate of the Young Mother's School, two youth, and one honorary life membership. It is interesting to note that this seventy-fifth anniversary year includes another milestone event, the first male president of the board, Col. Albert F. Neuhauser.

The center regretted the loss of Reverend Welton Gregory as a staff member for health reasons. He has been a tireless worker who has made invaluable contributions to the life of the center as well as the board, staff, and clientele. The Board of Directors has honored him with an honorary life membership including voting privileges. W.P. Woolley, Jr., assumed the vacant position and has done an admirable job.

It is increasingly more difficult in this inflationary era to find adequate funding to support existing programs as well as planning for future needs. Similar to most of her 71 sister community centers, Nellie Burge Community Center obtains funding from a variety of sources which include:

1. Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Women
2. Alabama-West Florida Aid To Action Ministries
3. Montgomery District Board of Missions
4. Local and conference United Methodist Churches
5. The State of Alabama—Department of Pensions and Security
6. The State of Alabama—Department of Education
7. C.E.T.A.
8. Montgomery Area United Way
9. Local Civic Groups
10. Program Service Fees

Although our funding sources are varied, the continuous funding source has been from the Methodist Church. We feel our bond with the church is more than financial. We are an integral part of the church in mission, offering more abundant living in the name of Christ. However, just as faith and work are inseparable, so are missions and giving. At Nellie Burge Community Center we are actively involved in Christian mission daily, even hourly, to people whose souls bear scars and wounds that only His love can heal. "He has no hands but our hands . . ."

WORLD HUNGER TASK FORCE

By action of the Annual Conference in 1978 two Hunger Advance Specials were established for the years 1979 and 1980. These are:

1. GBARNGA IN LIBERIA, AFRICA — $30,000 for each year, 1979 and 1980.

This project is aimed at developing some 200 acres of land owned by the mission. A variety of crops such as rice, citrus, vegetables, and sugar cane will be grown according to the terrain and the soil types. The farm will also provide an outdoor classroom for students, a place of employment for local Christians, and a source of food for all. Fuller utilization of the skills and time of a resident agriculturist can be realized through this project; and a better program developed by him to train others to assist him.

The mission has a Theological Education Center which offers a program of continuing education. One phase of this continuing program will provide learning opportunities for pastor students and others interested in agricultural advancement. Another phase would be the training of pastor's wives in nutritional methods and the preservation of foods by such methods as canning and freezing.

2. GANTA IN LIBERIA, AFRICA — $5,000 for each year, 1979 and 1980.

This project would help support the Bishop Bennie D. Warner Vocational Training High School; which would provide vocational skills for Liberian youth and adults to participate in the rural development of their nation. A hospital is being built (should be in operation by now) at the Center; and the next greatest need is the development of the school which will take place in five stages:

- (1) Redesign and rehabilitate present, old buildings.
- (2) Provide dormitory and dining rooms.
- (3) Provide power tools and hand tools.
- (4) Recover swampland and use it to provide food.
- (5) Produce furniture — Begin to grow citrus.

District goals have been set and reaching them would move these projects into the realm of reality. The goals are as follows:

Andalusia	2,345
Demopolis	2,355
Dothan	4,048
Marianna	3,290
Mobile	4,970
Montgomery	6,511
Pensacola	6,812
Selma	2,416
Troy	2,251

We are asking the churches throughout the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference to lift up these Hunger Advance Specials especially during September, October, and November; and to designate Thanksgiving Sunday as a day of in-gathering for their support.

In remitting funds to the Conference Treasurer, it is very important to designate them for WORLD, GENERAL ADVANCE SPECIAL — GBARNGA or GANTA, LIBERIA.

These projects merit our enthusiastic support; and they afford us some concrete plan to alleviate hunger in one section of our Father's world. Let's become excited about them, give good publicity to them, and challenge our churches to support them.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The purpose of the Board of Church and Society is to relate the gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of the church and to the persons and structures of the communities and world in which they live. We proclaim the Lordship of Christ over the whole life of man and woman, their activities, possessions, and community and world relationships. We seek to demonstrate to all persons that the reconciliation which God effected through Christ involves personal, social, and civic righteousness. We affirm our belief that the gospel relates to the total needs of persons and we try to plan the programs of the board in the context of this understanding. Through a process of research, education, and action the Board of Church and Society seeks to implement its purpose.

The Board of Church and Society has held two meetings since last Annual Conference. We helped subsidize and participated in the planning of the School of Christian Mission conducted last summer at Blue Lake. Nine of our board members attended a jurisdictional training event for church and society leaders at Lake Junaluska in August. We are currently focusing on the theme, "The Church In Society." Three mailings are being sent out under the headings, a theological basis for social action, the christian and political responsibility, and the church and legislative concerns. We financially supported the Impact organization this past year and have two of our board members serving on its governing board. We continue to plan our program in terms of on-going and annual concerns.

There are several on-going concerns of the Board of Church and Society. The first of these concerns is to relate the priorities and programs of our board to the local church through the district director of social concerns, ministers, and local church chairpersons of social concerns. A second concern is the School of Christian Mission. This cooperative effort is undertaken by the Board of Church and Society, the Board of Missions, and the United Methodist Women, and is a most worthwhile endeavor. We are urging the participation of each local church chairperson of social concerns and each minister in this tremendous learning opportunity. A third, on-going emphasis is the Impact organization, in recognition of its vital role at the state and national level. We recommend that each local church chairperson of social concerns join the Impact network and get involved in supporting this work. A fourth concern is our current emphasis on "The Church in Society." A fifth concern is to take advantage of the training events where possible to help us better do our work. We urge the district Councils on Ministries to make use of the district directors of social concerns and provide financial assistance for the director to take advantage of available training opportunities. This year we are sending one of our youth members to the National Youth Ministries Organization meeting. We continue our support of the world hunger and ethnic minority local church missional priorities by having a board member serving on the hunger task force and ethnic minority enablement task force.

In the category of annual concerns we will center our 1980 program on issues relating to the International Year of the Child. The annual jurisdictional training event in July will focus on this theme. As a part of our program we are helping to purchase a film for our conference library, "Child Molestation: When To Say No." Also, we plan to help purchase films dealing with other social issues on an on-going basis. Further, the Board of Church and Society wishes to voice its support and urges United Methodists across the conference to study and support the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

RESOLUTION

Whereas, The year 1979 has been declared as International Year of the Child by the United Nations;

Whereas, The spiritual and physical welfare of children is a vital part of our Christian concern;

Whereas, Jesus established the place of children in the Kingdom of God with his words recorded in Matthew 19:14, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven";

Be It Therefore Resolved that the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference affirm the "United Nations Declaration of the Rights of the Child" which is as follows:

MANKIND OWES THE CHILD THE BEST IT HAS TO GIVE ...

The right to affection, love and understanding.

The right to adequate nutrition and medical care.

The right to full opportunity for play and recreation.

The right to a name and a nationality.

The right to special care if handicapped.

The right to be among the first to receive relief in times of disaster.

The right to learn to be a useful member of society and to develop individual abilities.

The right to be brought up in a spirit of peace and brotherhood.

All children, without any exception whatsoever, shall be entitled to these rights, without distinction or discrimination.

Be it further resolved that the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference direct the conference Council on Ministries to urge the conference boards and agencies to consider the said United Nations declaration in the planning and implementing of programs in their areas of concern.

Respectfully submitted,
R. Neil McDavid, Chairman

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Alabama-West Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church has historically sought the health and welfare of all children, and

WHEREAS, the "Child Care Act" of 1971 of the State of Alabama is designed to protect and further the best interest of children, and

WHEREAS, House Bill #463 would amend the existing Child Care Act "so as to exempt certain church related facilities and programs from the provisions of said act," and

WHEREAS, church related facilities should be required to meet the same licensing requirements and standards as are required of other such facilities and programs, and

WHEREAS, taken to the extreme, House Bill #463 would therefore provide opportunity for the operation of child-care centers and programs by persons of questionable character, for questionable purposes, using questionable procedures.

NOW, BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED:

That the Alabama-West Florida Conference meeting in its regular session on May 29, 1979, express its opposition to House Bill #463 thereby supporting the healthy development of all the children of the State of Alabama.

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

On August 26, 1978, Nancy Grissom Self, a member of the executive staff of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women in Evanston, Illinois, led a workshop for the conference commission at Evergreen, Al., which was attended by 17 persons. A major emphasis of this workshop, described in the Methodist Christian Advocate of October 10, 1978, was the identification of ways in which the conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women can work with other agencies of the conference to make their work more inclusive of women. Using this training, the Alabama-West Florida commission has cooperated in the past year with other conference groups on several projects.

The commission worked with the conference Board of Ordained Ministry in making scholarships available to all clergywomen of the conference for attendance at the Second National Consultation of United Methodist Clergywomen in Dallas, Texas, during January, 1979. Mrs. Virginia King, a lay woman from Atmore, Alabama, represented the commission at this consultation, which she reported in the Methodist Christian Advocate on January 30, 1979.

During January and February, 1979, commission district representatives worked with the district superintendents in encouraging lay participation at the conference's first lay caucuses for nomination of General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates. The commission continues to support the district presidents of United Methodist Women in bringing qualified women to the attention of the conference Committee on Nominations.

In January, 1979, Mrs. Helen Myers of Panama City, Florida, and Mrs. Virginia King represented the commission at the Regional Training Event held on the Scarritt College campus, Nashville, Tennessee, a joint venture of the Women's Division of the Board of Global Ministries and the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

Since June, 1978, the commission has distributed to 60 conference leaders monthly copies of The Flyer, the general commission's newsletter for Annual Conferences.

At Annual Conference, 1979, the commission will hold its third annual breakfast with women delegates to conference. A task force of the commission under the leadership of Mrs. Eloise McGucken and Mrs. Carolyn Cumbie is planning a commission workshop with another conference group during 1979.

The commission has welcomed these opportunities to cooperate with conference groups in the past year and invites others to join with it in the timely and necessary task of improving the status and role of women in Alabama-West Florida Methodism.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The aim or purpose of this report is to show that progress for blacks has been made in the Alabama-West Florida Conference since merger began in 1968. The General Conference meeting in Dallas, Texas, in 1968 was given the responsibility of ministry to and for The United Methodist Church to affirm the church's commitment to "inclusiveness". In 1972 at the session of the General Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, the commitment was reaffirmed and the General Commission on Religion and Race became a permanent commission of The United Methodist Church with the general responsibility of "coordinating the denominational concern and provide a channel of assistance so that ethnic and racial minority group members of The United Methodist Church will have equal opportunities for service, representation and voice on every level of the church's life and ministry."

The General Commission on Religion and Race is inclusive in its membership. The forty-four (44) member board is composed of white, black, Hispanic, Asian and native American United Methodists. The General Conference went a step further in 1972 in its commitment to achieving the goal of an inclusive church by also establishing an Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race and charging it with the general responsibility of examining ethnic minority representation on all of the conference boards, agencies, commissions and committees as well as the governing boards of related institutions. After such examinations were made, appropriate recommendations for total inclusiveness were made to the Annual Conference.

There are now on record 62 Annual Conference Commissions on Religion and Race, which does include the Alabama-West Florida Conference, with the responsibility of carrying out the Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race functions.

In 1977 the Alabama-West Florida Conference Commission on Religion and Race assumed its responsibilities as defined by the Discipline, to place special emphasis needed in specific areas. These include:

1. Leadership Training. Attendance by blacks at the training experience set up on the district and conference levels, considering the support of both black and white churches is needed.
2. Work teams — projection of assisting needy black churches in repair of existing structures and building of new churches has been formulated. The support of the conference has been good. Three (3) black churches have been built in 1977. The cooperation of the Board of Missions was excellent also.
3. The Commission on Religion and Race is of the opinion that the appointment of a black district superintendent is needed.
4. Emphasis should be given to missional priorities and churches are urged to accept the apportionment for missional priorities as well as promoting advance specials for ethnic minority churches.
5. There is a tremendous need to recruit blacks for positions of ministerial leadership in the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

By all means, the bishop, director of the conference Council on Ministries, and the committee should be commended for progress made in the Alabama-West Florida Conference in achieving merger, but much remains to be done.

This report shall conclude the above introduction of the work area by making the following suggestions:

1. The election of a district secretary of religion and race by the conference as a member of the Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race and the district Council on Ministries. The responsibility of the district secretary of religion and race would be:
 - A. To encourage and support the concept of racial pluralism and inclusiveness in attitudes and programs within local churches throughout the district.
 - B. To initiate and organize district training and other events for the chairperson of the local church work area on religion and race, in cooperation with the Annual Conference Commission on Religion and Race.
 - C. To maintain a current list of chairpersons of the local church work area on religion and race within the district.

- D. To participate in the meetings of the conference Commission on Religion and Race.
- E. To participate in the district Council on Ministries meeting to insure that racial pluralism and inclusiveness is integral to district planning and activities.
- F. To be knowledgeable about available human and audio visual resources as well as printed materials in the area of religion and race.
- G. To be a liaison between the conference Commission on Religion and Race, the district Council on Ministries and the local churches in the district.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

PROGRAM PRIORITIES FOR 1980

The Church is ever challenged to be in mission. The conference Council on Ministries is seeking to assist in this by the coordination of the program of the various boards and agencies and also to further help in the resourcing of these adopted programs through personnel and materials. The boards and agencies have performed well in their responsibilities.

To fulfill this, the following priorities have been recommended and adopted by the Council on Ministries:

1. Evangelism: To participate fully in the plans of "Proclamation Evangelism" as recommended by the Southeastern Jurisdiction by setting aside the weeks of February 24-29 and March 23-28, 1980 for emphasis in each local church of the cause of evangelism. The Council on Ministries heartily endorses the recommendation of the Board of Evangelism to establish a minimum of ten new churches by 1984.
2. Missions: Full participation of each local church in accepting and paying World Service in full and in giving to Advance Specials, world, national, and conference and UMCOR. Assist in establishing new churches by furnishing funds and buildings; promote mission projects within the conference; continue work of Urban Work Committee; promote the $10.00 club for aiding in church building.
3. Health and Welfare: Promote support to our Children's Home programs and Home For The Aging. Special emphasis on Mother's Day offering to go to Wesley Manor, Dothan, and Golden Cross.
4. Higher Education: Cooperate with Area Committee on Higher Education in support of our two colleges; Huntingdon and Birmingham-Southern and the Wesley Foundations.
5. Education: Develop clergy and lay leadership in each district to further assist local churches on recognition of job responsibilities; promote summer camps at Blue Lake; make viable youth work in every district and on the conference level through training and fellowship; seek new avenues of meeting needs of special groups; develop consultant skills, motivation, training teaching skills, communication training, train laboratory leaders; promote a comprehensive children's ministry through teaching skills, Vacation Church Schools, confirmation training; devise an adequate young adult program; emphasize the Sunday School through enrollment programs and success stories and set up standards for teachers; seek to set up a camp for deaf children; hold a conference-wide Confirmation Rally; and do drama training.
6. Religion and Race: To meet the needs of the ethnic minority local church through specialized training to meet specific needs; to help in securing better leadership in the local church by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel; to assist in establishing new churches and repairing those in need.
7. Laity: To work with leader development in the Board of Education in training laity in job responsibilities; to develop a greater sense of fellowship among laity through meetings at Annual Conference session and retreats; train laity in lay speaking, stewardship and United Methodist Men; stewardship training in at least three districts.
8. Archives and History: To assist in a recognition of our spiritual heritage through The United Methodist Church and present evidence of our work.
9. Status and Role of Women: To work for consciousness raising of the position of women in the entire Church; support of women clergy, lay speakers, and minister's wives; urge every church to plan a "Woman in the Pulpit Day"; to work for election of women as delegates or officers according to abilities; promote distribution of "The Flyer"; to promote conference-wide training events for raising awareness of the place of women in the total program of the church.

10. Worship: To participate fully in the session of the Annual Conference; publishing hymns and assisting in worship services; sharing with local churches in distribution of worship aids.
11. Ordained Ministry: To fulfill its obligation to assist candidates in becoming better ministers of the gospel by counselling, testing, guidance and providing scholarship and loan assistance where needed.
12. Diaconal Ministry: To cooperate with the Board of Ordained Ministry in conducting a Multiple Staff Seminar; establish a scholarship and loan fund for candidates for diaconal ministry; provide encouragement and support for persons seeking certification; and continue to serve as professional recertification agency.
13. Town and Country Work: Continue to train new ministers through the "Minister's Workshop"; assist in developing programs for small membership churches.
14. Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs: To work with migrant ministry; initiate and participate in state and local ecumenical events and train local church officers.
15. Church and Society: To present to local churches those events and happenings which might raise the consciousness of the church to action.

Such programs should challenge each local church into setting specific goals for participating in the wide range of programs. The priorities of The United Methodist Church should also be considered. All this would enable the local church in growth. The Council on Ministries stands ready to assist local churches in doing this. For further details read carefully the full reports of the boards and agencies.

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

Today many voices speak out to make us aware of many kinds of problems and perils. They fear that values won through centuries of struggle are now in danger of being lost. Such concern is not new. At every upward step of civilization, alert people have found threats to their freedom and have battled to overcome them. But they did more than oppose trends which they considered dangerous. They actively supported those which added to man's dignity and well-being.

Genuine concern for human health and welfare, shown at its best in unselfish service, is freedom's best safeguard. So strong was this concern among early Methodists that John Wesley gave this motto of service: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you live."

Through the growth of unity among Christians today, the concern among United Methodists for human health and welfare is gaining momentum. When we render acts of service, we are ministering in the Master's stead — "Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, you have done it unto me." The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries of the Alabama-West Florida Conference seeks to express the God-given caring as we share with the overlooked children, the disturbed youth, and the forgotten elderly. Unless someone close to you is a resident of one of the United Methodist homes, you may not be aware of the kinds of care your generosity has helped to insure. Often, it is not more advanced age alone which dictates the level of care required by an individual. Some of our elderly are able to do the most for themselves.

Health, of course, is always a factor, but spirit and attitude have almost as much bearing on a person's condition as physical wellbeing or lack of it. Many of the residents of our United Methodist Children's Home and United Methodist Homes for The Aging discover a new outlook and regain lost ground in the cheerful surroundings and life of our busy communities. Though slow, such steady improvements are a joy for everyone to experience.

Your open hearts and open hands have been an inspiration to all of us who labor in a caring and sharing ministry to children, youth and adults. With the evidence of your caring about others, we know that we will find the faith and support to do what must be done. Wherever there is a gift to be given, please remember there is always a United Methodist home which can use your help to help others.

The White Christmas offering for our United Methodist Children's Homes must continue to increase, so that our ministry to children and their families may expand and serve more persons in other parts of Alabama and West Florida. The local church has responded to the call and we are most grateful to you. A very fine representation from our conference board and district coordinators of health and welfare ministries attended a meeting at the United Methodist Children's Home in Selma, Alabama, on October 3, 1978, to receive both inspiration and information for the White Christmas emphasis.

On March 22, 1979 approximately one hundred twenty-five interested persons from local churches, district directors of health and welfare, and conference board members shared this experience at Wesley Manor in Dothan, Alabama. We have pledged to reach a goal of $40,000 on Mother's Day. Golden Cross receives 30¢ and Wesley Manor receives 70¢ of each dollar. More requests are received each month than we have funds to meet these desperate needs of some of God's children. The district coordinators of health and welfare ministries are to be commended for their fine spirit of cooperation and active participation in the total program and work of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. These district members are:

Andalusia District:	Dr. Ed L. Hardin	Brewton, Alabama
Demopolis District:	Rev. Gerald H. Maddox	Moundville, Alabama
Dothan District:	Rev. Richard O. Sigler	Dothan, Alabama
Marianna District:	Rev. Haroll M. Devane	Lynn Haven, Florida
Mobile District:	Rev. Thomas M. Ellisor	Mobile, Alabama
Montgomery District:	Mr. William Wilson	Montgomery, Alabama

We urge a much wider showing of the film "Unto One Of The Least Of These" (United Methodist Children's Home) and of the film "A Gift Of Love" (United Methodist Homes for The Aging) as a motivation for our ministry throughout the conference. These are available free of charge.

We are happy to cooperate with district directors of health and welfare ministries for participation by every district in the Chaplain-In-Service program each week at Wesley Manor in Dothan, Alabama.

Most of the districts have conducted a "Seminar on Children and Youth in Crisis" during this conference year. The aim of these seminars was to make local church leaders aware of the needs of persons and families because of child abuse, drugs, neglect, juvenile delinquency, shoplifting, teenage pregnancy, troubled and emotionally disturbed persons.

When I look at the needs of persons in the local church and community, my concern is PEOPLE, whoever they are and wherever they may be, who experience the terrible pain of loneliness, sickness and disease, death and dying, exceptional children and youth, those in jail and prisons, and the struggles of frustrated families. All need us to demonstrate an expression of the Christian gospel in our service and to share their suffering. This concept of the CARING and SHARING Ministry is our goal for each local church.

UNITED METHODIST HOMES FOR THE AGING

The program of our retirement and health care ministry has continued to develop with God's "Older Children" since the Annual Conference of 1957 when both the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences approved a capital fund drive to construct a home for the aging in Birmingham. Fair Haven, our home in Birmingham, opened in October of 1961 and Wesley Manor, our home in Dothan, opened in 1968. Across these years we have focused on our statement of purpose and have been careful to help our people continue to LIVE meaningful lives rather than just allow them to exist. Even though additional facilities have and are being built, the greatest emphasis is placed on the care of individuals. Our intent is to help persons live as well as, and perhaps even better than, they have lived before.

During 1978 a new wing to Fair Haven's health care area was opened. With the addition of these 66 nursing beds, this brings the total of health care beds to 121. Due to this expansion it is now possible for Fair Haven to admit persons who need nursing or custodial care. Of the 340 persons now living at Fair Haven 65 of them are unable to pay their own way. We need to raise through gifts and conference apportionments at least $75,000 yearly to maintain these 65 individuals. Since Annual Conference we have served 371 persons with 89 of them receiving financial assistance in the amount of $51,676.71. The $23,789.35 we have received from the North Alabama Annual Conference has helped to meet some of the financial need. To continue to provide a home for those who cannot pay their own way we must have increased support from individuals and churches across our conference.

In December of 1978 we began a new building program at Wesley Manor which will add 36 resident single (private) rooms and 12 apartments. These new accommodations will be ready for occupancy by this fall (1979). The apartments are new for Wesley Manor. Fair Haven has had a number of apartments for several years, where they have met a real housing need for retired persons. With an increasing interest indicated in southeast Alabama, the trustees have added these three units of 4 apartments each. There will be 6 studio, 4 one-bedroom and 2 two-bedroom apartments. The apartments will include a small kitchen with stove, refrigerator, sink, storage space, bath with shower, etc. Each unit will be tastefully decorated, including carpeting.

During 1978 we have received 9 new persons in the resident area and 23 new persons in the health care area. A total of 234 persons were served in 1978. To maintain the persons living at Wesley Manor who need financial assistance, $30,000 is needed this year. We must continue our efforts to provide for those who can no longer pay their own way.

We have continued to work on the 100 unit retirement home in Decatur that has been approved by HUD as a 202/8 program. This home, to be known as Wesley Acres will cost approximately $2,500,000. Due to the many documents and regulations that must be met, we are still in the planning and development stage of this home.

Property has been purchased in the Auburn-Opelika area and our architect is working with the contractor on the bids for the 55 nursing beds. Preliminary drawings and designs for the retirement facility are being prepared with the hope that we will be able to provide retirement and health care areas in the first phase of the building program of Wesley Terrace. We are very pleased with the progress of the plans and the possibilities of this new home.

In October of 1978 the Board of Trustees was informed of the George C. Meyer Foundation's interest in giving fifty (50) acres of land for a retirement village in Gulf Shores. Since that time we have gathered information regarding retirement and health care facility needs in that area. At the February meeting of our Board of Trustees, the motion was made that we bring to the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences through the respective Boards of Health and Welfare Ministries, our request to accept this property and be given authority to move ahead with the planning and development of a retirement village.

We thank God for all that is happening with our homes for the aging. We ask that you continue to pray for God's guidance in this vital ministry.

A. Wray Tomlin, Executive Director
Methodist Homes For The Aging
Earl DuBois, Administrator
Wesley Manor

Meyer Foundation has offered to the United Methodist Homes for The Aging, a non-profit Alabama corporation affiliated with the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, fifty (50) acres of real property situated in Gulf Shores, Baldwin County, Alabama for the purpose of developing a retirement village; and

WHEREAS many persons throughout the state, particularly in Baldwin County, are very supportive and eager to see a retirement village at this location; and

WHEREAS, the Marlow and Gulf Shores United Methodist Churches have thoroughly investigated the situation and report a high degree of acceptance and local support for and a real need for such a program; and

WHEREAS, the trustees of the United Methodist Homes for The Aging have requested the Boards of Health and Welfare Ministries of the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences to bring this proposal to the 1979 session of both conferences;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Annual Conference of the Alabama-West Florida Conference that the Board of Trustees of the United Methodist Homes for The Aging be and it is hereby authorized to accept the proposed gift of fifty (50) acres in Gulf Shores by the George C. Meyer Foundation, and the United Methodist Homes for The Aging is hereby authorized to move ahead with the planning and development of a retirement village on said property;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church expresses its deep appreciation to the George C. Meyer Foundation for its interest in this very vital program of our church.

Report No. 4

UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

Our Children's Home recorded a good year during 1978. We completed our long range plan of expansion with the opening of the Florence group home in March. Our first full-time chaplain, Dr. Ron Shell, was employed in September. He will minister to children and staff throughout the entire agency. At the Village we employed an additional teacher for the on-campus classroom and established in two cottages a special program for "difficult to manage" boys and girls. The Pensacola group home program was changed to meet the needs of girls who need close supervision.

The Children's Home as a multiple service, state-wide, child care agency, again served more children and their families than ever before; exceeding the record of 851 in 1977 by 27 children. We began the year with 151 children in care; received 945 requests for service; accepted 717 new children; thereby serving a total of 878 children as follows:

Children's Village	125	Children's Village Shelter	128
Dothan Group Home	13	Birmingham Shelter	419
Mobile Group Home	16	Foster Home	16
Pensacola Group Home	17	Adoptions	0
Huntsville Group Home	10	Scholarship	11
Scottsboro Group Home	9	Family Aid	87
Florence Group Home	8
Tuscaloosa Group Home	19	TOTAL	878

However, we were unable to begin a planned and much needed group home in the Anniston area. There is just not enough income to support another group home at this time. We are intensifying our public relations efforts in hopes of increasing income so that this group home can be added in the near future. Over 1,000 children each year are counting on you as a caring church to continue to support your Children's Home. We must not let them down.

Executive Director

GOLDEN CROSS REPORT FOR 1978

Golden Cross is the fund of the Alabama-West Florida Conference which gives financial aid for medical bills to United Methodist families who are in extreme financial need because of hospital and medical bills which are beyond their ability to handle. During 1978, eight families were assisted with a total of $2,506.50 or an average of $313.31 per family.

Golden Cross receives financial support from the Mother's Day offering which is taken each year in May. Your gifts to this offering enable Golden Cross to respond to the medical expenses of needy United Methodists in our conference. Golden Cross brochures are available from conference headquarters or from the Golden Cross director.

The rules that govern the Golden Cross Fund are as follows:

(1) Assistance shall be for United Methodists and any payment toward assistance shall be only to the hospital, doctor, or drug store and only after receiving a copy of the hospital, doctor or drug bill showing the amount of the unpaid balance.

(2) No assistance shall be granted to laymen except upon the recommendation of a pastor in a position to know the circumstances. Assistance to pastors shall be granted only on the recommendation of the district superintendent.

(3) The amount of assistance granted to any person shall be limited to a total of $500.00 for any combination of hospital, doctor and drug bills. This aid shall not exceed 75% of the total of the bills.

(4) When, in the judgment of the Golden Cross director, extreme poverty seems to justify it, full payment (not to exceed $500.00) may be made or financial aid may be given to the same person twice during the period of a year.

(5) Golden Cross aid may be given directly to the institution providing medical care to the aged or the mentally retarded upon the recommendation of the pastor or district superintendent.

(6) Aid to unwed expectant mothers shall be granted only after mutual concurrence by the director of the United Methodist Children's Home and the director of Golden Cross.

Applications and information can be obtained by writing the director of Golden Cross.

Respectfully submitted,
Fred W. Bailey, Director

Report No. 6

ADVOCATE FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN AND YOUTH

While most of us worry about how much education our children receive and whether it is adequate or not there are thousands of children between the ages of six and eighteen who cannot even attend a public school. It is unbelievable — yet so true. In the State of Alabama there are hundreds of handicapped children and youth who have no public school program. Even the gifted, as well as the child with learning disabilities, do not have adequate programs and supervision.

Well — that is the way it has been — but not anymore! Thanks to the Alabama Exceptional Child Education Act (Act 106) of July, 1971, and U.S. Public Law 94-142 known as The Education Of All Handicapped Children Act of November, 1975, things are changing. We may see someday the reality of all children having the right to a public education but the goal is not yet reached.

So this goal may be hastened, a group of desperate parents and understanding professionals formed the Exceptional Children and Youth Education Association on July 22, 1977. The purpose is to promote the general welfare and education of exceptional children and youth in the state of Alabama. The ECYEA has been successful in helping the State of Alabama seek realistic ways these laws may be funded and fully implemented.

The Alabama-West Florida Conference through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries has joined other groups as members of ECYEA. Other member groups include: The Alabama Association of Retarded Citizens, United Cerebral Palsy Association of Alabama, Inc., Alabama Federation of the Council of Exceptional Children, Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded, Inc., Alabama Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, Alabama Association for Talented and Gifted, and many others.

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Commission on Town and Country Work is deeply concerned about the local churches in our conference, especially the small membership churches. With this concern, the commission has provided the following programs.

During the week of June 26-28 of 1978 a Minister's Workshop was held for the minister and spouse at Blue Lake. Under the leadership of the Reverend Art Luckie we experienced a very successful workshop. The subject matter was very practical with the purpose being to help the minister to be a better leader among his people.

On November 3-4 a Convocation on Small Membership Churches was held at Blue Lake. Under the leadership of the Reverend Curtis Ford a very fine convocation was conducted. Mr. Jerry Chapman and Dr. Israel Rucker gave excellent leadership. The purpose of the convocation was to encourage, inspire and challenge the members of these churches to be in mission.

Our Minister's Workshop for 1979 will be held June 25-27 at Blue Lake. We will be working closely with the Board of Ordained Ministry in helping candidates receive credit for the License to Preach.

A Small Membership Church Rally will be held September 30, 1979 at Blue Lake. The rally will begin at ten o'clock with classes for children, youth and adults. Bishop Sanders will be the worship speaker. We hope that all churches with a hundred or less members will be present for this great event.

Marcus Chandler, Chairman

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

We have established a depository in cooperation with Huntingdon College. The depository is under the direction of the commission with Dr. Glenn Massengale serving as archivist-historian. Mrs. Mary Ann Pickard has been employed as assistant to the archivist. Local churches are urged to submit church histories, pictorial church directories, and other historical materials to Dr. Massengale. Mrs. Pickard has received training under the direction of William Beal, archivist of the General Commission on Archives and History of The United Methodist Church at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. We are most fortunate to have someone with this training to organize and develop procedures for the depository.

We urge all boards and agencies of the conference to read the archival policy of the conference on page 228 of the 1977 Journal to determine what materials should be presented to the commission for preservation in the depository.

We are continuing the presentation of bronze grave markers to families of deceased ministers at each Annual Conference following the death of the minister. These grave markers are available at cost to other persons or churches to place on deceased ministers graves. Local churches are urged to mark graves of United Methodist ministers in this manner.

Each year the commission has the distinct pleasure of honoring retired ministers, their wives, and widows of ministers at a breakfast during Annual Conference.

Reverend Richard Walker has been asked to give the memorial address during the 1979 session of Annual Conference.

We are grateful to those who serve as district directors on the Commission on Archives and History for their work. We encourage local churches who do not have a church history to contact their district director for assistance in writing a local church history.

The commission has begun making preliminary plans for the observance of the bicentennial celebration of American Methodism in 1984, and is purchasing a micro-film of the Alabama Christian Advocate for the depository.

W. Thad Chesser, Chairman

Depository for Archival and Historical Materials

The original versions of this report were too voluminous to be printed in the Journal or digested in a single sitting. Consequently, this over-all statement is to be supplemented from time to time by articles in the Methodist Christian Advocate, periodic newsletters to all ministers and interested laymen, and occasional special mailings. These will detail the organization and functioning of the depository, its progress in obtaining funds and acquiring resource materials, its services to its patrons, its special projects, and its needs and endeavors.

Among our conference's greatest needs is a re-awakening among our people to the critical significance of history in the well-being of our Church. For 175 years, since the first circuit rider made his way into these parts, thousands upon thousands of people and hundreds upon hundreds of churches have been involved in making Methodist history. All of us are involved today in making it and should be involved in recording and preserving it. It is our contention that a people or a church that has a great heritage and takes that heritage seriously will never find its ranks eroded or its energies dissipated by indifference or diffidence from within or the lure of false messiahs from without.

Such is the challenge put to The United Methodist Church in Alabama and West Florida at the present time. It is the distinctive mission and purpose of the depository to serve as an agency in keeping our people conscious of their Methodist heritage and involved in preserving and recording it. To that end the depository staff and constituents urge all facets and representatives of Methodism in the Alabama-West Florida Conference to join them in pursuit of the following high priority objectives:

1. To perform the routine tasks of acquiring and organizing materials and serving the needs of depository patrons with efficiency, courtesy, and dispatch.
2. To work with the bishop, district superintendents, Council on Ministries staff, and the officers of agencies, boards, commissions and committees in the development and implementation of a policy for preserving the appropriate records of their activities.
3. To develop a policy and guidelines and program of instruction to assist local churches in the preservation and/or proper disposal of their records.
4. To create a body of information for each local church, including those missing and/or abandoned, that will contain as a minimum the vital data for each church and to develop a procedure for an annual update of this data for the active churches.
5. To acquire the microfilm edition of the Methodist Christian Advocate from the time of its origin to the present and to cooperate with the North Alabama Conference in providing the indexing of this resource so essential to historical research.
6. To enlist the cooperation of all Methodists in this area in adding to the resources available for study and research through the depository.
7. To encourage and assist every church in the conference in recording and publishing, however modestly and informally, an accurate account of its history from its beginning to the present.

BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HOMES FOR CLAIMANTS

Report No. 1

PENSION RATES AND APPORTIONMENTS

We recommend that the total annuity rate of this Annual Conference for the calendar year 1980 be ninety-seven dollars ($97.00) per service year for service as ministerial members and approved lay pastors with pension credit; the total rate for widows be sixty-seven dollars and ninety cents ($67.90), provided that, for minister, lay pastors, and widows who are provided homes by the conference the annual pension amounts shall be adjusted by a reduction equivalent to twelve dollars ($12.00) for ministers and lay pastors and eight dollars and forty cents ($8.40) for widows for each year of service as a supply or lay pastor with pension credit and for each year with pension credit as a minister in any Annual Conference or under special appointment as a minister without pension credit on the Annual Conference.

We recommend that the payment from pension funds of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) be contributed toward funeral expenses of each widow who is a claimant of the Annual Conference, such payment to be made as soon as possible after the death of the widow.

We recommend that the apportionment to the pastoral charges for the pensions and benefit program of the conference shall be $860,000.00 for the calendar year 1980.

We call attention to paragraph 1706.4a of the 1976 Discipline relative to the requirement that the apportionment for the pensions and benefit programs to be paid in proportion to payments of salaries to ministers and also to the board's policy of charging defaults to ministers and associate ministers for deduction from pensions if not otherwise paid. Interest is added to other unpaid obligations of the minister at the rate of 7% per annum.

Report No. 2

RESERVE FUNDING OF PENSIONS

We recommend that the resolution designated as Report Number 1, page 161 of the 1969 conference Journal and subsequent amendments, recorded on page 154 of the 1972 Journal and page 135 of the 1973 Journal shall be further amended to provide that, effective with the deposit due December 31, 1979, the level annual deposit for the purpose of funding pensions through the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund shall be $439,000.00; such adjustment being required to provide for the increase in pension rates to $97.00 per service year.

Report No. 3

DEATH BENEFIT PROGRAM

We recommend the continuation of the Alabama-West Florida Conference in the Death Benefit Program, Plan C, with the cost and benefits for each calendar year being determined by the latest average salary computed prior to the beginning of each year (average salary of $13,603 for 1979).

We recommend that, as a part of the conference pension and benefit program, all persons in the following categories of this Annual Conference be continued in the Death Benefit Program and that newly eligible persons be enrolled as of the closing dates of the Annual Conference session, and that they be asked to fill out and submit enrollment application cards:

1. Ministerial members — associate, probationary, and in full connection — who are appointed with pension credit on this conference, except those who are appointed to attend school and not appointed to a pastoral charge in this conference.

2. Approved lay pastors listed in the conference minutes as eligible to be appointed, as in the full-time category and receiving appointments in the conference session, or within a 21 day period, beginning with the opening day of a regular annual session of the conference, who are not gainfully employed in non-pastoral work and not attending school as a full-time student.

3. Ministerial members on disability leave and receiving disability benefits on account of service in this conference, ministerial members on sabbatical leave and lay pastors receiving disability benefits.

4. Any lay person employed as associate director or assistant director of the conference Council on Ministries.

5. Ministerial members in the retired relation, who currently receive pensions on account of not less than four years of service in this conference.

6. Retired lay pastors listed with latest conference minutes and who receive pensions for not less than four years of service in this conference approved for pension credit.

We recommend that all persons in the following categories be permitted on an optional basis to enroll in the Death Benefit Program as of January 1, of any year, with coverage in effect as of the first day of that month; provided that each such person electing to participate shall pay the conference treasurer prior to December 10 of the preceding calendar year, such amount as computed by this board as the cost in effect for such year; provided further that persons entering these categories at the time of a conference session may be enrolled within a period of 60 days following the closing day of such session, if they were not previously eligible for participation.

(1) Ministerial members — associates, probationary, and in full connection — appointed without annuity claim on this conference or appointed to attend school.

(2) Retired ministerial members who do not receive pension on each of four or more years in this Annual Conference.

(3) Other eligible persons, who, in the judgment of the board, render or have rendered service on a full-time basis sufficient to warrant inclusion in this program.

We recommend that the cost of the Death Benefit Program coverage not paid by individuals in the optional groups be provided from receipts from churches by apportionments for the pensions and benefit program, as provided in Report No. 1 of this board.

We recommend that the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants be authorized to administer the participation of the Annual Conference in the Death Benefits Program and to determine the eligibility of individuals for participation in this plan.

Report No. 4

- a. Name of claimant and immediate members of family.
- b. Indication of choice as to location of home.

2. Minor repairs on homes will be paid for by the occupant. Major repairs will be paid for by the board. No repairs or alterations can be made to any of the homes at any time except those authorized by John Lane as director of homes for claimants.

3. The board will equip homes with a stove, heating equipment, refrigerator and water heater.

4. Occupants will furnish the board with the name of the person(s) who will attend to his or her personal affairs in the event of disability or death.

5. Care should be exercised by the occupant in the erection of T.V. antenna so that the existing property is not damaged.

6. The board recommends that when the occupant of a home serves a charge which provides a parsonage, he should live in the parsonage and thereby free a claimant's home for another claimant.

7. When a claimant vacates a home he or she should release it in writing to the Rev. John Lane, Director of Pension Funding Crusade and Homes for Claimants, and remove all personal belongings immediately.

8. Upon the death of an occupant the heirs or responsible person shall remove all personal property belonging to the claimant within thirty (30) days. All property left beyond this time will be disposed of by the board.

PENSIONS FOR LAY EMPLOYEES

We strongly endorse the reserve pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions for lay employees of United Methodist agencies and local churches. We recommend it to our local churches and agencies and urge that they use this official plan for The United Methodist Church to provide pension coverage for the devoted lay men/women who serve in their employ just as the Annual Conference provides for pensions for ministers.

Interested churches and agencies should contact:

FULL-TIME SERVICE AS A REQUIREMENT FOR PENSION CREDIT

We call attention to the following provisions which appear in paragraph 1706.4a of the 1976 Discipline, relative to full-time service as a normal condition for pension credit.

a. Full-time service of a ministerial member or a lay pastor shall be required as a normal condition for pension credit; provided, however, that such credit may be granted for part-time service by a three-fourths vote of those present and voting in the Annual Conference, on recommendation of the conference Board of Pensions (and Homes for Claimants).

b. Full-time service shall mean that full time is devoted to the work of a pastor by one who has not attained the age of mandatory retirement for a conference member, who is not attending school as a regular student, who is not substantially employed in nonpastoral work; and whose cash support per annum from all (church) sources is not less than the schedule of equitable salaries adopted by the Annual Conference for those in this person's classification.

It should be noted that service of either a ministerial member or lay pastor is without pension credit if it is not full-time service as defined, unless such credit is granted by special action under extremely unusual circumstances.

Report No. 11

ANNUITY FOR MINISTERS IN AREA OFFICES

As approved by our Annual Conference in the 1972 session the following policy continues in effect:

The area offices being served by the ministerial members from the conferences in the Birmingham Area where there is no annuity payment to provide pensions and benefits for these men shall have their pensions and benefit payments provided by the two conferences of the area with the Alabama-West Florida Conference paying an amount equal to 41.86% of twelve times the annuity rate and the North Alabama Conference paying an amount equal to 58.14% of twelve times the annuity rate of the conference in which the minister holds membership. This formula was agreed upon by the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences.

(NOTE: Percentage figures will be brought into harmony with action under the report of the Council on Finance and Administration.)

HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL PROGRAM

We recommend that, effective 1 July, 1979, the Hospital, Medical Expense Program (HMEP) of the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church be the carrier of the conference health care program, with eligibility to participate to be determined by the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants of the Annual Conference.

All ministers of the Annual Conference, who are appointed to a charge by the Cabinet, shall be eligible to participate in the program and the conference shall participate in premium costs, provided the minister is appointed with annuity credit on the conference. Those ministers appointed to a charge without annuity credit or appointed to attend school or in special appointment may participate by paying the full amount of the premium. There shall be a sixty day enrollment period beginning June 1, 1979.

Premium payments shall be made to the conference treasurer on a regular remittance form, on a quarterly basis with payment for the quarter ending September 30 due not later than June 20, payment for the quarter ending December 30 due not later than September 20, payment for the quarter ending March 31 due not later than December 20, and payment for the quarter ending June 30 due not later than March 20. The schedule of participation in premium costs by the Annual Conference related to eligible persons shall be that one-third of the premium shall be paid by the conference and 2/3 shall be paid by the minister or employee. The full premium cost for persons over age 65 shall be paid by the conference and 1/3 of the premium for dependents of over age 65 ministers.

The funds required for conference participation in premiums shall be provided by the pensions and benefits program of the conference and shall be included in the apportionment for the Conference Claimants Fund.

We recommend further that the program continue to be made available to local churches for participation by their full time lay employees, without conference participation in the premiums.

We recommend that a committee be appointed from the membership of the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants to serve as liaison between the Annual Conference and the carrier.

HOMES FOR CLAIMANTS

The Conference owns 47 units for the use of its retired ministers and their wives or widows. These units include 37 single dwellings, one apartment building having four apartments and three duplexes. This property is conservatively estimated to value $1,147,000.

During the summer I visited all of the homes in order to see them and talk to the persons living in them in an effort to acquaint myself with the homes and their needs.

Since the last session of the annual conference a little in excess of $20,000 has been spent on insurance, repairs and upkeep of these units.

In September Mrs. Edith Griffin gave a house and two large lots in Sneads, Florida to the program. A request has already been made for this home. Two other persons have made stipulations in their wills leaving their homes for this purpose upon their death. Such gifts on the part of couples or single persons having no close relatives continue to be the major source of homes for our retired ministers and their wives or widows. Other special gifts have been made to assist in the program.

At the present time we are in the process of putting the insurance on these homes into a group policy offered through our church which will lower our insurance premium and give us liability coverage as well.

The following are new occupants in our homes: Eugene Caddell, 802 Seay St., Greensboro; Porter Daniel, 130 McRainey Loop, Andalusia; Mrs. Fletcher Herlong, 2044 Tullis Drive, Montgomery (as of July, 1979); Mrs. Evelyn Liddell, 1936 Yancey, Montgomery; and Warren Lindsey, 3585 Gatewood, Pensacola. Thad Ellisor has moved from 3585 Gatewood, Pensacola to a recently purchased home in Dothan at 405 S. Orange St.

Receipts for the first year's pay period, May 1, 1978 to April 30, 1979 amount to a grand total of $1,076,313, $25,162 more than the first year goal of $1,051,151.

The difference between the figure quoted above and that quoted on the color print-out reflects the inclusion of $6,671 in late receipts posted in April which were not included in the total quoted on the color print-out, but were included in the district compilation.

471 churches are current or above in payment of their accepted goal. Many of the 231 churches listed in red have paid most of their first year goal, but have not quite paid 25% of their FSG or accepted amount as was necessary for them to have been listed in green as being current. Only 25 of these churches have made no acceptance in the Crusade. 47 additional churches have made no payment to date on their acceptances. However, it is expected they will honor their commitment as soon as it is possible for them to do so.

The Mobile and Pensacola Districts have only one church each that has made no payments. The Andalusia, Marianna and Montgomery Districts have only four churches each that have made no payment.

A total of $30,373.30 has been spent this year in connection with the Pensions Funding Crusade Follow-up and the Homes for Claimants office. This amount includes the director's salary, secretarial help, travel expense, housing allowance, utilities, printing, postage and office supplies.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education has adopted a most ambitious program for 1980. Under the leadership of the chairpersons of the committees and the conference program staff, special emphasis will be given to youth, young adult, and family life ministries. The Council on Youth Ministry will come back under the jurisdiction of the board in order to give the youth more security and support in their work. The young adult ministries has needed an adequate program for a long time, and it is being received with enthusiasm by the young adults. The emphasis of the work of the total board is person-centered, which enables persons to better understand who they are under the authority of the Christian faith and commitment.

We express our deep appreciation to those persons who are committed to the program of Christian learning and enrichment and who work hard to make these programs a reality in the lives of United Methodists in Alabama and West Florida.

Respectfully,
Stanley Mullins, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The Committee on Children's Ministries has met regularly during the past year. The committee is composed of the district coordinators of children's ministries and certified lay leaders of the conference. This is a most dedicated and creative committee.

In the fall of 1978, and the winter of 1979, this committee of the Board of Education and the United Methodist Communications area office sponsored and co-conducted 9 different "Here's How" workshops around the conference. They were especially for Sunday School teachers in the effective use of audio visuals in the classroom. They were designed to train Sunday School teachers in the philosophy of media in the classrooms, and to provide practical experience in the process of making visuals, audios, and using equipment.

A guidebook entitled, "Let's Have A Vacation Church School" has been prepared and distributed through the district children's coordinators to local church VCS directors, giving them guidance and helpful hints in directing a Vacation Church School. The book also contains resources for teachers, suggestions for the secretary, schedules, and other helpful information.

The 1978 children's camping program was one of our most successful. Five of the 6 camps were filled to capacity or beyond, leading us to add the 7th camp for the 1979 camping season. We will also have an elementary choir camp for the summer of 1979. All camps are conference camps and are for rising 4th, 5th and 6th graders. Another change in the camping program, to better benefit the campers, is for the camp to start Monday afternoon and end Saturday morning after breakfast.

In August of 1978, another Vacation Church School mission project was held at Johnson Hill United Methodist Church at Eutaw. Four different churches participated with leadership coming from the youth and adult leaders from First United Methodist Church, Pensacola. This was a week-long school with classes every morning. Some 80 to 100 children and youth participated. Each evening was for youth activities with some 50 to 75 children and youth participating.

The Conference on Children's Ministries will be held at Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee, July 30 - August 3, 1979.

In 1976, the United Nations passed a resolution that 1979 would be observed as the International Year of the Child. We are happy to co-sponsor the resolution affirming the International Year of the Child as printed in the report of the Board of Church and Society. We hope you will do something in your local church to celebrate this resolution. Resource materials are available. You may find help in the "Interpreter", "Engage", in United Methodist Women material and through other resources. You may contact your conference office also.

We are deeply grateful to Mark Stewart for his leadership in the area of children's ministries. He is accessible and always cooperative.

Respectfully submitted,
Jack Holland, Chairman
Mark Stewart, Conference Coordinator

COMMITTEE ON ADULT MINISTRIES

A Committee on Adult Ministries was organized at the last Annual Conference, with the designation of a chairman and district coordinators. This committee, with the guidance of the leadership development coordinator, Mrs. Carolyn Cumbie, has begun plans to bring new significance to adult ministries in our conference.

A Young Adult Council has been organized and has begun to function. Two of the temporary officers, Danny Cartwright, Chairperson, and Miss Amy Smith, Vice Chairperson, attended the SEJ Young Adult Convocation held in Orlando, FL, February 1979. The council has planned a Young Adult Retreat at Blue Lake for June 22-24, 1979. Dr. William Mallard, Professor of Theology, Emory University, will be the spiritual leader. The council is also planning another retreat for the fall of 1979, and is projecting plans for 1980.

At the training event held at Blue Lake February 17, 1979, Mrs. Cumbie guided us in the establishing of the organizational structure and in planning guidelines and goals to achieve the purpose of the Committee on Adult Ministries.

These goals are:

- 1) To become aware of the scope of adult ministry.
- 2) To identify responsibilities of adult ministry to the Committee on Nominations and Personnel.
- 3) To develop a plan for effective utilization of the Committee on Nominations and Personnel.
- 4) To develop resources.
- 5) To design training events for local churches in each district.

The Committee on Adult Ministry is a part of a conference-wide structure for leadership development which includes the district lay leaders and the Committee on Adult Ministries. This structure should add new dimensions to the work of the adult coordinator in every local church.

Respectfully submitted,
Curtis Ford

COMMITTEE ON CAMPING

A. Summer of 1978

We are pleased to report that the summer of 1978 was a good summer for our camping program. On the elementary level in 6 camps we had a total of 466 campers. In the 4 junior high camps we served a total of 259 campers this summer. The senior high and mid high agencies drew a total of 166 participants. In Camp Discovery we saw a total of 117 campers and staff. The 4-L and Sunshine Camps operated at near capacity again this summer. Dr. Faye Brown, Chairperson of the 4-L Committee will call our attention to the work and program of the 4-L camps at this session of the conference. The camper participation for the entire summer of camps under the auspices of this committee exceeded 1,000.

Not only was the participation a source of delight, but the program offered was an outstanding one. We must express our appreciation to each of the volunteer staff personnel and to the program staff at conference headquarters for their leadership in this program of Christian education in the out-of-doors.

B. Items of note

This year we will have 6 elementary camps at Blue Lake for rising 4th, 5th and 6th graders. As in the past two years we will have a team of staff persons to work all summer with the camps in the Pinewood Camp site. These young people will work together as a team and give leadership to the junior high camps. We appreciate the cooperation and support of the district superintendents and pastors, and solicit their continued support for our camping program.

C. As you go home from conference

1. Promote the 1979 camping program in your local church. We urge each church to inaugurate a scholarship program to assist their own children and youth in attending camp. Assist your minister and staff person to distribute camping material to the proper age groups.

2. Assist us in soliciting scholarships for our special camping ministries — 4-L and Camp Discovery. Thirty (30) dollars will send a child to 4-L or Camp Discovery. Twenty (20) dollars will send a child to the Sunshine Camp or Camp for the Deaf. Remit to Mr. Art Copper marked "Special Ministries Fund".

Respectfully submitted,
Linwood Lewis

COMMITTEE ON LEADER DEVELOPMENT

Much of the emphasis in our committee this year has been on developing leaders in the local church. In conjunction with the Committee on Adult Ministries and the Conference Board of the Laity, the Committee on Leader Development has endeavored to begin implementing the assignment of the conference Council on Ministries, to recruit and train lay persons and clergy in each district so that they may become resource persons in that district. This will be an ongoing program for several years.

Three persons have been certified as adult lay leaders this year, and one in junior high. Two other persons began the certification process.

Respectfully submitted,
Carolyn Cumbie

COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL

Need: To strengthen our Sunday Schools

Idea: A survey of the 137 Sunday School questionnaires that were returned to us shows a clear desire for teacher training that is localized and individualized for each specific church.

To meet this need, we propose:

1. To use the very excellent, down-to-earth, training resource, "Teaching Yourself To Teach", a multi-media, self-instruction kit for teachers.

2. To train district teams in the use of this resource. The team from each district will include: the district coordinators of education, adults, children, youth and other volunteers. These teams will be trained at Blue Lake, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 26-27.

3. At least two members of each district team will go to one church in their district every month and lead a "Teaching Yourself To Teach Workshop" for the teachers of that local church. Thus, there will be twelve workshops a year in each district. Over a five-year period most of the smaller churches in each district can be reached with a workshop.

4. Each district team will be presented its "Teaching Yourself To Teach" kit at this Annual Conference. Each team will bring itself and its kit to the training on June 26-27, at Blue Lake.

5. Each district team will be asked to begin its monthly workshops in July, 1979. It is not necessary for all four persons on the district team to be present at each monthly workshop. However, at least 2 members of the team should be present.

6. After each monthly workshop the district education coordinator will notify the chairman of the Committee on Sunday School to confirm the workshop and supply helpful information for improvement of the overall program.

7. The fact that we are proposing this program for a five-year period is an indication of our concern for long-term strengthening of the Sunday School, rather than sporadic attempts at improvement.

8. This five-year plan for strengthening our Sunday Schools is intended for all local churches, but we propose it with particular concern for small-membership churches. The results of our survey of the churches lead us to believe that Sunday School teachers want us to bring training to them, rather than asking them to come to us. This five-year plan would be under the general oversight of the Committee on Sunday School.

Respectfully submitted,
Lawson Bryan

FUTURES COMMITTEE

The purpose of the Futures Committee is to dream the dreams and propose programs that will speak to some of the real needs of our conference.

During the two meetings that we have had since our formation in December of 1978, we have identified some top priorities of concern for the summer of 1979 and for the winter and spring of 1980.

The two summer events which we are helping to support financially as well as other ways are: The Elementary Choir Camp (August 13-18) and the Camp for the Deaf (August 17-19). We feel that both these events are very much needed in our conference and we are proud to be a part of their beginning.

Our plans for 1980 include sponsoring a Chancel Drama Workshop (February 1-2) at Oakwood Lodge at Blue Lake with Norton Dill (from Vestavia Hills United Methodist Church in Birmingham) as leader. We strongly feel that our churches will benefit greatly from its people having this exposure to the variety of dramas available as well as techniques for carrying them out.

The second event is a "Confirmation Rally with the Bishop" on Saturday, March 1, at the gym at Blue Lake. This will be an exciting day of fun and learning about the great heritage of our church.

Our committee has many other hopes and dreams for helping our church to realize its full potential in years to come.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Pugh

BLUE LAKE CAMP

The continuing ministry of Blue Lake is impressive. During the past year over 13,273 persons have attended events at Blue Lake. Eighty-four events were sponsored by the Annual Conference and district agencies, with 6,023 persons involved. There were 151 camps and retreats sponsored by local churches, family camps, and non-Methodist groups. Seven thousand two hundred and fifty persons were involved in these events.

The policy of Blue Lake concerning reservations has long been established. "Conference boards and agencies, districts, and local churches are urged to schedule their retreats and events early. When groups are small an effort is made to schedule more than one group at Oakwood in order to accommodate more groups."

"Non-Methodist groups may reserve the facilities if no Methodist group has reserved a date ten months in advance of the date desired. Methodist boards, agencies, and local churches have until October 1 to schedule their activities for the three months of June, July, and August before non-Methodist groups can schedule activities."

The rates for Blue Lake are as follows: Methodist groups at Oakwood, $11.00 per person per day, (three meals and one night's lodging), Dogwood and Pinewood, $9.00 per day. The rate for non-Methodist groups at Oakwood is $16.00 per day; and Dogwood and Pinewood, $12.00 per day (three meals and lodging.) Individual meals are: Breakfast — $2.00, Lunch — $3.00, Supper — $2.50.

Lambuth Memorial Chapel has been dedicated and is used by small groups for worship. This beautiful shrine is a meaningful addition to the Blue Lake witness. A new pier has been built for Oakwood. This will greatly enlarge the waterfront activities of the lake.

The Blue Lake Fund apportioned to the local churches is essential to the operation of the camp. Inflation is a part of the Blue Lake way of life, as it is for all persons and groups. The cost of food and food preparation has increased greatly. Without the help of the local churches, Blue Lake cannot meet its bills. There is also an increasing demand for added services. Each church is urged to help Blue Lake continue to make its witness as an agency of the conference.

The support given Blue Lake by the United Methodist Women of the Alabama-West Florida Conference has made many of our facilities possible. Their continued support of our Methodist assembly ground is greatly appreciated.

The financial report for 1978 may be found in the Journal in the division containing other financial reports.

COMMITTEE ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

The purpose of the Equitable Salary Fund is to provide assistance to those ministers and their families serving charges whose salary will not assure a minimum standard of living. We believe that every charge desires to provide its minister with an adequate salary without assistance.

1. We, therefore, recommend that all charges receiving equitable salary assistance continue the program begun January, 1979, that will eliminate the need for salary supplements.

2. The Discipline requires that a fully scheduled equitable salary be paid before pension credit can be granted by the Board of Pensions. To participate in the insurance and Death Benefit Programs the minister must have pension credit. To receive fully scheduled equitable salary for the minister's category the church must pay 75% of the equitable salary schedule for 1980. Pastors of newly organized congregations can for two years receive up to one-half of the equitable salary schedule from the fund for its pastor.

3. Effective January 1, 1980, the equitable salary schedule shall be based on the conference average salary of the full connection and probationary members as determined by the Board of Pensions. The schedule for the various categories (rounded to the nearest $100) will be based on the following percentages of the conference average salary.

Members in Full Connection, 80% of conference average salary

Probationary Members, 80% of conference average salary

Associate Members, 70.5% of conference average salary

Seminary Students (married), 62.5% of conference average salary

Seminary Students (single), 58.5% of conference average salary

Full-time Local Pastors, 66% of conference average salary

Local Pastor — Student (married), 50.5% of conference average salary

Local Pastor — Student (single), 46.5% of conference average salary

Local Pastor — Licensee (married), 48% of conference average salary

Local Pastor — Licensee (single), 44% of conference average salary

4. The amount of equitable salary a minister is eligible to receive is based on the total of his salary, travel allowance, utilities and other approved church related allowances.

5. Only full-time pastors, retired pastors as specified in Item 6, and student pastors are eligible for equitable salary support.

6. If the combined total of all income received from The United Methodist Church by a retired minister (plus his Social Security) is not equal to the equitable salary schedule, then the Committee on Equitable Salaries shall pay the difference up to $2400.00. To qualify the retired minister must be serving full time.

7. It is recommended that the equitable salary secretary be authorized to issue check orders for equitable salary only after each district superintendent has certified (a) complete income and amount of need of each pastor who is to receive equitable salary aid; (b) that the charge did conduct an Every Member Commitment program emphasizing the total program of The United Methodist Church; (c) that the pastor gives leadership in promoting the total financial program with special emphases being given to the ministerial support and World Service and conference benevolences apportionments. It is not the responsibility of the Committee on Equitable Salaries to determine all the ramifications of a man's employment; this is the responsibility of the district superintendent. It is recommended that the secretary withhold any funds until the district superintendent has provided all the information as accurately as possible on the forms provided by the secretary.

8. No pastor of any classification shall receive aid from the fund if he receives income from any other church source if the income, plus salary from the charge he or she serves, is more than the equitable salary for his or her classification, except as provided in 16 and 17 of this report.

9. No person qualifying for equitable salary which amounts to less than $100 will receive any equitable salary. We feel that local churches can take care of this small amount.

10. The administering agency will not grant aid to any probationary or associate member who does not pass a full year of the course of study or fails to meet the minimum requirements for a student.

11. No associate pastor shall receive aid from this fund.

12. Each district superintendent is required to review all equitable salary situations in his district to reduce the need for equitable salary funds. No charge shall receive equitable salary assistance when divided unless the Commission on Town and Country Work has surveyed and recommended, and the Committee on Equitable Salaries has approved the division. We recommend that churches or charges, to be eligible for equitable salary aid, should consist of three or more churches or a minimum of 250 members, except in the case of a new church.

13. We recommend that the conference budget provide the funds necessary to carry on the equitable salary program as directed by the Annual Conference.

14. The secretary of equitable salary shall file with the assistant secretary for the Journal for publication in the Journal each year a report listing the payments from the Equitable Salary Fund during the year, giving names of the pastors and charges, and amounts paid from the Equitable Salary Fund.

15. We recommend that no pastor serving outside the bounds of the Alabama-West Florida Conference be eligible to receive equitable salary unless there is no appointment available for him in this conference and he is assigned by the presiding bishop to an appointment outside the conference, or unless it be a special appointment by the presiding bishop. Appointment for the convenience of the pastor himself shall not be considered reason enough to receive equitable salary aid.

16. The Committee on Equitable Salaries feels there may exist from time to time certain situations within our conference where special attention may help a church to more quickly become self-sustaining. In such situations a supplement determined by the Committee on Equitable Salaries, above the regular equitable salary, may be given the pastor, provided the money is available for this purpose. Normally no situation will receive this special consideration for more than four years. Ordinarily no more than three such situations will be considered during a year, based on money available. Such cases will be called "growth potential situations." In order to be considered, every case will be judged by certain criteria, and final determination will be done with the approval of the Board of Missions, since this board handles money for church extension. Each situation will be judged by the following criteria: a. growth potential; b. leadership requirements; c. age of the church; d. indebtedness.

17. In the case of cooperative parish ministries or specialized ministries the district superintendent, in consultation with the district Board of Missions and Committee on Equitable Salaries, shall be allowed to supplement the salary of a pastor/director or an associate director of a larger parish or specialized ministry even though the person comes under the benefits of equitable salary, without any reduction in the equitable salary support.

18. The Committee on Equitable Salaries feels that there may exist from time to time hardship cases, which need to be considered for help. These cases may be presented by the district superintendent to the committee. Sensing a need for such help for a charge, the district superintendent should hold the Charge Conference before the November meeting of the Committee on Equitable Salaries. The final decision on each situation will rest with the Committee on Equitable Salaries.

19. As an incentive to motivate churches to begin to reach toward total support of their pastoral leadership, we propose to give the preacher 60% of any salary increase above the amount currently paid by the church or above the minimum support required for his or her category, whichever is higher. This would apply to the charge which he or she is serving at the beginning of our payment period which is January 1. This supplement, recomputed each year, applies as long as the minister serves that charge, and we recommend that the Cabinet consider this accumulative amount as part of his salary when appointed to another charge.

20. We recommend the following be the equitable salary schedule for 1980:

Members in Full Connection	$10,900.00
Probationary Members	10,900.00
Associate Members	9,600.00
Seminary Students (married)	8,500.00
Seminary Students (single)	8,000.00
Full-time Local Pastors	9,000.00
Local Pastor — Student (married)	6,900.00
Local Pastor — Student (single)	6,300.00
Local Pastor — Licensee (married)	6,500.00
Local Pastor — Licensee (single)	6,000.00

AREA BOARD OF PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

The Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling has continued to provide a ministry of care and nurture to the ministerial families of both Annual Conferences during 1978 and 1979. The counseling and consultation demands have continued at full capacity this past conference year. Over 115 individuals or families sought counseling or consultation through this office in the last 12 months. This involved 575 sessions in actual face to face interviews. These interviews involve one or in some cases two hours per session. The director has initiated and conducted over 65 support group sessions in addition to the counseling and consultation services.

District and conference-wide requests for the director as a resource person have increased over the past year. Continued requests for counseling and increased requests for workshops and support group training have “pushed” the office beyond its capacity to respond adequately. In response to this need, the area board has entered into an agreement with Carraway Methodist Medical Center’s Clinical Pastoral Education Program to initiate a two year residency program in pastoral counseling focusing on marriage and family counseling as a specialty. This residency program will begin in September of 1979. The person-in-training will provide services of counseling to the Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling under the direct supervision of our director. The area board is very excited about the expanded service this program will provide, particularly to the North Alabama Conference. This residency training program certainly represents a major step forward in providing continuing education and specialized training in counseling for our clergy. Because of the cooperative nature of this program with Carraway Hospital, no additional funding will be required from the Annual Conferences.

The Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling is also beginning research into broader systemic issues affecting the life of the parsonage family. A study is now near completion on divorce and its affect on ministerial families. This research will be circulated to the appropriate agencies and persons as completed.

The board is pleased to report these new and exciting ventures and to ask for your continued prayers as we respond to the needs of ministers and their families.

SURVEY OF CLERGY DIVORCE IN THE BIRMINGHAM EPISCOPAL AREA

Prepared by Systemic Issues Committee of the Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling 1979

The survey of clergy divorce in the Birmingham Episcopal Area comes as a result of the Systemic Issues Committee's study of issues effecting the lives of clergy families. The incidence of divorce within the area is sufficient to direct the attention of Conference leaders and Board Membership to this as one of the most stressful experiences that can come to the parsonage family.

The purpose of the survey was to gain information that could contribute to a better understanding of divorce and its impact on clergy persons and their families in the Area. Such an investigation can suggest models of pastoral care which the church might implement in ministering to its clergy families under the stress of divorce and during the period of subsequent adjustment.

Both clergy and spouses who had experienced divorce found the most available source of help to be friends. While clergymen generally seemed to have felt support from colleagues and lay persons, spouses appear not to have felt support within the church structure. All respondents experienced some financial hardship; and relocation and distribution of income was generally problematic. Divorce among clergy families was perceived to be more catastrophic than divorce among laity. Greater intensity in feeling of failure, a sense of weakness, a loss of role and status, belief that the divorce itself was discrediting, and a sense of isolation were reported as being probably more intense for clergy families than for lay families.

All female spouses responding to the survey left the parsonage, and felt an emotional break with the church. Some ministers left the parish ministry; those who continued experienced support from the local church. But the system itself was not seen as being helpful. Pressures deriving from the appointive system, competitiveness, inadequate salaries, housing, poor preparation of wives for the role of a minister's family at the outset of marriage, and seeming expectation that the minister is a servant (with little or no time for his family) were some of the factors cited as contributing to the breakdown of the marriage and family. Respondents expressed that the system could have been more redemptive.

Implications of the response are given, the recommendations are made regarding what might be done to promote a more redemptive ministry to clergy families who are contemplating or going through divorce — at both the local church and the systemic levels.

The full report of this survey was approved by the Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling at its session April 20, 1979. A copy of the full report is available on request from the office of the Executive Director of the Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling.

COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Report No. 1

Your committee has been busy this year in its efforts to evaluate and strengthen the work of campus ministry through the Wesley Foundation programs and in its efforts to work toward a stronger and more equitable program of support for our two colleges.

A sub-committee was appointed and made visits to each Wesley Foundation and met with the director, the district superintendent, students and others in an effort to evaluate each Wesley Foundation program and what its needs are. Some recommendations coming from the sub-committee are that for identity purposes the name UNITED METHODIST needs to be emphasized at the campus level and in the promotional materials sent to our local churches; wherever possible, there should be close cooperation between the Wesley Foundation and local United Methodist churches in the communities. There is a great need for more funds to carry on this vital work with students on the campus. We are encouraged by the fact that our people raised their level of support to the Wesley Foundation from 66% to about 71% in 1978. We feel the apportionment for Wesley Foundation must be given top priority if our young people in colleges are to come back into our communities and be leaders in United Methodist churches. A more viable and effective program of ministry to the more than 7000 Methodist students on the campuses of our colleges can be expedited if our total church membership becomes aware of the great need for Christian training for these students through the Wesley Foundation and campus ministry.

Our committee has given some thought to and intends to pursue further in 79-80 the matter of reaching the many Methodist youth in our junior colleges and of establishing some kind of ministry to the students at Auburn University, Montgomery.

The Area Task Force dealing with our two colleges met and sought to work with the issues of mutual concern relating to the colleges. It was a good meeting in which representatives of the North Alabama Committee on Higher Education, our committee and trustees of Birmingham-Southern College and Huntingdon were able to express themselves concerning needs of the colleges and to reach some recommendations for the equitable support of both colleges by the two conferences. As a result, we are seeking, through the brochure distributed at the 1979 Annual Conferences, to depict them as jointly owned and supported by the two conferences and to present some of the programs and plans they have in educational outreach to students from both our conferences as well as out of state.

Again we are encouraged by the increasing support of our people to the Higher Education Fund from 50% in 1977 to 60% in 1978. We still urge all churches to accept in full and pay the asking in support of the colleges. We recommend that the division of all monies received in the Huntingdon Birmingham-Southern College apportionments from local churches in 1980 be divided as follows: Eighty percent (80%) for Huntingdon College and twenty percent (20%) for Birmingham-Southern College.

We are proud of the historic place of Huntingdon College, founded and supported by Birmingham Area Methodists. We join with them in the celebration of the 125th anniversary of their illustrious history. We encourage our local churches to observe Huntingdon Founder's Day and consider placing in its budget as many as possible $500 Youth Education Scholarships for needy and deserving students who desire to attend Huntingdon.

We also recommend that the conference give its blessing and cooperation to both Huntingdon and Birmingham-Southern Colleges in the expansion programs they have recently announced. The support of church members is recommended so that needed renovations, new buildings, strengthening of faculty programs and endowments can be accomplished as the colleges gird themselves for progress in the years ahead.

Our people are urged to continue and increase their support of the Black College Fund. This fund provides continuous methodical support for twelve (12) black colleges historically related to The United Methodist Church.

We call upon our people to observe Methodist Student Day with a special emphasis and to give a love offering above and beyond their regular giving to support the Student Scholarship and Loan Fund. It is the oldest and largest of its kind in the country and presently offers loans to more than 11,000 persons in the amount of over six million dollars. A number of students from our conference have benefitted from the fund in the past and several are at present receiving aid from this fund.

The need for support from our people in the area of higher education is great. Tremendous challenges and responsibilities face us in the days ahead. Your committee pledges to work diligently to improve the programs of campus ministry and to meet the needs of our colleges and students. We seek your advice and support in trying to develop plans and programs that will meet the challenge.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank L. Scott, Chairman

ADDITION TO HEADQUARTERS BUILDING

The Board of Trustees of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church makes the following report to the Alabama-West Florida Conference in session at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama, May 28-June 1, 1979 in regards to the conference headquarters building in Andalusia, Alabama.

NEED: Additional space for the operation of the activities carried on by the Council on Ministries is sorely needed. (1) Storage space for supplies, audio-visual materials, records, etc. The Fire Marshall has ordered that all paper must cease being stored in air-conditioner and furnace room and there is inadequate storage space for paper and other supplies. (2) Additional space for bookkeeping and office of the treasurer. The computer needs to be moved to another room in order to give working space. (3) Workroom for compiling mailings, collating materials. At the present time this is being done in the conference room. When meetings are held, work is held up or materials must be moved to accommodate groups meeting at headquarters. Storage of materials and having machines in this room is inconvenient. (4) Larger offices are needed for two staff persons. Present rooms are barely large enough for desk, chair, and filing cabinet.

COST: Estimated cost for a Butler Building and furnishings to be added to the rear of the present building is around $45,000. This can be financed by $15,000 from interest on investments and has been approved by the Council on Finance and Administration. An additional $15,000 from the Contingency Fund administered jointly by the Council on Ministries and Council on Finance and Administration has also been approved by both councils. Additional funds can be secured from the Maintenance and Amortization Fund so that it will be unnecessary to borrow additional funds.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS — the administrative and fiscal affairs of the Alabama-West Florida Conference have quadrupled since 1963 when the headquarters building was built in Andalusia and WHEREAS the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference has made a thorough study of the work and needs to enlarge the office space needed by the agencies of the conference to adequately perform its functions and has determined that adequate space can be built without incurring any indebtedness.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Annual Conference authorize the conference Trustees to proceed with plans to enlarge the conference headquarters building with an addition of a Butler-type building addition bricked to match present facilities at a cost not to exceed $45,000.00. Such addition to encompass not less than 2,200 sq. ft., be adequately insulated, carpeted, and meet specifications prepared by the building committee of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference.

Joe Ellisor, Chairman
Norman Carr, Secretary

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS the Conference property located on Meadowbrook Drive in Andalusia and used as a staff parsonage has deteriorated to the point that maintenance is excessive and considerable repair is needed to bring the house to standard. AND FURTHER, the size of the house is inadequate for comfortably housing the family of the staff member assigned to the property.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference in session at Huntingdon College May 28-June 1, 1979, direct that its trustees assess the needs of the parsonage families in Andalusia and sell the Meadowbrook Drive property and purchase adequate housing with proceeds from the sale of the Meadowbrook Drive property applying toward such purchase.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that authority be granted the conference trustees to borrow such funds as needed or to assume such mortgages as necessary to accomplish the direction of the annual conference.

J.O. Ellisor, Jr., Chairman

CONFERENCE BOARD OF THE LAITY

Three outstanding activities have taken place this past year under the auspices of the Conference Board of the Laity. The directors of lay speaking, stewardship and United Methodist Men, in conjunction with resource personnel from the General Board of Discipleship, presented conference-wide workshops at Blue Lake that have had their impact felt in our district laity organizations throughout the conference. Much credit for the success of these workshops is due Haniel Jones, George Proctor, Harold Butts and the district lay leaders who have provided opportunities for the laity of their districts to become involved.

The 1979 conference-wide Laity Retreat at Blue Lake was set for April 6 and 7. We were most fortunate in having Dr. Jack Gray, United Methodist Evangelist from Tulsa, Oklahoma, as our guest speaker. The annual retreat has come to mean much in the spiritual lives of our people and this is one time when all of us — laity, clergy, men and women — come together and share our love for the Lord with each other. We are grateful for the support of Bishop Sanders. His presence with us and participation in the program is further evidence of his concern and support.

The Conference Laity Banquet has become one of the highlights of Annual Conference. We have enjoyed notable speakers that have maintained the interest and support of the clergy and the laity. This year, we welcome Dr. G. Ross Freeman, Executive Secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Council on Ministries. Dr. Freeman, a champion of the laity, is greatly responsible for the organization supporting the accomplishments of the laity throughout the jurisdiction.

Looking forward to 1980, we are now planning to work with the conference Board of Education in providing leadership and training to district and local church officers. In addition, the board is looking forward to expanded leadership and training sessions in stewardship, United Methodist Men, and lay speaking in preparation for the 1980 general church theme: "God's People — Called to Be the Church."

In retrospect, I know that the accomplishments of the board this past year have, in large part, been possible because of the assistance and support of the executive director of the conference Council on Ministries, Rev. C. Everett Barnes. Everett has been of tremendous personal assistance to me during this past year as your conference lay leader, and I'm deeply appreciative of his continuing interest and support.

With God's help and with the determination of all our people in the Alabama-West Florida Conference we can be, in 1980—and in the years to come—God's People—Called to Be the Church!

Jack Temple
Conference Lay Leader

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

1980 is the bicentennial anniversary of the Sunday School in American Methodism. Every local church is urged to carefully evaluate its Sunday School program, with special emphasis upon starting new classes, teacher training, and better attendance. Studies and evaluations done in the fall of this year should result in definite growth goals for 1980.

During the week of October 15-19, 1979, the Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church will coordinate and staff a School of Evangelism at Blue Lake. Several such schools are being held across the United States in 1979. This is the first school to be held within one Annual Conference setting. The very best guidance and help in church growth philosophy and methodology will be shared in this week-long school. Pastors and lay persons who are serious about renewing and strengthening the local church should not miss this. District superintendents and district secretaries of evangelism have been asked to enlist pastors and laity from each district to attend. A minimum goal of fifteen persons from each district has been set. Persons who read the required material, listen to the tapes, attend the week-long school, and do an assignment after the school, will be certified as consultants in church growth. Our goal is to have persons in all nine districts who are certified and able to help take this vital knowledge into local churches, large and small. Persons interested in attending should contact their district superintendent, district secretary of evangelism, or the Board of Evangelism. Scholarship aid is available to defray the cost of the school, and books and tapes for study can be borrowed from the district or from conference headquarters.

In the spring of 1980, the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church will be involved in a Proclamation Evangelism Event. During the week of February 24-28 and the week of March 23-27, churches and entire Annual Conferences will have an exchange program whereby the Good News is proclaimed in every church in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Visiting ministers will be trained and will not only proclaim the Good News, but will work with the local churches' Councils on Ministries to help the churches become functioning centers of evangelistic ministry. This event further emphasizes the need for having pastors at the School of Evangelism in October.

The general church has set a goal of 1,000,000 new members in the eight-year period ending in 1984. The Southeastern Jurisdiction needs to win 288,000 persons to Christ in eight years. The Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference needs to reach 12,672 persons for Christ, or about 1,584 persons each year for the eight years. We therefore recommend that we set a minimum goal of 1,584 persons each year through 1984.

1984 is the bicentennial of Methodism in America. The Board of Evangelism recommends to this Annual Conference that we set a goal of establishing ten new churches in our conference by December, 1984. It has been about nine years since a new church was started in this conference, and surveys show that new churches in strategic locations grow rapidly.

We further recommend that church extension be given a high priority in the conference during that period. Established churches should be encouraged to give an increased amount of financial aid to new churches. If we are serious about growth and reaching people for Christ, then we must be as serious about underwriting salary support for pastors and debt-free building sites in growing areas within our conference.

Since the majority of those entering our church by profession of faith come through the Sunday Schools, we see the need to offer a workshop on confirmation training. We plan to offer such a training event in January of 1980, at Blue Lake. Efforts are being made to secure the finest leadership.

BOARD OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

The spirit of ecumenical concern continues to develop within the Birmingham Area of The United Methodist Church. We commend all who are working in this area of the life of the Church, and encourage them to continue their efforts.

The Board of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns is interested in the Baldwin County Migrant Ministry. We see in this project the spirit of ecumenism at work. We are exploring the possibility of using United Methodist volunteers in the summer program of this project.

We have cooperated with the Alabama Christian Consultation in the National Workshop on Christian Unity, held in Birmingham April 23-26, 1979. We expect to continue to cooperate in projects initiated by the Alabama Christian Consultation.

We are working toward a training event for local and district coordinators of ecumenical and interreligious concerns. This workshop should be held early in the new quadrennium.

We urge every local church to continue to promote the ecumenical concerns of our United Methodist Church as they work with churches of other denominations in their own communities. We believe that in doing this, we are truly promoting the concerns of the Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,
Davis Y. Martin, Chairperson

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

The Commission on Worship has now completed the third year of the 1977-1980 quadrennium. The goals set forth in a four year plan drafted in 1977 have either been or are being met. The five priorities for action: Annual Conference worship, lectionary distribution, alternate ritual distribution, district workshops and music workshops are all now being fulfilled annually.

Last year the commission provided for Annual Conference worship by producing a brochure of hymns, printed liturgies, inspiring speakers and a setting for the services. An alternate Ritual of Baptism, Confirmation and Renewal was dramatically introduced to the conference. The theme for the morning worship experiences was "evangelism", which is one of the three quadrennial emphases.

The chairperson and the secretary-treasurer will be representing the conference at "Design '79", the national United Methodist convocation on music, worship and the arts, this summer.

A youth choir camp took place August 1-5 at Oakwood Lodge. Dr. John Dressler of Montgomery, Alabama, and other excellent resource persons led the conference choir camp.

The Commission on Worship strongly urges the youth council and camping committee to consider assuming sponsorship of this camp thus granting it an on-going place in the conference program that it can achieve in no other way.

An interconference convocation on worship was held in Columbus, Georgia, on February 16 and 17. The Reverend Misters Hoyt Hickman and Thom Jones were resource persons. Worship resources for The United Methodist Church was the convocation theme.

A word of appreciation is here directed to the Budget and Coordinating Committee of the conference Council on Ministries for working with the Commission on Worship to adequately fund the last year of this quadrennium's work. Because of this visionary support, the work of interpretation, education, celebration and growth can continue stronger than ever in the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

It is reported that the average person uses only 5-10 percent of their potential. This means that 90-95 percent of the potential for creative, fulfilling work and service lies, unrecognized, hidden, often under a fear of failure.

The focus of our concern then, must be to set up and get into operation, a career planning unit in each local church to assist them in becoming trained and resourced to help persons of all age-levels unlock at least part of this vast potential. The pastor and the secretary of career planning are the key people in the local church. They can work to create a climate of fellowship in the whole congregation and especially in small groups, classes etc., in which individuals find support, acceptance, encouragement, and are thus enabled to discover that they are indeed persons of unique ability and worth. In other words, the goal is to experience real Christian fellowship. (Koinonia). Whenever this occurs, persons begin to discover their particular "gifts and graces," to hear God's call, and to receive courage to attempt new things.

Ideally this is the task of the whole Church. A model is the Antioch church under the leadership of Barnabas (the Son of Encouragement) — Acts 11:19-26, 13:1-5. The calling of God comes to every Christian. There is a "General Ministry" to which every Christian is called. This may mean living and working as a Christian in whatever job you find you are in. Hopefully your job is one which allows you to make best use of your special abilities and brings a sense of fulfillment. Someone said, "If your job is not one you can ask God to bless, or if it does not bless others, perhaps you ought to think about changing jobs."

God also calls some to the more specialized Church occupations, and to the diaconal and ordained ministry. We have a special responsibility to assist one another in hearing and responding to our particular needs.

The conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling plans to sponsor workshops in each district for pastors and local church secretaries of career planning. We ask the assistance of the district superintendents in setting these and in securing attendance.

We will provide one free copy of the new booklet, Church Occupations and Career Planning, to each pastor. These may be secured by writing to conference headquarters, Box 700, Andalusia, Al. 36420.

Rual W. Morris, Chairman

JOINT COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS FOR THE BIRMINGHAM AREA

Report Number 1

The Joint Committee on Communications has the responsibility of supervising the Office of Communication for the Birmingham Area and for evaluating the ministry of the director of communication. We call your attention to Report Number 2 for the job description for this office.

The following activities are among those our director has performed during the year:

1. Served as a trainer, consultant and support person for the local church coordinator of communications. Training events have been held in several districts and local churches. We urge each local church to elect a coordinator of communications and enable this person to carry out the functions of this office.

2. Produced an audiovisual presentation for the North Alabama Conference Committee on Missions' annual report to the 1978 conference.

3. Continued the emphasis on Television Awareness Training. Three weekend retreats and three mini-presentations were given by the director.

Many other Television Awareness Training events were held by the other certified trainers. These persons are: Mark Stewart, Sue Parnell, Phyllis Anderson, Charlotte Meredith, Gerry Hearin, and Rex Brown.

4. Held nine "Here's How In Media" workshops in the Alabama-West Florida Conference in association with Mark Stewart and the Children's Committee of the conference Board of Education.

5. Has given continued emphasis to the placement and promotion of "CONNECTION" (also see Report Number 4). A tri-conference workshop for district coordinators was held to develop skills in program placement. A follow-up seminar was held to build a model for audience promotion. Selected persons were invited to a "correspondence" training event held in Montgomery.

Our CONNECTION resource persons for these events were: Lee Parkison, Marketing Coordinator, and Bill Hall, Assistant Producer.

6. Mailed press releases on conference and area events to the public media. Submitted articles and pictures to the Methodist Christian Advocate. Our director has acted as liaison person to the public media for a number of different organizations related to our conferences.

7. Conducted a major area-wide workshop in cable and closed-circuit television which was held in Birmingham. The workshop featured one general board representative, Dr. James Alexander, Board of Discipleship; one Southeastern Jurisdiction representative, Dr. G. Ross Freeman; and two persons from other conferences. The Rev. Carl Rhoads, Shreveport, La., and Don Woods, Macon, Ga. Gray Communications, Inc., and Mobile Video, provided video displays. Over 29 persons participated in this event.

The public media ministry is enhanced by our associate membership in the Alabama Broadcasters Association, membership in the Public Relations Council of Birmingham, and United Methodist Association for Communicators.

For the second year, publication of "The Daily Seed" during the sessions of the Annual Conferences, was well received. The "Daily Seed" portfolio provided members of the Annual Conferences was favorably received.

This committee continues to work in relationship with the conference Committees on Communication and other agencies of the two conferences.

Our director has continued to improve his effectiveness in this ministry by participating in national and local training events, and through in-service educational programs.

We recommend that Bishop Carl Sanders reappoint Robert F. Storey as director of communications for the ensuing year.

Report Number 2

The director of United Methodist Communications — Birmingham Episcopal Area is expected to fulfill the following responsibilities:

- to train and support the local church in developing its public relations program and to provide communication training among the members of the local church.
- to be the liaison person with the district coordinator of communications.
- to produce "The Bishop's Hour" and to be the liaison person with the network stations.
- to serve as the news officer for the Birmingham Episcopal Area, with responsibility for distributing news releases to newspapers, radio and television stations, and developing a compatible relationship with the public media.
- to provide news articles and pictures/stories for the Methodist Christian Advocate.
- to create ministries in media, produce filmstrips, and audio cassettes and provide training in the church's use of video.
- to promote the Mass Communications Fund.
- to plan and implement communications education/training events.
- to maintain a central office of United Methodist Communications in the Birmingham Episcopal Area and to supervise operations and supportive personnel of the office.

Report Number 3

The United Methodist Church in the Birmingham Episcopal Area has a unique and enviable relationship with the television industry in Alabama and West Florida. "The Bishop's Hour", our television ministry, has just completed its twelfth successful year of programming. Through the public interest and generosity of WAPI-TV, the originating station, and the five network stations, we have the opportunity to present the message of Christ to the general public through the powerful medium of television.

We believe "The Bishop's Hour" is one of the finest locally-produced religious programs broadcast on prime time today. The continued receptivity from the general managers in the industry seems to support this contention. "The Bishop's Hour" is produced eight months a year — October through May — and is carried on the following stations in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, and Mississippi:

- WAPI-TV, Birmingham; WJHG-TV, Panama City, Florida;
- WOWL-TV, Florence; WTOK-TV, Meridian, Miss.;
- WTVM-TV, Columbus, Ga; WTVY-TV, Dothan.

We are grateful to Mr. Donald Wear, General Manager of WAPI Television for his continued support of the United Methodist television ministry. We are deeply indebted to Mr. Everett Holle, Program Manager, and Mr. Robert Earl Smith, Production Manager, who have been close, working companions with the program since its inception, and who continue to give the program their devoted attention. The entire staff of WAPI-TV are our friends. We take this opportunity to express our appreciation to them for their devoted services to "The Bishop's Hour."

We also acknowledge our indebtedness to the program managers in each of the network stations and express our appreciation to them for their participation in "The Bishop's Hour."

Many people across Alabama, West Florida, Georgia and Mississippi look forward each month to Bishop Carl Sanders' appearance on "The Bishop's Hour." His sermons are timely, Christ centered, and evangelistic. We are grateful to him for his participation in this important television ministry.

Mrs. Connie Barnes, Talladega, has been an interpreter for the deaf for the third consecutive year.

The following choirs and soloists have appeared on the 1978-79 programs: Nancy Cooley, Birmingham; Peggy Donaldson, Birmingham; Children's Choir, First United Methodist Church, Birmingham; Long Memorial Choir, Cordova; Delphine Paige, Birmingham-Southern College; "Free Spirit" ensemble, Panama City; Ashland Place United Methodist Church Choir, Mobile; and Wesley Foundation, Auburn University.

We believe "The Bishop's Hour" is a viable option to the violent, sex-oriented, deceptive programs being presented on national television in our time;

Therefore, we encourage each church to take the initiative in promoting the program through the pulpit, the newsletter, church bulletin and the local papers, and to write letters of appreciation to the station in their area.

Finally, there are no words which can describe our relationship to the television industry. Let us never take this privilege lightly when the mass media is such a powerful force in our society.

Report Number 4

"CONNECTION" — The United Methodist Radio series connecting "people to faith, people to people and people to action" is now being carried on eight stations in Alabama. The stations are:

WXLE, Abbeville; WBSA, Boaz; WEBJ, Brewton;
WEZZ-FM, Clanton; WELB, Elba; WRSA-FM, Huntsville;
WKAX, Russellville and WKEA, Scottsboro.

"CONNECTION" is produced weekly in magazine format and features personal testimony of United Methodist members from across this nation. Mr. Bill Richards, formerly from the Alabama-West Florida Conference, is the voice of "CONNECTION." The program is produced by the Public Media Division of United Methodist Communications and is broadcast on more than 185 stations across the nation.

The following persons and churches from Alabama and West Florida have appeared on the program:

Rita Anthony, Birmingham; Betty and Gary Boatwright, Repton;
John Dressler, Montgomery; Summer Work Camp, Butler;
Jim Rains (Noah's Ark), Panama City.

We are indebted to the district coordinators of communications, pastors, and station managers who have secured placement time on local stations. We urge continued support in the efforts to place "CONNECTION" on other stations.

Our goal is to have this excellent United Methodist program on at least one station in every district.

To accomplish this goal, we encourage the financial support of the district Council on Ministries, local church budgets, Sunday School classes, United Methodist Women's organizations, and individual sponsors to provide paid-for time on the air.

Report Number 5

We recommend each local church read the resolution passed by the 1976 General Conference entitled "The Church In A Mass Media Culture." The concluding statement in that resolution is as follows:

"We urge our churches to communicate, serve, and minister to their communities through the public media. This will require our churches to:

Discover the needs of persons in the community and determine how the church can minister to those needs through the media.

Work with other churches in an ecumenical spirit of service and ministry.

Commit time, budget, and talent to a ministry through the media.

Maintain high ethical and moral standards in utilizing the media.

Recognize the variety of purposes the church can fulfill in communicating through the mass media, such as education, witness, evangelizing, information, social action, service and ministry.

Finally, we call upon the mass media industries and leaders to recognize their power in our society and to use this power responsibly in enabling persons to achieve their fullest potential as children, women, and men of God."

We believe this is an excellent statement on the relationship of the church to the public media.

Therefore, we call upon the conference and local church Councils on Ministries to give this statement careful study;

We advocate a higher priority on the use of public media by the conference and local churches;

We urge each local church to consider the public media as an extension of the church's ministry in evangelism and education;

We encourage each local church to plan for the effective use of the public media;

We call upon the public media to work closely with representatives of the local churches and conference in developing the appropriate skills in using the public media;

And, we call upon the public media to recognize the right of the Church to have access to and make responsible use of the various channels of communication operated by the public media.

In conclusion, we are grateful to the public media — newspapers, radio and television — for their responsiveness to our requests, for their coverage of United Methodist events and for including articles and announcements in their media. We commend them for their cooperation with us.

Report Number 6

The financial records of United Methodist Communications have been audited by Mr. Robert Walston and found in good condition.

Mrs. Jeanne Glasgow is to be commended for her excellent work as treasurer of United Methodist Communications.

Copies of the audit report have been placed on file with each Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration and the secretary of the Joint Committee on Communications.

Report Number 7

We recommend continuance of the "committee of 10" to conduct an "in-depth study of the organization, management and operation of The Methodist Christian Advocate and United Methodist Communications" as contained in Report Number 8, page 296-7, 1978 Journal of the North Alabama Conference; page 269, 1978 Journal of the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

Robert F. Storey, Director

THE METHODIST CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

Report Number 1

The openings of the 1979 sessions of the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference will find the Methodist Christian Advocate standing at the eve of its centennial year. The publication, first called the Alabama Christian Advocate (until its name was changed to the Methodist Christian Advocate in 1956, to make the name of the paper accord with the privilege it has of serving not only United Methodists in Alabama but also those in northwest Florida) was established by vote of the then Alabama Conference and the North Alabama Conference in their 1880 sessions. The first issue came from the press on May 25, 1881. The approaching of the one hundredth year of the publishing of the Methodist Christian Advocate means that the 1979-80 Annual Conference year is a significant time for the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference to begin preparation for the celebration of the Advocate's centennial. The Advocate Board of Trustees will offer suggestions for this preparation period at the 1979 sessions of the two conferences.

The Advocate constantly seeks to actualize its purpose of bringing news of important events in the two Annual Conferences and across The United Methodist Church. Emphasis is given also to main occurrences in the church around the world. The Advocate serves as a vital communications instrument for the programs of the two Annual Conferences and the councils, committees, commissions, boards, institutions and other agencies within them. The Advocate is an example of the connectional character which is an essential part of the nature of United Methodism. Our two Annual Conferences and all their units of organization, from the conference to the local church level, are more informed about each other through the Methodist Christian Advocate, the year around.

The Methodist Christian Advocate is the printed communications medium of the Alabama-West Florida and the North Alabama Conferences. It covers all interests of our denomination and goes with every issue, currently 48 per year, throughout the two Annual Conferences. The Rev. Norman DeWire, director of the General Council on Ministries, recently said that there is a great current need for United Methodism to become more aware of and responsive to its connectional character, emphasizing that we need to "reconnect the connection." The Advocate strengthens the reality of connectionalism in Alabama and West Florida United Methodism.

The 1978-79 conference year has been one of financial stress for the Advocate. Three pressing economic factors have brought this about:

(1) Postal rates have been advancing sharply and have now become a major expense to the Advocate. The U.S. Postal Service in 1978 was in the seventh year of a long range program of increases in second class mailing rates. The increases, announced by the U.S. Postal Service each July, have averaged 30% in recent years. For instance in 1976 the cost of mailing the Advocate was $9,250.00; in 1978 this item was $15,727.81; in 1979 this amount is projected to be $20,750.00. The program of increases will extend 16 years for non-profit organizations, which include the Advocate. Profit organizations are being allowed ten years to meet the same percentage of increases. Non-profit organizations are granted six additional years in which to absorb the increases.

(2) The Alabama-West Florida Conference has placed the Advocate, beginning January 1, 1979, on a proration basis in relation to appropriations granted by the conference.

(3) The inflation factor means increases in printing, supplies, and practically every other phase of the Advocate's budget.

The Advocate acted last July 21 to meet this financial crisis. Our Board of Trustees decided then to reduce the size of the publication in order to cut back on printing and mailing costs and to reduce the staff by the part time office (two days a week) of the financial secretary. This work, since January 1, 1979, has been performed by the North Alabama Conference treasurer, the administrative secretary of the Advocate, in addition to the responsibilities administered in this regard by the editor and business manager of the publication.

Subscription rates were raised 25¢ all along the line, so that current subscription rates are now as follows: churches subscribing 100% for every resident active family in membership, $3.25; Administrative Boards subscribing 100% for every family represented on the board, $3.75; individual rates — 1 year $4.75, 2 years $8.50, 3 years $11.75. Still a moderate price, indeed, for the Methodist Christian Advocate, produced, printed and delivered!

The financial picture was described to the Birmingham Area in the Advocate issue of October 29, 1978 (editorial, Page Two).

The Advocate Board of Trustees is giving consideration to the recommendations made by the North Alabama Conference Management Study Committee and will examine these in consultation with the special committee authorized at the 1978 sessions of the North Alabama Conference and the Alabama-West Florida Conference to make a study of the Methodist Christian Advocate and United Methodist Communications of the Birmingham Area.

We recommend as follows:

(1) That the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference give their approval and vigorous support in the 1979-80 conference year to preparation for the observance of the 1980-81 centennial observance of the Methodist Christian Advocate; that in this preparatory phase every church in the two Annual Conferences be called to have a group of subscribers to the Advocate within its membership, and that a minimum goal in this regard be subscribing by the Administrative Board in every local church.

(2) That this goal of a group of subscribers in every church be implemented through a subscription campaign to be led by the Advocate in October and November, 1979.

(3) That the Alabama-West Florida Conference recommends to the conference Council on Ministries and the Council on Finance and Administration that The Methodist Christian Advocate be placed as a priority in its World Service and Conference benevolences appropriations.

The Advocate submits this report with gratitude for the excellent cooperation of Bishop Carl J. Sanders, the district superintendents, the conference Councils on Finance and Administration, the conference Councils on Ministries, subscribing local churches, individual subscribers, and all who make possible the wide coverage of news — local, district, conference, jurisdictional and general — which the Advocate is privileged to present.

Council on Finance and Administration
Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church
Andalusia, Alabama

We have examined the statement of recorded receipts and disbursements of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 1978 and the statement of investments at December 31, 1978. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The Council's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash received and cash disbursed; consequently certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of recorded receipts and disbursements and statement of investments present fairly the recorded receipts and disbursements of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 1978 and the investments held at December 31, 1978.

DIVISION X — MEMOIRS

STEWART MELVIN BAKER

1895-1979

Stewart Melvin Baker was born March 19, 1895, at Waycross, Georgia. He was the son of Richard Alva and Carrie Belle Green Baker. On August 27, 1917, he married Annie Douglas Park Baker who now lives at Lanett Geriatric Center, Lanett, Alabama. From that union came three children, a son, Stewart Melvin, Jr. who was killed in Korea in 1950, two daughters, Mrs. Forney (Eloise Ann) Renfro, of Opelika, Alabama, and Mrs. Allen Murray (Martha Virginia) Cory of Grayton Beach, Florida.

Brother Baker received his A.B. (1921), D.D. (1922) and B.D. (1927) from Emory University. He also attended Garrett in 1925-1926. He was admitted as an Elder in the Methodist Church in 1924.

Dr. Baker served with distinction in an extended and progressive tenure as Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education as a trustee and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Birmingham-Southern College.

While serving as pastor of Andalusia, First, he was instrumental in the establishment of the West End United Methodist Church, located on River Falls Road in Andalusia.

Dr. Baker first introduced the proposal to erect a Methodist Camp Ground at Blue Lake, fourteen miles south of Andalusia, and over a period of years carried the torch in behalf of this development, now a year-round church retreat.

Dr. Baker initiated the thought that Andalusia, being centrally located in the Alabama-West Florida Conference, should be designated the conference headquarters site, and, over a period of years, fought valiantly and fruitfully until the annual conference voted to accept the Mrs. Hill Guy realty building on Three Notch Street as the location for the conference headquarters building.

Dr. Baker retired to Andalusia in 1964 and died there March 7, 1979. His funeral was held at First United Methodist Church, Andalusia, March 10, 1979.

VIRGIL CROOK HERNDON

The Reverend Virgil Crook Herndon was born April 22, 1884, in the parsonage home of the Reverend Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Herndon at Weogufka, Alabama. He was given good Christian training in the home and his father's parish. When he was still young he came to know Jesus as his personal Saviour. Although he entered the teaching profession in his early adult life, he soon answered the call to the ministry.

He was married to Miss Virginia Pearson, who was also a dedicated Christian. They were a great team until her death in 1966. Their happy home was blessed with three daughters: Elizabeth, Mrs. Cleve Howington (Virginia), Mrs. Royce Harper; and Martha Jo, Mrs. Fleming Empson, who survive their parents.

Every fellow minister who knew Brother Herndon was blessed by his life. We came to know him as "Pap" a name he was lovingly called by family and friends.

"Pap" served churches in Tennessee and the North Alabama Conference before transferring to the Alabama Conference in the mid-1920's. From that time to 1960 he served in the Alabama-West Florida Conference. His ministry was such that it was favorably remembered long after he moved on to other appointments.

After his retirement in 1960, he and Mrs. Herndon made their home in Mobile. Soon after the St. John Church was organized in 1963, they affiliated with the young church. They saw an opportunity to render a much needed service in the young church in their senior years. Three years later Mrs. Herndon passed away. This left "Pap" sad and lonely. Although he seemed to look forward to the day he could join her in heaven, he found great joy in his family and the St. John Church. He was never pastor at St. John, but few pastors have loved a church so much, and few churches have loved a minister so much. His ministry at St. John was such that it makes one think this might well have been his most successful ministry.

In 1977 the St. John Church expressed its love for the Herndons by naming the present building the "Herndon Building" in honor of these two fine Christian people.

On January 11, 1979, the long awaited day came. After almost ninety-five years of life, love and service, God allowed "Pap" to go to his eternal home.

The Funeral was held June 23, 1978, at St. Paul United Methodist Church, Pensacola, Florida, with the Reverend Rex Mixson leading the service. He was buried in Holy Cross Cemetery of that city.

Much of the ministry of Reverend Smith was focused on the development of youth. He espoused that an investment of love, time and attention in our youth is one of the greatest investments one can make during a lifetime. He gave of himself in helping with Vacation Church School and teaching piano. He has trained many pianists and organists who continue to serve The United Methodist Church in various cities.

During his ministry he served as conference treasurer and Chairman of Health and Welfare for the Aged. He was known as an evangelist and radio minister.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY SPIVEY 1902-1978

"Mac" Spivey was born in Kinston and at the age of twenty-four married Clara Ethel Toler. They had one child, Carmon Juanita Tew.

According to a record in his own hand in his Bible he was "licensed to preach at the (Dothan) District Conference of the Alabama-West Florida Conference April 19, 1947, at Enterprise, Alabama. He did lay preaching beginning in the year 1945."

He was ordained Deacon in 1953 and Elder in 1955. He served Suggsville; Washington St., Eufaula; Ensley-Molino; Cottage Hill-Farm Hill; Burge Memorial; and Frisco City where he continued to live in retirement and serve part time as his health permitted. He is buried at Frisco City.

The following Eulogy was presented by his grandson, David Earl Tew, at the Service of Worship in his memory on May 28, 1978, at the church he helped build in Frisco City:

"Moses, the servant of God died." (Deut. 34:5) This was the announcement made to the people of God after Moses had climbed Mount Nebo to look over into the beautiful promised land. No briefer, yet more beautiful eulogy has ever been uttered, for what greater thing can be said than, "He served God." Moses died a servant of God and so did William McKinley Spivey.

As a humble, dedicated servant of God, he diligently sought to know God's will and to do what was pleasing in his Master's sight. He carefully ministered to God's church. He passionately carried the message of salvation to a lost world. He faithfully worked to care for his family. He was a man of the Bible, for he always remained a student of the Word. He was a man of compassion, for he freely shared God's love with all. He was truly an administrator of God's grace.

So Rev. McKinley Spivey died a servant of God. He too has climbed Mt. Nebo to look over into the beautiful promised land that Christ has prepared for all his servants. Even now Christ is greeting his servant, McKinley Spivey, with "well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Having followed this man in two charges, I can say, but surely only in part, as it was said to the angel at the church at Ephesus, "I know thy works." It has been a privilege to serve after him.

WIVES/WIDOWS OF MINISTERS

MRS. HENRY TATE GRAYSON

Ethel Sageser Grayson, a native of Kentucky, was a graduate of Asbury College and had the equivalent of two Master's degrees. Entering the teaching profession, Mrs. Grayson came to Chipley, Florida. At the time of her marriage to the Reverend Henry Tate Grayson on September 12, 1934, Mrs. Grayson was teaching at Tate High in Escambia County. In her teaching career Mrs. Grayson employed both creative and progressive methods in responding to the needs of her students. Quite often she would be assigned difficult classes because of her ability to cope creatively with the problems of children and youth.

In addition to her work in the classroom, Mrs. Grayson was an accomplished musician, serving as pianist in many churches throughout the years of her husband's ministry, and working with children and youth in special services. Frequently Mrs. Grayson served as teacher in Sunday School classes and, throughout her life, worked diligently in women's work, organizing at least four new Societies. During the thirty-one years of serving as a co-laborer with her husband in the ministry, she seldom missed any service, morning or night.

Mrs. Grayson was the mother of two children, one of which, Henry, Jr., survives his mother.

She is also survived by two grandchildren, Pegine and Douglas Grayson, a sister, Mrs. Bertha Benson, and a brother, Claude Sageser, both of Lexington, Kentucky.

On the afternoon of March 5, 1979, Ethel Sageser Grayson completed her earthly ministry and went into the presence of the Lord.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant!"

MRS. W. CARL SIMPSON

The worth of living is measured not only in its victories but, as surely, in the way life is lived. No truth could be more evident than in the life of Nocie Barnes Simpson, wife of the Reverend W. Carl Simpson, Sr. Surely she had many victories, but what was far more important was the fullness with which her life was measured as she finally departed to join her Master on the evening of May 21, 1979.

Nocie Simpson was one of ten children born to John Barnes and his wife, Minnie Nowling Barnes. Her mother came home at noon on November 15, 1909, after a full morning's work in the fields of their Escambia County farm. The daughter born that afternoon was given the name John Barnes heard in a dream, Nocie. She was a special daughter, working by her father's side, learning the skills of carpentry and mechanical craftsmanship that throughout her life would distinguish her from other women. Her diligence brought her into conflict with her father, eventually leading her to go live with an older half-brother and later a kind Christian woman to complete her education. Yet, no one was more proud than her father when she was recognized as valedictorian of the very first graduation class of Flomaton High School fifty years ago. Her sponsor provided an unheard opportunity and sent her to Abilene Christian College in Texas.

It was at St. Francis Street Methodist Church, Mobile, that she met and married Carl Simpson in 1932. Their life together was begun with dedication of all they had to God. As an accountant and later a businessman, Carl Simpson, did well, but a deeper yearning became an unmistakable call to the ministry. In answering the call years later, he would admit it was not merely with Nocie's agreement but with her strong support and patient encouragement.

The year after their marriage, a daughter was born, Edna Carlyn, who would marry a Methodist minister. Eleven years later, a son was born, William Carl, Jr., who would also become a Methodist minister. Nine years later, her first grandson, Andrew Paul, son of Carlyn and Leonard Howell, was born. He too would become a United Methodist minister. No one should underestimate the strength and influence of Nocie Simpson in all of this. A daughter of the King, a woman in the lineage of the women of faith, a steward of the mysteries of grace, and a dispenser of the Word in her own right, she blessed the lives of all she touched, and particularly of those closest to her.

The service of memory and celebration was held at Kingswood United Methodist Church, Mobile, on May 24, Ascension Day, and for United Methodists the anniversary of Wesley's Aldersgate experience. The Reverend Louie F. Wilson, Jr., her pastor, and the Reverend William C. Simpson, Jr., her son, shared in the service. In the meditation brought by her son, the text chosen was II Timothy 4:7, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." The text was used to illustrate the paradoxical nature of her life, that she fought the crippling effects of disease over more than thirty years, and was never defeated; that she refused to allow the circumstances of life to dictate her response; that her beauty and vitality were never diminished; and, that even death itself could not be victorious because of the One in whom she believed! Just a couple of days before that last breath was drawn, she spontaneously quoted a portion of Psalm 103. It was included in that final service of worship as the psalter reading. The strength of her conviction and the witness of her faith are revealed in these words she shared with those surrounding her in the last moments:

"Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving-kindness and tender mercies.

As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting, upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.

Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the Lord, O my soul.

— William C. Simpson, Jr.

She served together with her husband for about thirty-three years in the Alabama-West Florida Conference: Perote 1910; Epworth, North Girard 1911; Coffee Springs 1912; Daleville 1913; Eufaula 1914-1916; Fitzpatrick 1917-1919; Butler 1920; Grove Hill 1921-1925; Samson 1926; Trinity, Phenix City 1927-1929; First, Panama City 1930; Headland-Midland City 1931-1932; Andalusia 1933-1934; Jackson 1935-1936; Clanton 1937-1938; First, Enterprise 1939; LaFayette Street, Dothan 1940-1941; Chipley 1942.

In 1942 as a widow, she moved to her home in Columbus, Georgia. She attended and graduated from Auburn University which qualified her to teach in Alabama. She taught second grade at Girard and Central Elementary Schools in Phenix City until 1960 when her age, seventy, forced her retirement, with checks from Alabama Social Security, and the conference. She was a superb businesswoman and a talented gardener. She was a member of the Eastern Star, East Highlands United Methodist Church, Columbus, and its Friendship class, and the Retired Teachers Association of Russell County. On April 15, 1964, she was given a pin and was awarded a special membership in the Women's Society of Christian Service.

She sustained a stroke two years before her last birthday and lived at her home as a wheel chair patient under daily care of nurses seven days a week; however, she remained active, took rides, visited the beauty shops, took an interest in the area from her parlor and porch, and attended Sunday school and church.

Her burial was by Striffler-Hamby Mortuary at Parkhill Cemetery, Columbus, with funeral services at East Highland United Methodist Church, Reverend John L. McGowan officiating. Active pallbearers were Marvin Mims, John Richardson, D.I. Rigsby, Woodrow Keller, Sr., Albert Dollar and Joe McCain. A bronze memorial preserves her memory with dates December 3, 1889, to January 23, 1979, and with the appropriate words: "To eternal Life with God" and we add to them "and with her husband and her son."

That no known or admitted Homosexual, Lesbian or Bisexual person be admitted or enrolled in any school, college, seminary or other educational facility supported in whole or in part by funds of The United Methodist Church or any organization of The United Methodist Church.

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

SUBJECT: Petition for exclusion of Homosexuals, Lesbians and Bisexuals from positions in church organization of The United Methodist Church.

The Administrative Board of the Trinity United Methodist Church, the Marianna District in regular board meeting, April 9, 1979, voted unanimously to petition the 1980 General Conference of The United Methodist Church as follows:

That no known or admitted Homosexual, Lesbian or Bisexual person be allowed access or to speak from the pulpit of any United Methodist church or serve in any position of educational training responsibilities in The United Methodist Church.

A.3. HOMOSEXUALITY

"We feel that all persons are of sacred worth to God. Homosexuals no less than heterosexuals need the redemptive ministry of Christ and His Church. A reconciling fellowship is needed to enable all persons to be made into the likeness of Christ. A person's worth is eternally important. However, in light of Scripture, the practice of homosexuality must be condemned as contrary to the Christian lifestyle. We firmly believe such behavior must be rejected as being in conflict with God's creation and plan for our lives."

A.4. RESOLUTION OPPOSING HOMOSEXUALITY

WHEREAS, it has been brought to the attention of the undersigned Rosinton United Methodist Church that homosexuals within The United Methodist Church and its agencies are now seeking positions of responsibility within the organization of The United Methodist Church, even to the position of church minister, and,

WHEREAS, the membership of this church condemns the practice of homosexuality, and finds it incompatible with the sanctity of marriage, which is the foundation of the home and family, and,

WHEREAS, THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 1976, Section 71 (D), on Human Sexuality, states (page 90):

“... Further we insist that all persons are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured, though we do not condone the practice of homosexuality and consider this practice incompatible with Christian teaching.”

We feel that our membership, especially our children and youth, also have rights that need protection from those who practice homosexuality, and,

WHEREAS, it appears that the above-referenced section on Human Sexuality does in fact condone the practice of homosexuality, rather than condemn the practice, because The United Methodist Church must either be “for” sin or “condemn” sin, and in this subject it is not condemning it, now, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Rosinton United Methodist Church hereby (1) condemns the practice of homosexuality either in or out of church; (2) rejects any officers in The United Methodist Church who practice homosexuality; and (3) calls upon The United Methodist Church General Conference at its next meeting to condemn the practice of homosexuality wherever it is found; and (4) prohibit anyone who practices homosexuality from holding any appointive or elective position in any United Methodist church or agency thereof.

A.5. HOMOSEXUALITY

PETITION: The Character of Ordained Ministers as related to Homosexuality

TO: The Members of the 1980 General Conference

WHEREAS, the United Methodist ministry has traditionally maintained the highest standards and character and moral integrity of its ordained ministry through the inclusion of statements upholding such high standards in its various editions of the Book of Discipline;

AND WHEREAS, there seems to be a persistent movement within the United Methodist Church to lower those standards through the abasement of the Book of Discipline so as to allow admitted homosexuals to the ordained ministry;

AND WHEREAS, it is our belief that admitting known and professed homosexuals to the ordained ministry would, not only be contrary to scripture, but would do irreparable damage to our beloved United Methodist Church through divisions and dissent among our people,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama, May 1979, does hereby implore and petition the General Conference of The United Methodist Church to add a paragraph following Paragraph 402 of the 1976 Book of Discipline, which shall read as follows:

“It is affirmed that only persons of genuine Christian experience and character whose conduct is above reproach and who are free from harmful practices that would mar their influence or compromise their witness can receive the approval of The United Methodist Church as ministers of the Word, Sacrament and Order”;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 1980 General Conference is also petitioned to reject the inclusion of any paragraph in its Book of Discipline that would permit admitted and professed homosexuals into its ordained ministry;

BE IT STILL FURTHER RESOLVED that any person who admits and professes homosexuality after ordination be dismissed from the United Methodist ministry, either through voluntary or involuntary location.

C.1. A MEMORIAL

REGARDING CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

We the members of the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church memorialize the 1980 General Conference to continue sub-paragraphs one (1), two (2), and three (3) of paragraph 2303 of the 1976 Book of Discipline as is written. We further urge that a sub-paragraph four (4) be added to paragraph 2302 to read as follows:

Representatives of The United Methodist Church shall take responsibility to insure that no United Methodist funds directed to the World Council of Churches shall be used for any violence or revolutionary activity.

Respectfully submitted,
John Wesley Spivey and others

C.2. PETITION

TO THE ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
FULL-DISCLOSURE LEGISLATION

In the 1976 Book of Discipline, Paragraph 906, add 906.3 and properly renumber the remaining paragraphs in 906.

906.3 will read:

Each General Council, Board and Agency shall provide a complete listing of the programs, organizations and activities that are recipients of their monies. Publicity and materials sent out by each General Council, Board and Agency shall show the percentage of the offering that is not being retained for the primary purpose of the offering. Such promotional materials should also show the amount of the offering that is retained for promotional purposes, operational expenses, and administrative expenses.

C.3. PETITION

TO THE ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE DESIGNATED GIVING

In the 1976 Book of Discipline, add a new Paragraph 911.4, to read:

The World Service Fund, and all other General Church apportioned funds which are divided among two or more General Church agencies, shall be broken down to reflect the percentage allocated to each agency. While local churches are urged to support the World Service Fund and all other apportioned funds in their entirety, a local church may, on grounds of Christian conscience, withhold the appropriate percentage of support from a particular part while still paying full percentage for the other parts of the whole. All funds paid by the local church shall be disbursed and used only for the purposes originally intended or subsequently designated. A surplus of funds in one agency, division, or department shall not be transferred to any other agency, division, or department.

In Paragraph 710, after "shall" in line four, delete "combine the World Service apportionment without reduction for the quadrennium and the approved conference benevolent budget (Paragraph 708) in one total sum to be known as World Service and Conference Benevolences. The total World Service apportionment as received from the Central Treasury and conference benevolent budget thus established shall include a statement of the percentage for World Service and the percentage for conference benevolences and shall be distributed as received annually among the districts or charges by the method determined by the conference (Paragraph 711) and by such divisions and ratios as the conference may approve."

This paragraph would then read:

710: The council, on receiving from the treasurer of the General Council on Finance and Administration a statement of the amount apportioned that Annual Conference for World Service, shall present the total World Service apportionment without reduction for the quadrennium to the Annual Conference as a separate apportionment, to be known as World Service. The World Service apportionment shall be distributed among the districts and charges by such method as the Annual Conference may approve. The conference benevolent budget shall be presented to the Annual Conference as a separate apportionment and be known as Conference Benevolences and shall be distributed among the districts and charges by the method determined by the conference (Paragraph 711) and by such divisions and ratios as the conference may approve. A like distribution shall be made of Jurisdictional Conference apportionments and any other apportionments that have been properly made to the Annual Conference. The distribution of all apportionments mentioned in this paragraph shall be subject to the approval of the Annual Conference.

K.1. A PETITION

TO BE SUBMITTED TO GENERAL CONFERENCE VIA THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF 1979 ON VIOLENCE AND SEXUAL IMMORALITY ON TELEVISION

Because of the vast influence of the television medium on our lives, we propose that in the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church under Part III, Social Principles, Section #72, entitled III. The Social Community, that a new paragraph regarding television be incorporated as letter M. This paragraph should read as follows:

M. Television. We believe that television is one of the most relevant forces that shape our culture and give perception to our world. The power of this medium has enlarged our experience of reality and broadened our understanding of people and nations. However, we join with people of good conscience who seek to overcome the exploitation of this medium which has created some destructive influences that effect the families of our society. We believe that some television programs can influence the values of families and distort their perception of reality in a manner that is destructive and detrimental to Christian values and family wellbeing. We, therefore, urge responsible family television pre-selection with reference to programs that project violence and immorality. We further encourage family post-discussion in television viewing in order that parents may help interpret Christian values with regards to what is exaggerated, real or unreal, or immoral behavior. We encourage families, who believe that programs of violence and immorality are destructive to their children's Christian values and are detrimental to the creative building of their family unit, to express themselves by writing to advertisers of products and local station managers.

L.1. PETITION

TO THE ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

We petition that Paragraph 419 of The Book of Discipline, 1976, which paragraph now reads:

Members in full connection — Members in full connection with an Annual Conference by virtue of their election and ordination are bound in special covenant with all the ordained ministers of the Annual Conference. In the keeping of this covenant they perform the ministerial duties and maintain the ministerial standards established by those in the covenant. They offer themselves without reserve to be appointed and to serve as their superiors in office may direct. They live with their fellow ministers in mutual trust and concern and seek with them the sanctification of the fellowship. Only those shall be elected to full membership who are of unquestionable moral character and genuine piety, sound in the fundamental doctrines of Christianity and faithful in the discharge of their duties.

Be amended by adding: A paragraph, Number 419.2, which reads:

The responsibilities of United Methodist Clergy (Probationers, Local Pastors, Associate Members, Members in Full Connection) require exemplary moral character on the part of each person admitted into or continued in this relationship. Moral standards for United Methodist Clergy (Probationers, Local Pastors, Associate Members, Members in Full Connection) shall at least include:

A. The practice of Christ-like concern for and ministry with all sorts and conditions of persons.

B. The practice of truth-telling, responsibility, and integrity in social, professional, financial, and political relationships.

C. The affirmation and practice of sexual relationships only within the covenant of heterosexual marriage.

D. Any person practicing a homosexual lifestyle shall be ineligible for ordination and/or appointment by a Bishop in The United Methodist Church.

In the following places insert "See Paragraph 419.2": New Paragraphs 414.8; 428.(9); 446.10; 530.2(d); existing Paragraph 408.6, at end of paragraph; existing Paragraph 702.4, after "ministerial members" in first sentence.

SUPPORTING CHURCH OWNED PARSONAGES

WHEREAS, the Rosinton United Methodist Church has given careful study to the question of whether the church should own the parsonage for its pastor, or give the pastor a monetary allowance in lieu thereof, and,

WHEREAS, our said church strongly supports the position that any Methodist pastor's residence should be at least equal to other homes in the town or community, and,

WHEREAS, we believe the church's best interest would be served if the local church owned the parsonage. Now therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, that the General Conference of The United Methodist Church, at its Conference in Indianapolis, in 1980, support the principle of church-owned parsonages by establishing rules for the mandatory inspection and upkeep of such property.

TO PROVIDE FOR SPECIAL APPOINTMENT FOR PASTORS TO DISTRESSED CHURCHES

WHEREAS, the present appointative systems of pastors in The United Methodist Church is based, in part, upon the salary range the pastor previously received, and the size of the church from which he came, and

WHEREAS, some churches have, through various reasons severely declined in membership and resources and as a result have been forced to receive pastors whose training, experience, and gifts are greatly less than needed to revive the church and this procedure has worked against the best interest of the said churches. THEREFORE, be it

RESOLVED by the Rosinton United Methodist Church that the Annual Conference establish or amend a fund to assign to such churches pastors whose experience, training, gifts and salary range would be at least ten (10%) per cent above the salary of his previous appointment for a period of not more than two years, after which if the church's situation has improved the pastor will continue on; otherwise the pastor would be reassigned according to current policies and the church left to its own resources to support and employ a minister in whatever category they might afford.

THE SOCIAL CREED OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH REGARDING HOMOSEXUALITY

TO: Members of the 1980 General Conference.

WHEREAS, the practice of homosexuality is a practice specifically condemned by Holy Scripture in both the Old and New Testaments;

AND WHEREAS, the General Conference of both 1972 and 1976 voiced the moral position of the United Methodist Church in relation to homosexuality by stating in the Social Creed of the Book of Discipline, "Homosexuals no less than heterosexuals are persons of sacred worth who need the ministry and guidance of the Church in their struggle for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship which enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self. Further, we insist that all persons are entitled to have their human and civil rights ensured; though we do not condone the practice of homosexuality and consider this practice incompatible with Christian teaching," (Para. 71D, The 1976 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church),

AND WHEREAS, the history of the civilization of man, even amidst ancient Roman and Grecian societies, where moral decay was most acute, has considered homosexuality contrary and repulsive to human nature, and thus never sanctioned it legally,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church meeting in session at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama, May, 1979, does hereby affirm the statement cited above in Paragraph 71D of the 1976 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and does therefore petition the 1980 General Conference to allow that statement to remain unchanged.

R.1. PETITION TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

RE: Structure of the Board of Global Ministries

PETITION: We, the Alabama-West Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in session May 28-31, 1979, petition the General Conference to effect legislation which will restructure the Board of Global Ministries so as to provide more visibility and effectiveness for the mission task of the church by creating a separate board or agency for this purpose.

RATIONALE: Before 1972 the church had a Board of Missions which had three divisions: World Division, National Division and Women's Division. The basic unifying function of these three divisions was "Mission", the sending task of the church. The three divisions were all involved in various forms of mission at home and abroad. This made for focus, simplicity and good tight administration. It also made for a high visibility of our mission task.

The concept in the restructuring that was done in 1972 was good; recognition of the existence of a world community; recognition of the global dimensions of our ministry including the United States along with other countries as a mission field; removal of the overtones of colonialism that had become attached historically to the word "missions"; and unifying our ministries above the annual conference level into one structure, the Board of Global Ministries.

As good as the concept was, however, it has not worked as expected. The shift from "mission" to "ministries" has tended to downgrade the mission or sending task of the church. The new structure brought seven divisions under one omnibus board that included things as diverse and as complex as health care and welfare ministries in urban industrialized U.S.A. on the one hand, and rural church development in the jungles of Africa and Southeast Asia on the other. Certainly we can place everything under one superstructure and then divide, sub-divide and sub-divide the sub-divisions. But is this the most effective way? We believe not.

The old structure was organized around the concept of "function". The new structure in 1972 was organized around the concept of "idea". The "function" of the old structure was "mission". The "idea" around which the new structure was organized was "global"? The idea was to put "ministries" of all kinds above the annual conference level, however diverse the functions, under one global roof.

Eight years have made two things clear: First, the new structure is cumbersome and unmanageable. Second, in such a conglomerate mix, visibility and accountability are sacrificed. Sharpness and clarity are lost in the fog of ideological discussion of complex issues and in the conflicts over priorities. The mission or sending function of the church has become less visible and less responsive to the local church. Hence there has been a decrease in interest and a decrease in giving — at least giving has not increased in proportion to inflation and to the need for advance rather than retreat.

Structure should reflect function. The major task of our boards and agencies is to carry out certain functions. The concepts of global involvement, basic equality as members of the Body of Christ, and ministry in all areas of life are inherent in the nature of the church itself. Boards and agencies are created deliberately to function in specific areas and in no sense does any one board or agency need to encompass the wholeness of the church. Structure should also be simple and direct, affording clear responsibility and accountability. The present structure of the BOGM does not follow these principles. Though the program boards related basically to U.S. Methodism (Discipleship, Church and Society, and Higher Education and Ministry) are structured functionally, the BOGM is not. Likewise its structure is highly complex. In the view of many its structure is so complex and its functions so varied that it is often accused of duplicating the work of the Board of Church and Society rather than being truly a mission agency.

We believe that if the mission arm of the church were again organized on a functional basis as a separate board or agency, much of the confusion and the questions of accountability which now exist would be cleared. There is no question that we have a gap — a serious gap — between the local church, its sense of mission, its commitments to mission and the Board of Global Ministries. Our proposal is to simplify the structure, make it more functional, more responsive to the church as a whole and thus more effective. We believe that no less than the essential integrity and health of our entire conference system is at stake. We urge the General Conference to take the steps proposed in this resolution.

DIVISION XII — HISTORICAL

At the session of the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which adjourned on January 2, 1808, Matthew Sturdivant was appointed to Tombeckbee, which was the earliest official appointment within the territory of what is now the Alabama-West Florida Conference. The first Methodist minister to appear in Alabama, though unofficial, was Lorenzo Dow in 1803.

In 1811, Tombeckbee was one of the appointments of the Mississippi District of the Western Conference; and in 1812, the Mississippi District was a part of the Tennessee District.

The General Conference of 1812 authorized the formation of the Mississippi Conference, which the bishops proposed to do in 1813, but were prevented from meeting the preachers at the designated time and place. Sessions of these preachers were held in 1813, 1814, and 1815 without the assistance of a bishop. By the General Conference of 1816 the Mississippi Conference was officially constituted and the territory now served by the Alabama-West Florida Conference was embraced within its boundaries.

By action of the Uniting Conference, held at Kansas City, Missouri, April 26 to May 10, 1939, the Alabama Conference of The Methodist Church was constituted of all the work of the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and of the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, within the bounds of the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, as of that date.

The boundaries of the Alabama Conference were defined as follows: "The Alabama Conference shall include West Florida (except Apalachicola), and all Alabama lying south of the following boundary line: beginning at the Southwest corner of Pickens County; thence along the south of Pickens and Tuscaloosa Counties, and a direct line on the same parallel of latitude, east of the Coosa River; thence down that river, to the southern boundary of Coosa County; thence east by that county line, and through Tallapoosa County to the south of Chambers County, and by that county line to Georgia; except that part of Sumter County, north of Noxubee River, which is in the North Alabama Conference."

At the time of unification, the ministerial membership of the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, included twenty-nine retired, one hundred seventy effective ministers and fourteen ministers on trial.

DIVISION III — THE CHRONOLOGICAL ROLL PASTORAL SERVICE RECORD AND CONFERENCE DIRECTORY

NOTE: The Chronological Roll, the Pastoral Service Record, and the Conference Directory are all hereby presented in a combined form, and in alphabetical order. It is our hope that we can present a more detailed as well as a more accurate record of each minister. The information in this division is compiled from my records and not from those of the Board of Pensions. I sincerely hope they are accurate, and you are asked to notify me of any discrepancies in your record. It is our plan to continue this form on a permanent basis, and we hope it meets with your approval. —The Conference Secretary.

Symbols used before each name denote the category of conference relationship and the numbers indicate place in the chronological (or other) order. Hence R—1 means the first place in the Retired category. AM—Associate Member; DIS—Disability; FC—Effective Members (Full Connection); FT—Full Time; LP—Local Pastor; PM—Probationary Member; PT—Part Time; R—Retired; S—Supply; SLP—Student Local Pastor.

The Symbols used after the name are as follows: D—When Ordained Deacon; E—When Ordained Elder; A—When Admitted on Trial or as a Probationer; FC—When Admitted into Full Membership; T—When Transferred into this Conference; LP—When Approved as a Lay Pastor or Approved Pastor; AM—When Approved as an Associate Member; and PT—Part Time Minister (one who has other employment). *—No Record of Attendance at Annual Conference.

NOTE—The service years listed with each person are included as INFORMATION ONLY. While every effort is made to make this accurate, it is not the secretary's responsibility to determine the ramifications of pension credit. This is the responsibility of the Board of Pensions. So, if the listed number of service years does not seem to be correct in your case, you will need to get in touch with the Board of Pensions. —The Conference Secretary.

A memoir of each deceased minister or wife or widow of a minister, and diaconal minister shall be provided by the Commission on Archives and History for publication in the Journal.

Administrative Procedures of the Annual Conference

10. The rules of order of the preceding General Conference shall govern parliamentary procedure in this conference in all matters not covered by the rules. In order to be recognized to address the conference, each person must identify him/herself as to name and the capacity in which he/she is entitled to speak to the session.

11. Reports and resolutions:

(a) All reports and resolutions shall be typewritten, double spaced, and submitted in duplicate; and shall be placed on the conference calendar in the order in which they are filed with the assistant secretary of the Journal, who shall be the calendar secretary, or in the order designated by the Committee on Program. The reports and resolutions shall lie on the calendar secretary's desk for at least one business session before being acted upon by the conference.

(b) By a two-thirds vote of those present and voting a calendar item may be taken up out of order for consideration.

(c) All amendments to reports of boards and agencies as printed in the Brochure of Reports and all motions arising from the floor of the conference shall be made in writing on a form provided by the conference secretary.

12. Election of General and Jurisdictional delegations:

(a) Delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences shall be elected according to stipulations in Par. 601 of the Discipline, and they shall serve in all sessions of these conferences held during the quadrennium.

(b) In the election of delegates, four teams of tellers, two clerical teams and two laical teams, consisting of ten members each and making a total of forty persons, shall be appointed by the presiding bishop, who shall designate a member of each team as chairman.

(c) In the election of these delegates the ballots furnished to the conference by the secretary shall be numbered consecutively, and no vote shall be valid unless cast on the ballot bearing the number designated by the presiding officer for any particular ballot. Ballots furnished to the lay delegates shall be different in color from those furnished to ministerial delegates. Sets of ballots shall be distributed to official delegates upon registration at the conference session.

(d) In an election year, the district superintendent shall call a caucus of lay delegates in the district to the upcoming Annual Conference for selection of five persons for places in the general and jurisdictional delegations. Disciplinary stipulations will be made clear on the occasion, and availability of suggested persons determined. Biographical data, business and professional identity, and church experience shall be provided by the district superintendent for publication in the Brochure of Reports on a standard form to be provided by the editor. The caucus shall be held prior to March 1 and data for publication shall be provided the editor no later than April 1. This procedure shall not preclude any lay delegate voting for any persons he or she chooses as actual balloting at conference takes place. Prior to Annual Conference, and following district caucuses, an assembly of all lay delegates shall be called by the conference lay leader to allow delegates to become acquainted with persons named at caucuses and others present who may be prospects for election. (See page 150, 1977 Journal.)

13. Annual Conference lay delegates:

(a) Lay delegates to the Annual Conference shall be elected yearly in the Charge Conferences. Two youth delegates to the Annual Conference (ages 14-24) shall be elected from each district by a district Youth Caucus. The district caucus shall be composed of one voting delegate (ages 14-24) from each local church and shall be convened by the district coordinator of youth ministries in cooperation with the district superintendent, and under direction of the conference Council on Youth Ministry.

(b) In compliance with the disciplinary requirement (Par. 36) of lay representation in the Annual Conference session equal to the clerical membership, the following plan shall be observed to keep the two in balance: (1) On January first of each year the conference secretary shall ascertain whether the upcoming session will be in balance with respect to laical and ministerial membership, and, finding need to name added laical members will follow this procedure: (2) The conference secretary will name the needed number, taking notice of these priorities: (a) The first eighteen will be chosen alternately from the district lay leaders and district presidents of United Methodist Women. In the event that less than eighteen are needed, he will make the determination on the basis of the last reported church membership totals of the districts, moving from the largest downward in scale. (b) Next as needed he will name full-time lay workers on the staff of the conference Council on Ministries. (c) Next he will name full-time lay workers who have been consecrated. (d) Next he will name lay-persons who are chairpersons of conference boards and agencies. (e) Next he will name lay members of the general and jurisdictional delegations in the order of their election. (f) All persons selected by this process shall be safeguarded to serve by notice sent to their Charge Conferences to replace them if they have already been elected as charge delegates to the Annual Conference.

14. Other voting procedures:

(a) In all matters of voting and election other than covered in Rule 10 a team of tellers, composed of one ministerial and one laical member from each district, shall be named by the chair to serve.

(b) In certain matters, such as voting on constitutional amendments, the official ballots shall be those provided by the conference secretary.

15. All applicants for the local pastor relationship, for probationary or full membership, or for reception into our ministry from another Christian church shall present a certificate of good health on the approved form and from a physician acceptable to the Board of Ordained Ministry.

16. The character of all ministerial members of the conference shall be examined by the Conference Relations Section of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and the section's report shall be submitted to the conference for action.

17. The conference Journal and Brochure of Reports:

(a) The publication and distribution of the Annual Conference Journal shall be under the supervision of the assistant secretary for the Journal, with the assistance of an Editorial Committee, composed of the conference secretary, the statistician, the treasurer, and the executive director of the Council on Ministries. The Journal shall be printed in such numbers as to provide adequate copies to local churches, a copy to each retired minister or widow of a minister, to each minister on disability leave, to each minister under special appointment, to each diaconal minister, and to supply requests of boards and agencies beyond the annual conference level.

(b) The conference shall elect an assistant secretary for the Journal quadrennially, upon nomination by the Council on Finance and Administration.

(c) The assistant secretary for the Journal shall be responsible for preparation of the brochure of conference board and agency reports and for distribution of the brochures to all pastors, all regular laical delegates, conference president of United Methodist Women, conference lay leader, youth delegates, retired ministers, ministers in special appointments, conference staff persons, the presiding bishop, the district superintendents, ministers on disability leave, seminary students, district lay leaders, district presidents of United Methodist Women, and diaconal ministers.

18. Board Memberships and Trusteeships:

(a) No person may serve on more than one quadrennial agency of this conference at the same time, except as provided by the Discipline, nor for a longer period than eight consecutive years, nor for more than eight of any consecutive twelve years, except that members of the Commission on Archives and History and the Board of Directors of Pastors' Assembly may serve on another agency of this conference at the same time. Persons may be enlisted to assist boards and agencies for specific tasks in advisory and non-voting capacities and should be drawn from within the bounds of the conference.

(b) No person shall serve on more than one board of trustees or board of directors of institutions or agencies related to this Annual Conference at the same time. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to mean that persons may not serve concurrently on boards of trustees or directors and as members of quadrennial boards and agencies or ex officio trustees or directors, where disciplinary provisions apply.

(c) Persons who are inactive, that is, by failing to attend and participate in the meetings and programs of a given board or agency, for one year without legitimate excuse shall be replaced at the end of any current year.

(d) No ministerial member shall serve more than nine consecutive years (three terms) as a trustee of any agency or institution related to this Annual Conference, nor shall this person be eligible for election again to that board until three years shall have passed since termination of the nine years of service.

19. Organizational stipulations for boards and agencies:

(a) All quadrennial boards, commissions and committees, except as provided by the Discipline, shall continue through the session of the Annual Conference immediately following the General Conference for the purpose of completing their business.

DIVISION VIII REPORTS OF BOARDS AND AGENCIES

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

The conference Board of Ordained Ministry, working through its three sections, six standing committees, and with the bishop, the Cabinet and the nine District Committees of Ordained Ministry, endeavors to give guidance, supervision, support and assistance to those committed to its care from initial candidacy through retirement.

Under the direction of the Local Pastors Section, the board has trained additional supervising pastors to assist inquiring ministerial candidates.

The Local Pastors License School, which includes four weekend sessions and attendance at Ministers' Workshop, is coordinated by the Local Pastors Section of the board.

Our conference has one of the largest enrollments in the Local Pastors Course of Study Summer School at Emory University. During this time, representatives of the board visit the Emory campus each summer.

It is the desire of the Board of Ordained Ministry to maintain a close relationship with our seminary students, therefore, members of the board visit these students on the campuses in the Southeast annually. These visits enable us to keep the channels of communication open with those who are away from the conference for a few years meeting their educational requirements.

As a convenience to our seminary students, representatives of the board meet with and interview candidates for probationary membership in December of each year. This procedure gives ample time for the candidates and the board to adequately process the application and related requirements.

The conference Board of Ordained Ministry is pleased to present each candidate for ordination as an elder and full membership in the conference with a white stole at the time of ordination.

In an attempt to accent the fact that the spouse shares in a very real and special way the ministry of the one who is ordained, the conference Board of Ordained Ministry invites the spouses to attend the spring interview session with those who are candidates for ordination as elders. In addition to being a part of the interview experience during this over-night meeting, the spouses and candidates participate in a marriage enrichment seminar sponsored by the board and led by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander.

Working with the Cabinet, the Board of Ordained Ministry keeps in contact with all persons who are in appointments beyond the local church.

It is the desire of the board to give due recognition to those who come to the time of retirement. During the session at which the retirees are honored, they and members of their families are seated in a special reserved section of the conference floor from which the retiree and spouse are escorted to the platform. Each person retiring is given an opportunity to address the conference. Both the retiree and spouse are presented with a United Methodist retirement lapel pin and a Certificate of Retirement is presented to each retiree.

It is the privilege of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry to work with the Commission on Town and Country Work in planning for the annual Ministers' Workshop; the Board of Pensions in planning retirement seminars; and with the Board of Diaconal Ministry in jointly sponsoring multi-church staff workshops.

The board was most pleased to be able, through its Committee on Continuing Education, to make partial scholarship aid available to each minister who attended the Regional School of Evangelism that was held at Blue Lake, October, 1979.

Your conference Board of Ordained Ministry commends those churches that accept and pay the Ministerial Education Fund asking. Even though we have improved slightly in our giving to this cause, our conference still remains near the bottom of the list in the percentage we pay toward the total asking. It is from this asking that our Annual Conference receives funds with which to provide scholarships for our ministers who are students in college, seminary, and the summer Local Pastors School. Of each $1.00 we contribute to the Ministerial Education Fund, $.25 is returned to our Annual Conference to be used for scholarship grants.

The following recommendations are made by your conference Board of Ordained Ministry.

1. All Pastor-Parish Relations Committees follow the disciplinary requirements in interviewing prospective candidates for the United Methodist ministry.
2. All District Committees of Ordained Ministry abide by the conference board's enabling regulations and disciplinary requirements in processing those under their care.
3. Every local church observe Ministry Sunday annually.
4. Every local church accept and pay in full the Ministerial Education Fund asking.
5. Every church accept an Advance Special for ministerial education.
6. Every charge make available both time and funds to enable its minister to participate in one or more continuing education events annually.
7. All persons in appointments beyond the local church comply with disciplinary requirements and with the enabling regulations — using forms provided by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Cabinet.
8. Those seeking a retired relationship apply for such by April 1st, prior to the session of the Annual Conference at which they plan to retire.

William E. Calhoun, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND GUIDANCE

The Committee on Psychological Testing and Guidance has had a busy year seeking to improve its procedures to better serve those coming into the Christian ministry and, at the same time, lift the level of the ministry of our conference.

All candidates for the ministry receive written examinations as well as interviews by competent counselors.

The committee makes periodic personal contacts with all ministerial candidates and offers its services whenever needed. Some members of the committee visit the seminaries during the school year to maintain a close relationship with ministerial students there.

We feel that with the help of a professional psychologist that our committee has made great progress during the past year.

Torrence H. Maxey, Chairman

CONFERENCE SUPPORT AND COST OF A SEMINARY EDUCATION

The following is the result of a project taken on by the Alabama-West Florida Conference Club, Candler School of Theology, Emory University. It is our prayer that this report will inform both the clergy and laity of our conference of the cost (rising!) of a seminary education. We hope together we will see the necessity of accepting 100% the apportionment for "Ministerial Education" and remind us of our Disciplinary requirement (Paragraph 915, page 351, 1976 Book of Discipline) to take annually the United Methodist Student Day offering on or about the second Sunday in June for the support of the United Methodist Scholarships and the United Methodist Student Loan Fund. We hope it will also be used as a prayer list, for we need your prayerful support as well.

Any questions concerning this report should be directed to the Rev. Timothy R. Trent, P.O. Box 235, Skipperville, Alabama 36374.

Thank you for your continued support. I am,

Yours in Christ,
Timothy R. Trent, President

This is a report of how many of our churches paid nothing to the Ministerial Education Fund and gave nothing to the Student Day offering in 1978 according to the last Journal. This is why money could not be borrowed from the Board of Higher Education this past year by students from our conference. This is also why our own Conference Board of Ministry had to reduce their grant from $840 (1978-79) to $640 (1979-80) for student support for the entire year.

BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The 1976 General Conference created the Board of Diaconal Ministry and this quadrennium has been spent with birth pangs and growing pains. Much interpretation has been done and more remains to be done on how to become a diaconal minister. The first step is to become certified by The United Methodist Church as a professional in your specialized field of special ministry, then follows special studies in Bible, Theology, Church History, UMC Doctrine and Polity, and the Mission of the Church in the Contemporary World. The Charge Conference must recommend the candidate who is full-time employed, and physical and psychological tests are given. After all these steps the candidate is consecrated as a diaconal minister. As such he/she has a seat and voice at Annual Conference, but no vote.

This board is pleased with the theological statement adopted by the 1980 General Conference and we look toward 1984 with great anticipation.

We have developed a "yardstick" to measure the work being done for annual recertification by the church musicians and Christian educators of our conference. They include reading a minimum of four (4) books each year and writing a report and receiving the equivalent of six (6) units of continuing education each year. This is the first year that these guidelines have been used and we are pleased with the work being done by those in our conference who are certified. This year marks another first in our conference as we have our first diaconal minister enter the retired relationship. Voncile Jones, church business administrator at First UMC, Dothan, is retiring from active full-time service in the church. We wish her many happy years in the future.

At this time in our conference our board is responsible for twenty (20) diaconal ministers, twelve (12) church musicians and nineteen (19) Christian educators. Others are now studying for their certification and consecration.

While very small, a Scholarship/Loan Fund has at last been established and a scholarship has been granted. This fund is to assist those studying for the specialized ministry.

This board, jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry, is sponsoring the second Multiple Staff Seminar to be held October 28-29 at Oakwood Lodge, Blue Lake. Professor Richard T. Murray of the Perkins School of Theology, SMU, Dallas, is returning to lead the seminar. The program is designed to assist everyone on a church program staff, secretary through minister.

Much appreciation is expressed to the board members for their time, efforts and support during these four years. I am sure the new board will continue to assist persons interested in a diaconal ministry career and local churches with such persons on their staff.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY THE OFFICES OF COMMUNICATIONS AND THE ADVOCATE (SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO STUDY COMMUNICATIONS)

1. BACKGROUND

The Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Conferences, at their respective sessions in June, 1979, approved the following report:

"We recommend continuance of the "committee of ten" to conduct an in-depth study of the organization, management and operation of The Methodist Christian Advocate and United Methodist Communications . . ."

(1978 Journal of the North Alabama Conference, pp. 296-97, Report 8;

1978 Journal of the Alabama-West Florida Conference, p. 286)

This study committee was nominated by the Committee on Nominations of the respective Annual Conferences, and elected by those conferences. The committee was composed of five persons from each conference. Committee members from North Alabama are: Reverend Jeff Bayne, Reverend James Bailey, Mr. Walter Sechreiest, Mr. Calvin Sanderson, Ms. Glenda

Jones; from Alabama-West Florida: Mr. Alvin Bland, Dr. Cecil Bradley, Mrs. Sue Jones, Dr. Karl Stegall, Mr. Carl Stephens. The committee came as a result of the North Alabama Conference's Management Study Committee report pertaining to "Methodist Communications and the Christian Advocate," which was presented to the 1977 session of the North Alabama Conference session. The opening portion of that report is quoted herewith:

"VII. METHODIST COMMUNICATIONS AND CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

A. Organization and Emphasis

There is much similarity in the functions of these two offices.

We recommend:

35. That in consultation with the Alabama-West Florida Conference we work toward combining the two operations under the direction of one board with one director.

Currently The Methodist Christian Advocate is published forty-eight times per year. With the small staff, mechanics demand a great proportion of the available time. We recommend:

36. That a publication schedule be developed with regular issues every other week, supplemented by four to eight special issues as needed.

B. Operations

We recommend:

37. That prior to the combining of the two boards and two directors, the directors and the area board chairpersons implement both a management by objectives program and a regular performance evaluation program."

(1978 Journal of the North Alabama Conference, pp. 414-15)

This special committee met for an organizational meeting with Bishop Carl Sanders in Clanton, Alabama, August 18, 1979. At that meeting, chaired by Bishop Sanders, Dr. Cecil Bradley was elected Chairman of the study committee, with Mr. Sechreiest as Vice Chairman, and Mrs. Sue Jones as Secretary. At this initial meeting the committee shared goals and objectives. Methods by which the committee could obtain the necessary information were outlined.

The second meeting of the committee was held on October 11, 1979 at Clanton. The Reverend Herschel Hamner, Editor of The Methodist Christian Advocate, and the Reverend Robert Storey, Director of United Methodist Communications, appeared before the committee. They presented detailed reports pertaining to all facets of their two offices.

The third meeting of the study committee was held at Trinity United Methodist Church, Birmingham, Alabama, November 1, 1979. At this meeting the committee began to assimilate the information that had been presented from all sources in an effort to develop specific recommendations.

A fourth meeting was held at Whitfield Memorial United Methodist Church, Montgomery, on November 14, 1979, to go through all information gathered in an effort to present responsible recommendations, adopted unanimously by the committee, which could be considered by, and adopted by, both Annual Conference Sessions in June of 1980.

A fifth meeting was held again at Whitfield Memorial United Methodist Church, Montgomery, to refine the committee report. The date of the committee meeting was January 10, 1980.

In light of the study of this committee, the following report is presented.

The Committee to Study the Offices of Communications and The Advocate affirms that part of the report of the Management Committee of the North Alabama Conference which declared that the functions of the two offices (Christian Advocate, Communications) are similar in that they deal with communication — print and electronic. In light of this, this Committee has sought to come to some workable definition of purpose for the proposed BIRMINGHAM AREA OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS AND CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. Our purpose follows:

2. PURPOSE

1. Disseminate information about The United Methodist Church to the public via news media, television, print and press conferences. (This would mean that this office would become the source for correct information about the denomination across Alabama and West-Florida United Methodism; and that this office should state to the media that it interprets the action of United Methodism, in consultation with the resident bishop.

This also means that the office should seek to clarify in the press, television, and The Methodist Christian Advocate actions, information and misinformation concerning the Church through such information dissemination to the public.)

2. Disseminate information about The United Methodist Church and general religious news, to United METHODIST Churches within the Birmingham Episcopal Area via The Methodist Christian Advocate. The paper could be a promotional organ for the Councils on Ministries, carry news-worthy articles from the two annual conferences and general church news sources, and appropriate editorials. The Board of Directors would determine the type of paper (i.e., an independent conference paper or a conference edition of The United Methodist Reporter), the format and frequency, and promote The Methodist Christian Advocate for the greatest effectiveness in the two annual conferences.
 3. Be a source of training for local church officers and pastors involved in church communications (media workshops, newsletter workshops, TV, and radio ministry workshops, etc.)
 4. Resource the local church with program interpretation materials for conference, jurisdictional, and general United Methodist programs through printed materials, films, film-strips, local TV/radio spots. (Example: a conference budget film-strip or film which would interpret to the local church that conference program and its budget.)
 5. Be an extended arm of the Church, whose purpose is to reach persons with the reality of the Christian faith through the medium of communications: i.e., The Bishop's Hour, United Methodist CONNECTION, future use of TV and radio for exposure, SEJ TV network.
3. Recommendations

This committee has come to the conclusion that The Methodist Christian Advocate has served our Church well, and that it has not outlived its usefulness. We have also concluded that the newer Committee on Communications (United Methodist Communications) has served in a vital way the needs of the Church. We have thus concluded that the purposes served by both are worthy and must continue their operation.

However, it is our decision to recommend that the operations and functions of both become the work of a united and merged body to be known as the BIRMINGHAM AREA OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS AND CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. We further recommend that a single director of the new area office be charged with the total program of managing this combined office. We also recommend that the director be responsible for developing a professional and support staff to accomplish the above goals with the approval of the Area Board of Communication/Advocate.

We strongly recommend that the most qualified person, be he/she lay or clergy, be found to fill the position as director of the new Office of Communications and Christian Advocate. We further recommend that the available funds from these two existing offices be utilized to secure staff persons needed to develop a strong Office of Communications and Christian Advocate.

We recommend that upon naming/appointing the new director that he/she will continue the operations of The Advocate and the Office of United Methodist Communications, according to the present rules governing both boards, until the new, merged board can construct new rules of operation, approved by that board; and where necessary, approved by action of both Annual Conferences. This new board would have the power to make interim decisions.

We also recommend that the Area Board of Communications/Advocate be composed of twelve (12) persons, six (6) from each conference, as far as possible to include proper representation of both lay and clergy of both sexes, ethnic minority and representatives from the public media. Ex officio members would be the two Council on Ministries directors and members of general and jurisdictional communication committees or boards.

We recommend that an all-encompassing view of communications for the Church in both conferences be addressed; both by the newly named/appointed director, the new board, and by district directors. In addition to The Methodist Christian Advocate, this would include, but not be limited to, all forms of media, training for local church coordinators, district directors, use of audio-visuals and public relations programs for the local church and conference(s).

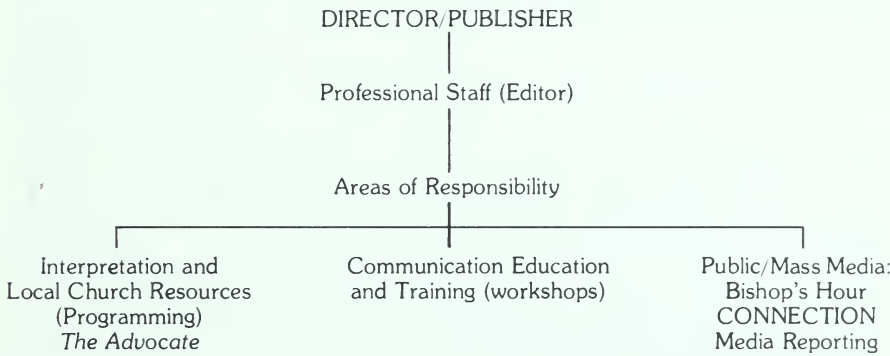

We strongly recommend that the most qualified persons in the area of communications, of both conferences, be sought out and named to leadership positions within their respective districts as district directors of communications.

We would envision that the merger of these two offices would not only strengthen communications, but also improve the cost factor for the now existing two offices of the area. We recommend that the apportioned funds of these two offices be utilized to secure this new office in its operations; i.e., staffing and higher productivity. We would anticipate the monies needed initially to be less than the total being spent by the two Annual Conferences.

We recommend that the Area Board of Communications/Advocate be amenable to the two Annual Conferences and accountable to the two Councils on Ministries and to the two Councils on Finance and Administration.

We recommend that the budget for the remainder of 1980 and the budget for 1981 be worked out by the new Area Board of Communications and Methodist Christian Advocate in consultation and with the approval of the Area Committee on Joint Concerns and subject to the approval of the Council on Finance and Administration of the two Conferences immediately following the adoption of legislation creating this new office, and that the budget for the combined office of Communications/Advocate would be developed from funds already appropriated to the Methodist Christian Advocate and the office of United Methodist Communications in the 1980 and 1981 budgets of the two Conferences.

4. STRUCTURE FOR THE AREA OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS AND CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

5. COMMENDATIONS

We commend Dr. Herschel Hamner for the long and faithful service rendered to these Annual Conferences, and assure him of our continued prayers as he enters the retired relationship in the North Alabama Conference. We also commend the Reverend Robert Storey for his excellent work in the field of church communications. We are grateful for their assistance in completing our report.

We wish to thank Bishop Carl Sanders for his assistance in providing leadership and material for our work. Our appreciation goes to all contacted for information and guidance in the work of our committee. We trust our conclusions will be accepted by both conferences and acted upon with due speed; and we thank you for the opportunity of serving both the conferences of the Birmingham Episcopal Area of The United Methodist Church.

BOARD OF MANAGERS — PASTORS' ASSEMBLY

The primary function of the Board of Managers of Pastors' Assembly is that of planning and coordinating Pastors' Assembly. Pastors' Assembly takes place each year during the month of September. It is a continuing education event, and is held at our camping facilities at Blue Lake.

The program for Pastors' Assembly, 1979, was planned with a desire for innovation. Instead of three speakers, which we have invited in recent years, we decided to invite only two. This was decided because we felt that two speakers could be afforded more time to elaborate upon their philosophies of ministry. In addition, we wanted to involve a service of contemporary worship on Tuesday evening, and a traditional service of worship on Wednesday morning.

Our speakers for Pastors' Assembly, 1979, included professor Dick Murray, Associate Professor of Christian Education at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. Professor Murray was asked to speak on the role of the minister as educator.

Our other speaker for Pastors' Assembly, 1979, was Dr. Charles William Stewart. Dr. Stewart is Professor of Pastoral Theology at Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, D.C. He is an author and widely known authority in the field of pastoral care.

Our contemporary service of worship was to include a special program of music by the Birmingham-Southern Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Hugh Thomas. Our speaker for the traditional service was to be Bishop Joel McDavid, episcopal leader of the Florida Conference. We also looked forward to the keynote address which our own Bishop Carl J. Sanders was to deliver in the opening service.

Much to the disappointment of the Board of Managers of Pastors' Assembly, it was at the last minute decided that Pastors' Assembly should be cancelled in the aftermath of Hurricane Frederic, which inflicted heavy damages to churches and parishes in our conference. Ministers were encouraged to spend this time helping sister congregations in the arduous task of recovering from the effects of this violent storm.

Although we did not have a Pastors' Assembly, the board is convinced that a very educational and enriching program had been planned, and we look forward to providing leadership for Pastors' Assembly in the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
Thomas L. Parker
Dean, Pastors' Assembly

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

This has been a year of growth and renewal for the conference Council on Youth Ministry (CYM).

We began the year on an outstanding note by seeing Beth Harris elected to General Conference. This was exciting to both the youth and lay persons of our church.

We then had a very successful camping program at Blue Lake for our junior, mid, and senior highs. One reason for this was the canoeing down the Blackwater River. The permanent staff also gave excellent leadership throughout the summer.

The Guatemala-Costa Rican trip, led by Rev. Buddy Capps and Rev. Ervin Daily, was one of the most educational and inspirational trips planned by this council in many years. A total of 32 youth went to Central America to observe the Methodist mission program in that area of the world.

We also sent four representatives to the National Youth Ministry Organization (NYMO) Convocation held in New Orleans. The highlight of this trip was when they announced the Alabama-West Florida Conference leading the nation in Youth Service Fund giving.

In the fall the council began a "Brother-Sister" program through which we obtained the most new members to the CYM in recent history.

The youth of our conference once again gathered together for fun and fellowship during our annual Fall Rally. The theme of the rally was "Fishers of Men." We were thrilled to have "Southbound Glory" to lead the singing and Dr. Paul Duffey as our inspirational speaker. Throughout the afternoon we had approximately 1,200 youth participate.

The 1979 Youth Service Fund again exceeded the total of previous years. We raised over $9,000 from the local churches and approximately $2,000 from Fall Rally. This gave us an approximate total of $11,000, exceeding our goal of $10,500.

The Project Review Committee picked four exciting projects to receive this money. The two in-conference projects are: La Casa de Amigos, Baldwin County, and Jackson Chapel United Methodist Church near Eutaw, Alabama. We will also support two out-of-conference projects which are: Mountain TOP (Tennessee Outreach Program) in Appalachia and the Methodist mission programs in Costa Rica.

We are very proud of the response to our Innervisions paper. This paper is published quarterly by the CYM and is vital for communication to and from the local churches.

Through these many programs, the conference Council on Youth Ministry is continually reaching and touching the hearts of the youth in our conference.

Sincerely,
Stuart Dill, CYM President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

To reach out and touch the life of someone so that it might be lived more fully — that is the loving work of United Methodist Women. The women of our conference have done their share.

Collecting and sending 32 boxes of sewing materials and sewing notions to Liberia is one of the ways our women helped this past year. Some who did not send materials sent the money to help pay the postage.

Working with the $1.00 seed money to make it multiply for missions was a delightful and rewarding project. These dollars were given out at our 1978 Annual Meeting to any woman who desired to take one. At last count the $401.00 given out had become $4,000. The money received was divided between children's work in the United States and in India.

Helping us to understand better the work of United Methodist Women was the Christian Social Involvement/Supportive Community Workshop. An in-depth study of social problems and the way we can support each other in our work made for a very meaningful, learning experience.

A deeper spiritual commitment was gained from the Conference Spiritual Enrichment Retreat and the districts' Day of Spiritual Emphasis. These made us more aware of our dependence on God and his power and strength to carry on our work, as we see it.

Each unit was encouraged to adopt a missionary. Remembering their birthdays, sending small personal gifts and making contributions to their work were some of the suggestions for keeping in touch. This was part of our extended outreach.

Having our workshop weekend for "under 35s" was a culmination of many hours of hard work. Introducing United Methodist Women to these young women in an interesting way was a real challenge.

Taking part in the State World Federation of Methodist Women held in Birmingham was an extra bonus. We were again reminded that we are part of Methodism around the world.

Communications is one of our greatest needs. Four workshops dealing with communications were held in four different areas of the conference. Suggestions were given as to how to write effectively, how to use newsletters, how to use visual aids and how to use posters and brochures.

We have many units with very small memberships. More and more the realization has come that these units need special help and care. The first step was taken at the workshop which was held to work out a plan for making these units more effective.

The Quadrennial Meeting of the Southeastern Jurisdiction was held in Nashville, Tn. We had 140 from our conference attending. This is one of the meetings that makes us realize that we are a part of the whole. We realize how vast our organization is and how we join hands with our sisters in our part of the country.

We joined the rest of the world in celebrating the International Year of the Child. Thus we were made aware of the needs for children and the work to be done in their behalf.

"Inasmuch as you have done it unto . . . the least of these . . ." United Methodist Women have.

Mrs. Haniel Jones
Conference President

COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

The Commission on Town and Country Work is deeply concerned about the local churches in our conference, especially the small membership churches. With this concern, the commission has provided the following programs.

During the week of June 25-27 of 1979 a Minister's Workshop was held for the minister and spouse at Blue Lake. The subject matter was simple and practical. Credit was given to those studying for the license to preach.

A Small Membership Church Rally was held September 30, 1979, at Blue Lake. Over 400 people from churches with less than a hundred membership gathered at Blue Lake to hear Bishop Sanders. The commission plans to have a rally in at least two districts this year instead of a conference-wide rally.

I want to express my deep appreciation to the members of the commission, the district directors and Ervin Dailey and Frank Hyles for their hard work, cooperation and leadership during the last four years.

Respectfully submitted,
 Marcus Chandler, Chairman

BOARD OF MISSIONS

As a preface to this last report that I will be privileged to make to the Annual Conference as chairman of the Board of Missions, I wish to thank the board members with whom I have immensely enjoyed serving and the Annual Conference for this opportunity of service for our Lord.

The Board of Missions has endeavored to be faithful to the task set before it as the connecting link between the General Board of Global Ministries and the conference, district, and local churches of United Methodism in Alabama-West Florida. We have sought to carry out the direction given to us in paragraph 729 in the 1976 Discipline of The United Methodist Church, which states that we "shall provide global ministries functions related to the objectives and scope of work of the General Board of Global Ministries as set forth in paragraph 1502" of the 1976 Discipline. If you are not familiar with these functions I strongly urge you to read paragraph 1502 as it is a tremendous challenge to each of us as United Methodist Christians. These 12 functions stated in this paragraph set before us a panorama of Christian service that each of us could and should take personally. We on your Board of Missions are deeply aware of our need for your support and cooperation and we are so very grateful to you for the marvelous way you have offered this in 1979.

Let me share with you some of the results of our work together across this past year. The reports show that 88% of our World Service and Conference Benevolences, or $623,710.53 was paid in 1979. Our board is committed to do all that we can to encourage and aid the churches of our Annual Conference to pay World Service and Conference Benevolences in full. Again, we urge those churches that are already paying World Service and Conference Benevolences in full to go a second mile and receive a special offering during the year or to give extra monies to this strategic cause for Christian mission at home and around the world so that we might be able to go over 100% in meeting this great need.

In 1979 the Alabama-West Florida Conference stayed at or near the top of the list of conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction in our per capita giving to Advance Specials. We gave a total of $157,138.56 to General Advance Specials. We gave $148,509.05 to Conference Advance Specials and $96,648.39 to UMCOR. The total to World Service, Conference Benevolences, and the Advance of $1,026,504.89 marks the first time this giving has exceeded one million dollars. We are grateful for this continued support in our giving to missions and yet, we are all aware that the needs never cease to confront us and our potential for giving is so much greater than our present giving level.

We have continued to experience a great spirit of warmth and cooperation in our board meetings with excellent participation on the part of the individual members. The membership of our board is made up of a marvelous group of people to whom we are indebted for their untiring faithfulness to their task. We are especially grateful to Frank Hyles, Conference Missionary Secretary, for the wonderful way he has assumed the responsibilities of this office and has given 100% in cooperation and supportiveness to the work of our board. Frank is to be highly commended for this great service he is rendering to the life of this Annual Conference.

In conclusion, I must recognize the fact that the eight years that I have served on this board have revealed to me that this Annual Conference is comprised of some of the finest Christian people that exist anywhere in our world. I am also convinced that we have only just begun to fulfill the potential of Christian service in terms of the calling of God upon us to meet the needs that we can meet and fulfill the mission that He is calling us to fulfill.

My prayer is that we will continue to have ears to hear, eyes to see, hearts to perceive, and wills to do that which God would reveal to us as our mission in Alabama-West Florida and to the ends of the earth.

Respectfully submitted,
 Douglas Newton, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

The Committee on Church Extension has continued to pursue the following quadrennial goals:

- (1) To double membership of the Ten Dollar Club.
- (2) To encourage the establishment of new congregations where needed.
- (3) To become better informed of needs for grants and loans.
- (4) To inform churches of financial assistance available.
- (5) To follow guidelines closely.
- (6) To make churches aware that church extension is an arm of World Service and Conference Benevolences.

In 1979 the committee has had the pleasure of awarding grants to fourteen churches in seven districts. In addition it has provided loans to three churches, including the new Mobile church, Christ United Methodist Church. In support of the new Dothan church, Covenant United Methodist Church, an appeal was made to the Ten Dollar Club.

The committee is grateful for having had the opportunity to assist these local churches in improving and/or expanding their building facilities during the past year.

Ten Dollar Club

The Ten Dollar Club, an arm of church extension, grew considerably in membership in 1979. Some churches have gone "the second mile" in support of the club, such as the new Covenant United Methodist Church in Dothan which asks every member to join the Ten Dollar Club as a part of his or her commitment. To join the Ten Dollar Club a person commits himself to give ten dollars no more than twice a year (total of twenty dollars) when an appeal goes out. The money can be paid through the local church, designated "Ten Dollar Club," or sent directly to United Methodist Headquarters, P.O. Box 700, Andalusia, Alabama 36420. The two appeals for 1980 are:

- (1) Locust Bluff United Methodist Church and (2) Christ Church, Mobile.

Education

During this conference year our School of Christian Mission at Blue Lake was held in two sessions (Tuesday-Thursday and Friday-Sunday) in mid-summer. Mrs. Eloise McGucken of Gastonburg, served as this year's dean and will be serving again in the summer of 1980. Attendance improved for the second year in succession.

The mission studies for 1979-1980 were (1) Middle East Mosaic, (2) The Parables and (3) Human Rights and Ethnic Minorities.

Rev. Fred Toland, Mobile Inner City Minister, attended a Church World Service Seminar on Disaster Relief at Monteagle, Tennessee, during November. After his experience with Hurricane Frederic, he was as much a resource person for the seminar as a learner.

Disaster relief teams from several districts attended a workshop in Prattville, Alabama, planned in cooperation with the Alabama Christian Consultation. Miss Virginia Miller, Disaster Coordinator of the National Board of Global Ministries, served as resource person.

On February 21-22 more than 25 persons attended a WHEAT Workshop at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama.

Hurricane Relief

Disaster and difficulties sometimes bring out the sterling qualities within people. Hurricane Frederic afforded the United Methodists within our episcopal area the opportunity to engage in mission with much time and effort and they responded magnificently. Beyond the call of duty, countless persons gave of themselves in service to many people — District Superintendents, Rev. Henry Eddins and Rev. Lester Spencer; District Disaster Coordinators, Hugh McDonald and Fred Toland; ministers and lay persons, especially those within the stricken area, but including others from our conference, North Alabama, Florida and other states, UMCOR (contributed $120,000 for relief and resource persons); the National Board of Missions (Virginia Miller and Bruce Starkey, a community worker from Kansas City); contributors from Alabama-West Florida ($100,000), North Alabama ($150,000) and Florida ($50,000). The committee and the Board of Missions single out Fred Toland and Jim Griffin for their truly dedicated service, commitment of time and expertise in dealing with the tragedy that was Hurricane Frederic. In singling out these two exceptional men, the board is commending through them all the others who gave of themselves in Christian service.

Mission Experiences

In the early summer of 1979, our conference "Ambassador Extraordinaire in Mission Work," Rev. Ted Hoagland, led a work and witness team to Costa Rica. In July, Rev. Hoagland, Al Boyette and Rev. Hugh McDonald attended the Frontier Annual Conference of the Methodist Church meeting in Torreon, Mexico, where Ted Hoagland very ably addressed the conference and where negotiations were initiated in establishing a Partnership in Mission Program between Mexico and our conference.

During two weeks of November and December, a group of nine persons from our conference visited all the recommended Advance Special work in Central America. The group included three District Mission Secretaries; Rev. Joe Bates, Rev. Charles Butler, Rev. Ted Hoagland; three persons from the Jackson, Alabama, U.M.C. (planning to build a new parsonage at Tibas), the Conference Youth Coordinator, Rev. Buddy Capps conducted a tour and led in a work team of youth in Costa Rica, the Conference Missionary Secretary, Rev. Frank Hyles; and the former Conference Missionary Secretary, Rev. Ervin Dailey.

The last two weeks in April a team of persons, primarily from the Niceville United Methodist Church, worked in the island of Dominica in the Caribbean, rebuilding and repairing homes that were destroyed in August, 1979, when Hurricane David struck with devastating fury.

In March, Lester Spencer, Jr., made a trip to Belize to coordinate plans for a work team of Auburn students that will be going this summer to repair a youth house and lead in a service of celebrations events.

Work teams have been active in several ethnic minority local churches in our conference. This truly exceptional work will be recognized in an Audio-Visual presentation at the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference this summer.

Mission saturation events have been held successfully in several districts and local churches of our conference. Any church or district desiring such an event is encouraged to contact the Conference Missionary Secretary.

Mission Visits Made To Us

An important part of our committee's work is to bring mission persons into our area and itinerate them in local churches.

- 1. Dr. and Mrs. Carl Judy, South Korea, visited us in late summer, 1979.
- 2. Rev. and Mrs. Harold Gill, their two children and four youth from Belize spent two weeks with us in July.
- 3. A large group of youth from Costa Rica itinerated in our conference during February, 1980.
- 4. Also in February Joel Mora Pena, Bishop of the Frontier Conference of Northern Mexico, and William Hutchinson, U.S. Missionary to Mexico, were visitors to the Bishop's Convocation on Preaching on February 4-6 and later visited a number of local churches in the Pensacola District.
- 5. Rev. Marion Woods and Mr. George Sawada, Missionaries to Costa Rica, met with numerous church groups during March and April.

General Information

Missionary support has gone up so that it now costs $18,000.00 for a couple, $9,000.00 for a single missionary, to be maintained on the mission field. For local churches to have a share in the support of a missionary they must give $3.00 per member or $1,000.00. This will entitle them to a visit when the missionary is on furlough.

We presently have eleven missionaries assigned to our Annual Conference.

For the first time in the history of our conference, giving to mission (World Service, Conference Benevolences and Advance Specials) surpassed one million dollars during this past year.

Appreciation

Our committee expresses its deep appreciation to Rev. Doug Newton for his excellent work in leading our mission program as chairman of the Board of Missions for the past 4 years. Also, our deep appreciation is expressed to the Rev. Frank Hyles in his excellent work as Conference Missionary Secretary.

TASK FORCE ON WORLD HUNGER

Hunger around the world, though not receiving the attention it once received in the media, has certainly by no means diminished. Rather, it has intensified and become more acute in many areas. There are some areas in which help has been slow in coming and they have almost been forgotten. To be sure, there are many areas which have caught the attention of our people and we have responded in a very unselfish and magnanimous manner. There was the need that came to the attention of the people of the United States of the atrocious conditions and mass starvation in Cambodia and the people of our country and the people of The United Methodist Church responded with a meritorious response.

Our people are to be commended for their interest and their attempts to understand the matter and to make the best response they can. Many of the churches across our conference have done this and the response they have made has certainly warmed the hearts of their people as they were given an opportunity to respond. These churches have also blessed the hearts of those with whom their efforts and money have been shared.

As a task force, we have felt the greatest need and the finest way we could help our conference was not only in choosing projects for you to be able to help, but also in assisting in interpreting the needs and how you as a church might be able to respond in the spirit of Christ. We have, in an attempt to respond to this mandate, held this year a WHEAT/Hunger Enabler's Training Event in our Conference. This event was planned with not only the people of the Alabama-West Florida Conference in mind, but also the North Alabama Conference and members of other judicatories across the state. Very fine leadership and information was experienced and received in this event, giving to many key leaders across our conference and state an opportunity of being able to give leadership in the area of World Hunger.

Though we were somewhat distressed to find out much of the money that had been raised for our two World Hunger Advance Specials had been remitted and marked improperly for correct credit being received for these two projects, we are grateful these gifts had gone to a great cause. Therefore, the amounts due on our two World Hunger Advance Specials — GBARNGA in LIBERIA, AFRICA and GANTA, also in LIBERIA, AFRICA are very outstanding. Be that as it may, we are certain our people with enthusiastic response can help us to accomplish these goals in the allotted time we had set for ourselves. We urge you to let your Thanksgiving Emphasis be for this matter and also give your people a chance to respond in other manners fitting the program of your local church.

We are projecting District Training Events for World Hunger across our conference in the ensuing year. Information will be distributed concerning these experiences and you are urged to participate in them. We believe they will make a great difference in your understanding of hunger and the means whereby your church will be able to participate in the most efficient manner.

DUMAS WESLEY COMMUNITY CENTER

The Dumas Wesley Community Center in 1979 completed one of its most exciting years of growth in service, community recognition and emergency relief since the agency opened its first mission in 1904. Located for the past 50 years in a center building in Crichton, a low income neighborhood in Mobile, the Dumas Wesley Community Center board, volunteers and staff faced a number of serious challenges during the past year.

Within less than 90 days, from September 12 to December 11, we weathered the damages to the center and the neighborhood by Hurricane Frederic, served as a disaster relief center for the emergency, relief and cleanup operations which followed; continued our ongoing programs such as our child day care operations, and planned and staged a successful 75th Anniversary Dinner.

When members of the board of directors and staff met at the center Tuesday night, September 11, 1979, we did not suspect that 24 hours later we would be digging out from under the worst disaster ever to hit this area and, in terms of property damage, the most expensive hurricane in American history.

Damage to the center building and property was costly but less than it could have been. As staff and volunteers surveyed the damage, boarded up the blown out windows and doors, and began chain-sawing away the trees on the building, we thanked God for the lives that were spared and that damage was not even worse.

The Dumas Wesley Community Center, despite our own damage, immediately became a disaster relief center. We distributed emergency food, ice, some medical and household supplies and food certificates provided by the Mobile Metropolitan Ministries of The United Methodist Church through a local grocery store chain. Through referral by the American Red Cross, our agency also became a center for volunteer crews that poured into the Mobile area to assist families. Some of the crews slept on cots at the center, cooking their own food in our child day care center kitchen.

We worked with volunteer crews of people of all ages from young people to retired couples from churches throughout Alabama and from out of state. One of the most heartwarming and effective relief teams was that of a contractor from Carrollton, Alabama. He brought in his entire crew and headquartered at the center. With their knowledge of the neighborhood and its residents, our staff members were able to lead the crew from house to house as they quickly re-roofed homes of low income residents, most of them owners of modest homes with either inadequate insurance or none at all.

Throughout the disaster relief period we worked closely with the Mobile Metropolitan Ministries, Catholic Social Services and various churches throughout the conference.

December 11, 1979, we observed the 75th anniversary of the opening of the first mission with a dinner at the Government Street United Methodist Church, site of the first meeting of Methodist women who founded the agency. United Methodists, United Fund, community leaders and public officials joined our board for the observation. Mobile's mayor presented Mrs. Arthur Tislington III, chairman of the board, with a proclamation declaring it "Dumas Wesley Community Center Day."

Hurricane Frederic hit everybody hard and we did not know what to expect from our annual appeal for donations to run our Christmas Toy Store.

Women's church groups, businesses, and individuals for the past several years have contributed funds with which we purchase toys. These toys are then marked down in price and sold to parents, selected on the basis of need, in the Dumas Wesley Toy Store operated by volunteers. Monies from the sales go into the emergency fund. Contributors responded generously to our appeal for funds for toys for the needy, almost doubling contributions from 1978. News and television coverage of the toy store brought us additional recognition in the community.

Earlier in 1979 the board, with the approval of the United Fund, had retained the services of a professional fund raising organization for a preliminary study we had hoped would result in a 1980 capital fund drive to build a badly needed new and expanded facility. The survey indicated that despite our many years of work, we had a low level of community awareness. The board of directors decided to postpone our capital funds drive until another year and to begin a program of public relations. That program, with the part-time assistance of a local public relations firm, began in September. Those activities have included such things as the anniversary dinner, a new slide presentation, and more frequent news stories.

A possible alternative to the construction of a new center arose in late 1979 when we learned of the future availability of a large church and private school complex a few blocks away which will be for sale in the next 12 to 18 months. This pre-owned facility would provide much more space at a lower total cost than if we were to try to build at present new construction costs. The board of directors is seriously considering this alternative.

Our present space needs are completely inadequate to provide the badly needed multi-service approach to low income families in the neighborhood. Community meetings, board meetings, and other activities, classes, the Christmas Toy Store, all must be held in day care center classrooms at the end of the day. Chairs, tables and cots are folded, moved and stacked to be replaced with other folding chairs for adults. Our other small activities building is so badly crowded that it is not unusual to find a committee huddled in one corner discussing crime control while a sewing class goes on a few feet away and in the back of the building a staff member is pouring clay for a ceramics class.

Activities most severely hampered by lack of space and equipment are those for the elderly and playground activities for young people. Teenagers line up just to play on our one outdoor basketball court often playing so late in the evening that one wonders how they see the goals in the dusk.

The mission of Dumas Wesley is the same today as when it was founded as part of the settlement movement of the early 1900's. Strengthening families and individuals through services, activities, education, and spiritual enrichment is still our goal. We achieve this goal today in many different ways because times have changed, some segments of our society as a whole have reached new thresholds of opportunity while others emerge to the forefront of need. Our roots remain the same and we continue as a viable and unique institution able to meet the changing needs of a changing community through three-quarters of a century.

Child day care remains the backbone of our services. We operate from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. for children two and a half to five years old. Children receive pre-school education, two hot meals and a snack a day. Despite crowded classrooms, our graduates continue to score extremely well on pre-school admissions tests. Fees for child day care are based on parents' ability to pay.

In a kindred program, we provide nutritional supervision for homes in Mobile County operating family day care programs. This project is by contract with the State Department of Education.

Other programs include senior citizens' activities, sewing classes for adults and teenagers, outdoor playground activities, leisure groups and arts and crafts, a youth summer recreation program which includes arts and crafts, camping, swimming field trips and cultural enrichment activities; adult basic education, tutoring, and adult activities such as arts and crafts.

We work with various public agencies such as Mobile Public Schools, Department of Pensions and Security, Alabama Extension Service, State Vocational Rehabilitation Program, CETA, State Department of Education, and the City of Mobile.

Community agencies with which we work include the United Fund, American Red Cross, Boy Scouts of America, Concerned Citizens of Crichton and others.

Church groups which provide support on the local district and conference level include local United Methodist churches, Mobile District Board of Missions, Alabama-West Florida United Methodist Women, Alabama-West Florida Aid to Action Ministries and many individual women's church groups.

The board of directors and staff solicit your prayers and support as we enter a new decade of service. The 1980's hold new challenges and new opportunities for us to put into practice love of God through love of our neighbor, not just in our heart but by putting our hands and tithes to work in meaningful ways. Let us go forth into the 1980's helping our neighbors to enjoy a better life so they, in turn, can help others in the years to come.

MOBILE INNER CITY MISSION

The dollar value of programs carried out by the United Methodist Inner City Mission will be approximately $446,138. This will be done using only $53,200 of our own United Methodist money. You will see how this has happened as you read this report.

First, however, we want you to be fully aware of your United Methodist support, because your dollars come first and cause everything else to happen.

The conference Board of Missions and the Mobile District program fund provide $17,000 to get things moving.

The United Methodist Women of the conference provide about $5,000 through their program.

The mission receives about $6,000 from governmental agencies for services rendered through contracts and agreements.

The other $25,000 comes from you, your churches, classes, and others. It comes both through Advance Specials and special gifts.

As you read, don't fail to comprehend the value of what The United Methodist Church is doing in Mobile's inner city. Life would not hold the meaning it does for these people if it were not for the fact that Methodists care and do something about it.

The Mission's Regular Programs

The normal weekly activities at the mission include such programs as tutoring, nutrition classes, Bible classes, Girl Scouts and Cub Scouts, counseling services, referral services, senior citizen activities, special adventures, community meetings, emergency relief and operation of a thrift shop.

Special activities during the year include the Santa Assurance program, the Appalachia Service Project, the annual Christmas parties, and other special events.

Mrs. Bernice Hudson, a community volunteer, conducts regular Saturday BIBLE CLASSES for all ages. Bibles are made available through the mission, and other community volunteers assist Mrs. Hudson in teaching the basic Bible stories to those who come to learn.

The weekly trips to the GROCERY STORE meet a very important need for about forty elderly citizens of the community. It is also one of the most pleasant experiences each week.

Lots of good things happen through the OAKDALE COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB which meets at the mission each month. This group deals with crime problems, street lighting, recreation and other community issues. They are also directly responsible for having the Oakdale area included in the Community Development funding.

EMERGENCY RELIEF AND COUNSELING NEEDS have accelerated since Hurricane Frederic. Families and the elderly are experiencing greater difficulties in managing their limited income. Other personal problems have been magnified in the aftermath of Frederic. The mission is here to help.

The entire list of mission programs came to be because of needs within the community.

Special Programs

Here are those programs that have come into being because of the quality of the activities already listed. These are 100% funded outside our Methodist dollars but are programs of the mission.

WESLEY CHILD DAY CARE: This service is carried out through a contract with the Mobile Housing Board and the State Department of Pensions and Security. We are licensed for about 72 children. Parents must be residents of public housing and recipients of welfare in order to qualify for this program. Parents must also agree to seek training and find a job as a further qualification.

Purpose: To provide adequate pre-school education and nutritional meals for children. To provide opportunity for job training and self-support for parents. Also provides 14 job slots for paraprofessional teacher aids, hired and removed from the welfare roles.

Contract dollar value $141,938

OAKDALE WEATHERIZATION PROGRAM: This program involves a joint contract with CETA for labor and MACAC for cost of materials. This is a pilot project in the Oakdale community and is the cooperative effort of the City of Mobile Neighborhood Improvement Council, MACAC, CETA, utility companies, and the Oakdale Community Service Club.

Purpose: (1) To train high school dropouts in the skills of construction; (2) To increase community pride; (3) To provide insulation, etc. for homes of inner city residents who cannot afford it.

Contract dollar value, excluding materials $185,000

SPECIAL SUMMER PROGRAMS: This includes: (1) Swimming program; (2) Summer lunch program, (3) Recreation support, (4) Youth employment with CETA.

Purpose: To provide adequate supervised recreational activities for children and youth of the inner city.

Agreement dollar value $75,000.

Seasonal Programs

These are those activities that come as special projects throughout the year, with funding coming through special gifts.

SANTA ASSURANCE: This year over $8,000 was given by local businessmen and individuals to provide Christmas toys for some of metropolitan Mobile's poorest families. The mission works with Pensions and Security, Dumas Wesley, Catholic Social Services and other agencies to find these people. The mission takes the money, buys the toys, and sees that they are delivered.

Purpose: To provide the best and happiest Christmas these children have ever seen and possibly will ever see.

SEASONAL SPECIALS: This may include such activities as the annual Christmas parties, Thanksgiving services, etc.

Purpose: to share the joy and meaning of the season.

APPALACHIA SERVICE PROJECT: Designed to take inner city youth to the mountains of Appalachia to repair the homes of the poor who live there. This involves such repairs as roofing, foundation repair, painting, patching, sheetrocking, outhouse construction, etc.

Purpose: To meet the needs of families in the mountains of Appalachia and to give opportunity for inner city youth to experience the joy of sharing with those who have as little or even less than they have themselves.

MOBILE METRO MINISTRY

A metropolitan ministry for Mobile was talked about for several years before a year-long process culminated in October, 1978. It was decided at that time to begin the formation of such a ministry for the greater Mobile area. Almost another year passed before the concept of metro ministry really started shaping up, and that was when Hurricane Frederic moved through Mobile. The new metro ministry was given the job of coordinating relief activities of the United Methodist churches and remains involved in this area of service today. The board for this ministry has been carefully selected, and Judge Robert Hodnette will chair this board for 1980-81. This board will have representatives from Dumas Wesley Community Center, Mobile Inner City Mission, the Mobile District Board of Missions and the District Council on Ministries as well as members chosen from throughout the metropolitan area.

Here, for your information, are the general areas of ministry to be included in this program. Specific priorities are still to be set:

First, the metro ministry will be responsible for ongoing research and study of church growth patterns, population projections, and land use proposals for metropolitan Mobile. Such information will be used to assist in acquisition of land for new churches, possible church relocation, and preparation of long range plans of local congregations. This phase of the ministry will be carried out in close cooperation with the district superintendent, District Committee on Church Location and Building, the District Board of Missions and Church Extension and involved local congregations.

Second, this ministry will assist interested congregations in the formation of specialized ministries such as apartment dwellers, mobile homes, ministries to the deaf, retarded, etc. This will be done partly through local seminars and workshops and partly through providing clergy and laity opportunities to attend regional or national training in specific areas.

Third, this concept will strengthen programs such as the Inner City Mission and Dumas Wesley by aiding in promotion of these programs and by assisting in the development of new funding sources. Inner City and Dumas Wesley will maintain total control of their individual programs and will increase their awareness of the total scope of the need for service delivery ministries throughout the greater Mobile area as participants on the board of Mobile Metro Ministry.

Fourth, this ministry will serve to deliver accurate facts and options for action involving major issues in the Mobile area. This segment of ministry will be involved in such areas as law enforcement, crime, education, drugs, or any other issue, controversial or not, that effects the lives of Mobile residents.

For further information call Rev. Fred Toland, Jr. at the new metro number 433-1893 or Rev. Lester Spencer at 471-6133.

URBAN WORK COMMITTEE

At the fall meeting of the Board of Missions the Urban Work Committee made several suggestions to continue the process of evaluating the urban areas of our conference. We see emerging communities with the urban area that need special attention.

We are asking the urban areas of our conference to consider consultation and self-study similar to that done in Mobile and Montgomery. Problems can be anticipated and handled if enough advance notice is given and we are concerned about the churches located in transitional areas where no plans are presently being made for the future of these local congregations.

The emerging communities, especially the mobile-home centers, present a new challenge to the church in the urban setting. To minister to a mobile society is one of the truly difficult tasks facing us.

As we recognize new areas of growth, we need to be supportive of church extension efforts. These growth patterns are the result of re-located populations either within the urban area or in movement from one urban center to another. We must also be sensitive to re-development in the inner city and equal emphasis should be placed on congregational development in these areas.

The Urban Work Committee continues to call attention to the special ministries within the Alabama-West Florida Conference, and we urge you to support these agencies with your prayers and financial resources.

NELLIE BURGE COMMUNITY CENTER

Nellie Burge Community Center continues daily its various programs of service. From its founding in 1904 as the North Montgomery Settlement House emphasis has been to help prepare girls for a more fulfilling life based on Christian principles.

As the 75 years have rolled by so have the programs been altered to meet the need of the day. Expanding industry forced a move in 1952 from North Montgomery to a location on Bainbridge Street not far from the State Capitol. In 1954, a Methodist layman offered the present building to the settlement house with the proviso it be named in memory of his late wife, Nellie, hence our new name, Nellie Burge Community Center.

The surrounding neighborhood is clearly confined by the Alabama River, railroad yards and Maxwell Air Force Base. Through the years it was a community of low-income white families. A decade ago the neighborhood experienced a change as blacks began to move into the area. Today the neighborhood is approximately fifty percent black and white. Regretfully, participation of blacks at the center prompted an exodus of whites. This is a matter of grave concern and efforts are being made constantly to involve more of the white residents of the community. Extremely limited physical facilities create a major problem in the implementation of new programs in which residents might have an interest and need.

Daily programs have remained essentially the same during the past year. One major addition is the initiation of day care service to children of working neighborhood mothers. This service was offered in July, and very rapidly filled to licensed capacity and remains so. The day care for children of the students in the Young Mothers School continues, and the combined groups allow us to care for 32 children each day. Hours expanded with the Center now being open from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The day care is a quality program with the infants, toddlers and kindergarten separated into four groups which permits staff members to work more closely with smaller groups of children in the same age range. Kindergarten age children are given a good foundation for entrance into elementary school.

An entirely new program was begun in the fall. The center has traditionally offered programs for girls only. Sensing a need for a boy scout troop in the neighborhood, efforts were devoted in this area and the result was the formation of a troop in November. This is a well organized group of 16 boys who meet each Wednesday evening in the center.

A girl scout troop has been in existence for two years. Response was so great last fall, it was necessary to form two troops. Each of these meets on Monday afternoon in the center. Four dedicated Methodist women give leadership to these two fine troops.

Other programs continue to do well. The Young Mothers School is in its seventh year of operation. This enables young ladies, whose education has been interrupted due to childbirth, to prepare to pass the General Education Development Test. This class is in session the entire year. The center's bus picks up these students and their children each morning and takes them home in the afternoon. Children are cared for in the day-care section while mothers are in class.

A most popular program is the After-School Enrichment Session. Girls from nearby McMillan Elementary School come at three o'clock and stay until four-thirty. Recreation, arts and crafts, sewing and cooking are the primary activities.

Once a month a County Health Department nurse sets up a mini-clinic in our living room. The clinic is available to render general health services to neighborhood people as well as center participants. Periodically a team of student nurses from Troy State University School of Nursing holds classes at the center. This instruction stresses such subjects as early detection of cancer in women, nutrition, personal hygiene and the like.

A county-wide program administered by the center is the Federal Home Day Care Nutrition Program. Now entering its third year, two monitors work from the center and oversee meal preparation and menus in day care homes which are under agreement. Particular emphasis is placed on varied menus which always include the four basic food groups. Also stressed is proper portions according to the age and size of the child. There are presently 70 homes in the program with approximately 375 children involved. This program is financed by the United States Department of Agriculture through the State Department of Education.

Immediately after school is out for the summer and for a 10-week period, a well-organized summer program is offered at the center. Arts, crafts, field trips, swimming in two city pools and recreation is enjoyed. This is climaxed with a 5-day camping experience at Blue Lake. Always extremely popular, this activity involves approximately 60 neighborhood boys and girls.

A Bible study class is held with the young mothers group each Friday afternoon. This is a popular activity and is very ably led by a volunteer from the Montgomery Junior League.

The Board of Directors, consisting of one-third United Methodists, one-third neighborhood and one-third community-at-large representatives, plus several ex-officio members, meets regularly each month. This group establishes policy and gives leadership and support to the director and staff. A harmonious relationship exists between the board and the center personnel, which is reflected throughout the center. Visitors to the center frequently mention the feeling of love and caring which is felt by simply entering the building. How wonderful to sense God's presence all about us each day!

We are constantly grateful to all who make our daily operation possible by financial assistance. This comes in various forms and from many varied sources. Traditionally the United Methodist Women from across the conference have been the foundation of support. In addition to monetary gifts, many of these ladies contribute items which are always needed either in the center or to help others in need. Many circles and individual members of United Methodist Women visit the center throughout the year. Knowing we are the concern of this wonderful group of women gives us a feeling of security and a desire to try harder to extend the hand of Christian fellowship to all who come our way.

Other sources of revenue which make it possible to carry out our daily programs of service come from the Annual Conference, the Board of Global Ministries, many local churches and church school classes, individuals, the State of Alabama, C.E.T.A., program services fees and the Montgomery Area United Way. Each of these is an important part of the whole. Thankfully, we are able to carry out our mission of service to people and stay within the bounds of our established budget.

A portion of the "Philosophy and Objectives" of Nellie Burge states, "The center operates on basic Christian principles and in the belief the neighborhood organized around its own interests can do much to enhance personal dignity of the individuals and restore the democratic principle of self-determination." The staff is completely dedicated to this premise and, with the help and prayers of many people, will see that these ideals are fulfilled.

NOAH'S ARK

Noah's Ark is a ministry of the Alabama-West Florida Conference on the beach at Panama City, Florida. It is supported by (1) Advance Special giving of local churches; (2) the United Methodist Women; and (3) Conference Benevolence giving. It is a new form of outreach and witness ministry that is proving to be very effective. During the past year, great strides forward have been taken by the Panama City Beach Ministries.

Summer

With the establishment of a permanent "Ark" the summer vacationers increased in attendance at the musical witness programs conducted twice each night during the summer months. Noah's Ark's musical group "Two by Two" is recruited each year with the cooperation of Huntington College. Dr. Jackson and the Rev. Chris Hughes are most helpful in developing this fine group of Christian "Musical Evangelists/Missionaries." This witness is very effective and inspiring to several thousand vacationers each year.

Also making a good witness on the beach are several hundred youth who participate each summer. These youth groups come from the local churches of our conference, as well as from churches throughout the Southeast. Walking the beach each afternoon, chatting with sunbathers and inviting them to Noah's Ark musical programs is in itself an effective witness to the thousands of vacationers who are contacted each summer.

Winter

The greatest progress has been seen in the completion of the Hearn Memorial Chapel and new recreation and fellowship building. This beautiful new facility was completed and on December 2, 1979, the consecration service was conducted by Bishop Carl Sanders, the Rev. Lloyd Kimbrough, Marianna District Superintendent, and Rev. James C. Rains, Executive Director. The chapel and dining room were filled to capacity for this opening service and accommodated a capacity congregation of winter visitors each Sunday during the winter months.

The winter ministry begins on November 1st and continues seven days a week until the end of March. Worship, recreation, entertainment, fellowship, art classes, craft classes, travel, blood pressure clinic and cancer clinic are the hallmarks of the services rendered by Noah's Ark's staff. Over 600 retired people became members of the Snowbird Club's growing community. The appreciation and enthusiasm of these winter visitors for the ministry of Noah's Ark has been deeply expressed through their provision of all the altar equipment and accessories, hymnals, chairs, tables, and other equipment and furnishings of the new chapel.

The board, the staff, and the executive director thank the Lord and express their appreciation to all local churches and individuals for their support of this ministry through their Advance Special giving; to the United Methodist Women of our conference, especially Mrs. Sue Jones, Mrs. Juanita Hester, and Mrs. Mae Carter for their enthusiastic promotion of this ministry; to the youth of our churches who come and witness; and to Huntingdon College for their assistance involving the musical group.

All churches are invited to participate in this ministry through their financial support and by holding beach retreats at Noah's Ark any time during the spring, summer, and fall months. These facilities belong to the Alabama-West Florida Conference and everyone is invited to make the best use of them. Simply contact Noah's Ark at P.O. Box 9376, Panama City Beach, Florida 32407, or call 904-234-6062.

PENSACOLA SPECIAL MINISTRIES

Summer Food Program

The summer food program is one of the biggest programs of Pensacola Special Ministries. This program involves the feeding of 2 to 3 thousand indigent children a day during the summer. These are children who have qualified for free lunches in the school system, but because the school system in Escambia County has chosen not to participate in the program these children will not be able to eat this summer, unless we feed them.

In addition to feeding the hungry children, the summer food program provides an opportunity for special ministries to provide job opportunities for young people from low income areas of the county. All of the food will be packaged and delivered by college and high school students chosen by special ministries.

The criteria used to choose these employees will be determined by a personnel committee named by the district superintendent, and the Executive Committee of Pensacola Special Ministries.

The summer food program also allows the church to be ecumenical in spirit because the program is not run completely by special ministries. Special ministries assumes the responsibility for the program in that we sign the contract, this makes us responsible for the $3,000.00 per day that is paid by the state and federal government. We keep all the books because our staff has been trained by the auditor for the Department of Education to keep all the records properly. We are responsible for all the administrative work of the program, including the training of the workers from the participating agencies. We have joined hands with the following agencies in Escambia County to make this one of the better programs of its kind in the State of Florida:

The Community Action Program (State)

The Salvation Army of Pensacola

Pensacola Housing Authority (County)

St. Joseph's Community Center (Catholic)

Department of Education (State)

Counseling Center

The counseling center is located in the lobby of the San Carlos Hotel and strives to meet a variety of needs of people from all walks of life. Rev. Donald Jay, a school-trained Drug/Alcohol Counselor is responsible for all the work that relates to drug/alcohol problems.

We are currently exploring the avenues with state officials to become licensed as an out-patient clinic, thus giving our program a degree of credibility other programs do not have. In our counseling program we work closely with Escambia County Mental Health, utilizing the detox facilities. We accept referrals from Waterfront Rescue Mission to provide rehab and follow-on counseling for their graduates. We accept referrals from the Department of Health & Rehabilitative Services, and the Visiting Teachers Association.

In the counseling center we provide a clearance bureau for the local churches. A food and emergency aid center is maintained by the Warrington church. After a family has been registered and cleared by the counseling center, emergency assistance is available for them. This clearance center eliminates the duplication of services given to people who are undeserving.

Through the counseling center we provide assistance to adolescents who have problems. We have the means to assist the adolescent who has a drug or alcohol related problem. We assist in working with adolescents who have run away from home by helping to make contact with parents in distant cities and, hopefully, talking the adolescent into returning home.

We work very closely with all interested groups in the adolescent program. Just recently, working with the night clerk in the hotel we discovered a 16-year-old girl who was being kept against her will by a 22-year-old man. We detected something was wrong so the night clerk called the police. The couple was separated and provisions were made for her to return home.

The counseling center is currently engaged in a rehabilitation program, working with agencies such as the Pollak Center — A Division of Escambia County Association for Retarded Citizens, and the Rehabilitation Institute of West Florida. We are striving to place mentally retarded and physically handicapped citizens in work projects.

We are also in the process of making arrangements with local contractors to provide jobs for participants in our drug/alcohol programs. This program deals with the whole person concept of ministry. A person is given spiritual assistance through the local church. He is furnished with tools of his trade which he later pays for. He is given a job opportunity, therefore allowing him to pay for his treatment while he gets some needed job training.

We feel the concept of ministry and mission is best fulfilled through the various programs of counseling and hope to expand and improve on them as the ministry grows.

Apartment Ministries

We have chosen the term apartment ministries to describe a proposed program we are attempting to start for the elderly people living in the San Carlos Hotel. At the present time there are 54 apartments occupied by retired people. Some are husband and wife, but most are people whose mates are deceased. These people have been delegated a place in life "because of their age or physical infirmities" that separates them from society. Most have been literally abandoned by children and relatives and are left in the hotel with nothing but sheer boredom to live with.

In an effort to make life and the church more meaningful to these people we are presently encouraging the local churches to join special ministries in providing a ministry to these people that will allow them to retain some human dignity, and give some purpose to the few years they have left.

We have been very fortunate in that one of the retirees, Ms. Mary Die, has volunteered to be a coordinator in our program. Since Mary lives in the hotel and is a retiree herself, she has first-hand knowledge of the needs of this particular group of elderly people. In addition to Mary we also have a group of interested people from the Saint Andrew church who have volunteered their time to assist us in assessing the needs and preparing brochures to better inform the church on how they can best be in ministry to the people here at the San Carlos.

The following are programs that have been proposed, and we are in the process of implementing them at this time.

The hotel furnishes a beautiful prayer room complete with an altar and worship center. We are trying to find a group that will accept responsibility for a Bible study and prayer time to be scheduled on a regular, daily or weekly basis. This group will also be responsible for working with local pastors to see if car pools can be provided by the local churches to allow the residents to attend regular Sunday morning worship services each Sunday in the local churches.

We will be proposing the car pool to the local Inter-Faith Council and Ministerial Association, asking them to participate in this program, since we have people of all faiths living here in the hotel.

We are working with the local Council on Aging to provide some evening activities for our residents. We will be encouraging talented people from the local churches to assist us with programs designed to relieve the boredom of the residents. These activity classes will consist of such things as music groups. A youth group is presently working on their project. Church groups will come in once a week for a night of special music, plus sing-a-long groups.

We have a volunteer from a local church who has offered to assist us in establishing an activities night. She will come with any other group of interested people to teach arts & crafts, sewing, painting, etc., teaching the residents to make little gift items and gadgets that can be given for Christmas and so on.

We are presently looking for a church (or churches) that will help us find some transportation (such as mini-buses) that can be used for trips. In the summer we would like to take our residents to the beaches for picnics, wading, swimming, or sightseeing. They desperately need to be involved in anything that will get them out of the hotel, and into the sunshine, and any activities that give them some exercise, such as short walks, swimming, wading, etc., are good for them. We would like also to make some overnight trips to Blue Lake and Noah's Ark.

In addition to trips for recreation we need transportation for shopping trips. Our people have a need for assistance in getting to and from the bank, grocery store, department stores, etc.

These are just a few of the opportunities that exist at the present time for the church to be in mission. As we become aware of others we will make additions to our program staff to meet the need.

UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

In the area of volunteers, this year has seen the continuation of established programs and the beginning of others. The "Partnership in Mission" with the Methodist Church in Costa Rica continues with widening contacts. A "Work and Witness" team was again in Costa Rica and other groups visited there for orientation. Here we received another group of six Costa Rican youth who visited in conference churches, and in May we had a visit from the General Conference delegate from that country. Through the initiative of the Pensacola District a beginning has been made for productive contacts with the Methodist Church in Northern Mexico. Bishop Joel Pena Mora of that area attended the Bishop's Convocation on Preaching and traveled in the Pensacola District. Helen Myers of Panama City gave two months of her time in Golfito, Costa Rica, in the summer of 1979 and returned in the spring of 1980 for further volunteer service. First Methodist, Niceville, has taken the lead in forming a reconstruction team for the island of Dominica, almost totally ravaged by a hurricane. Special attention is called to service opportunities for volunteers able to give time of two weeks or more.

AID TO ACTION MINISTRIES

Aid to Action Ministries has continued during the past year to support projects on the growing edge of the church: Mobile Inner City Mission, Pensacola Specialized Ministries, Dumas Wesley Community Center, Nellie Burge Community Center, Baldwin County Migrant Ministries, Mobile Metro Ministry, and Covenant Church in Dothan.

During the year a decision was made by the conference Board of Missions to place certain of the projects heretofore supported through these funds directly under the Annual Conference. The established community centers and established urban ministries have become a regular part of the Annual Conference and should best be listed as line items in the conference budget. In consultation with the Council on Finance and Administration this is being recommended to the conference. Aid to Action Ministries under the Board of Missions will concentrate, according to its original mandate, on experimental projects in the Annual Conference.

As outgoing chairman of the committee, I want to express appreciation to all members of the committee and to all those working in the various projects for the faithful service that has been rendered.

Respectfully submitted,
William M. Pickard, Jr., Chairman

REPORT NO. 5 POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE REGISTRAR

Standing Rule 8 of the Annual Conference makes the Council on Finance and Administration the Committee on Arrangements for the Annual Conference Session. In keeping with this, the Council on Finance and Administration has selected one person as conference registrar to supervise registration of and assignment of rooms to Annual Conference delegates; handle calls for persons attending sessions; supervise displays and allocations of rooms for such; handle reservations for meeting rooms and for dining areas.

In order to implement and prevent overlapping of authority, the Council on Finance and Administration adopts the following guidelines:

1. The Conference Registrar shall have full responsibility for interpreting the eligibility of those covered under Standing Rule 8 for entertainment at the Annual Conference Session. This may be appealed to the Council on Finance and Administration.
2. Chairpersons of boards and agencies who are not elected delegates and attend the Annual Conference in order to give reports shall have their expenses paid by their own board or agency.
3. Space and/or rooms to be used for displays shall be assigned by the registrar and no other. Space shall be assigned on a first come basis.
4. Use of dining halls, rooms or areas shall be determined by the registrar.

7. Special needs, such as hymnals, altar furnishings, projectors, etc. shall be arranged through the registrar at least two weeks before conference. Needs arising during conference which could not be anticipated will also be arranged through the registrar and not through the college.

REPORT NO. 8

STEWARDSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES AND LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS

1. The council believes that all apportionments are needed in the amounts apportioned. Further, the council believes that it is within the capacity of the churches to pay the apportionments in full. Great effort has been made to apportion more realistically and even greater effort will be made in the future to accomplish more manageable apportionments. We urge full acceptance and payment of all apportionments by each church.

2. We recommend that district superintendents establish suitable apportionments for new charges in harmony with the adopted basis for apportionments.

3. We recommend that apportionments be made to all churches as developed by the formula method. However, the district superintendent and the council may meet jointly prior to the mailing of apportionments to churches to make adjustments with appropriate explanations by the district superintendent to the church involved.

4. We recommend that local churches provide for the audits of local church records as provided in paragraph 260:3c of the 1976 Discipline. It is our suggestion that audits of local church financial books should be done by someone other than church staff and should involve others, though members of the Committee on Finance may be included. See the Committee on Audit and Review membership (Paragraph 905:4b, 1976 Discipline) as a possible guideline for membership selection.

REPORT NO. 9

DISCIPLINARY REQUIREMENT

Paragraph 721 of the 1976 Discipline requires the council to approve the bonding agent for the treasurer and/or treasurers of all agencies and boards, and to recommend amounts for which treasurers are bonded. The council recommends that the present policy of bonding be continued.

REPORT NO. 10

FORMULA AND ALLOCATIONS

1. We recommend that apportionments be developed using a formula based on weights of 25% membership and 75% non-building budget (see Standing Rule 26), and that apportionments be determined by local church decimals applied to the cost of each ministry at the conference level.

2. It is recommended that the spring meeting of the council be the time for receiving requests from the Council on Ministries and boards and agencies for allocations from the benevolence budget for the ensuing year. All boards and agencies funded through the benevolence budget should be advised that they place their allocation of funds for their program in jeopardy when they fail to comply with requests for information requested and required by the Council on Ministries.

3. We further recommend that apportionments be developed and distributed to each church by September 15, in order that they may be used for development of local church budgets for the calendar year.

REPORT NO. 11

BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

REPORT NO. 1

The United Methodist Church is very much involved in the health care concerns and the well-being of people all across this country.

Genuine concern for human health and welfare, shown at its best in unselfish service, is freedom's best safeguard. So strong was this concern among early Methodists that John Wesley gave his motto of service: "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you live."

Through the growth of unity among Christians today, the concern among United Methodists for human health and welfare is gaining momentum. When you render acts of service, you are ministering in the Master's stead — "Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me."

The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries of the Alabama-West Florida Conference seeks to express this God-given caring as we share with the overlooked children, the disturbed youth, and the forgotten elderly. Unless someone close to you is a resident of one of the United Methodist homes, you may not be aware of the kinds of care your generosity has helped to insure. Often it is not more advanced age alone that dictates the level of care required by an individual. Some of our elderly are able to do the most for themselves.

The man and the woman in the pew — every pew — from the small rural or open country church to the large, urban, high-steeped church, United Methodist men and women, children and youth, are reaching out and effectively touching the lives and healing the hurt of humanity through the two hundred and sixty (260) health and welfare ministries agencies.

Included in this number of agencies are 145 agencies serving aging persons, 57 health care facilities and hospitals, and 58 agencies serving children and youth. These 260 agencies, that have enabled United Methodist people to express their Christian concern for others, have served more than four and one-half million persons annually with budgets totaling one and one-half BILLION dollars. These 260 agencies last year ministered to more than 200,000 persons with free and part-pay services which cost the agencies more than $100 million — or more than four times the total of the entire world service program of the church. And of the more than $100 million which these agencies spent to minister to persons on a free or part-pay basis, the church provided less than $20 million, or less than 20 percent of the total "out-reach" ministry to people in the name of Christ through the health and welfare ministries. This represents an outstanding stewardship on the part of these agencies. United Methodists certainly get more than a fair return on their investment through these agencies. In this way, every United Methodist is deeply involved in the helping and healing ministry of the denomination where lives are touched, helped, healed, strengthened, and enriched in a miraculous way!

Your open hearts and open hands have been an inspiration to all of us who labor in a caring and sharing ministry to children, youth and adults. With the evidence of your caring about others, we know that we will find the faith and support to do what must be done. Wherever there is a gift to be given, please remember there is always a United Methodist home which can use your help to help others. The White Christmas Offering for our United Methodist Children's Homes must continue to increase, so that our ministry to children and their families may expand and serve more persons in other parts of Alabama and West Florida. The local church has responded to the call and we are most grateful to you.

A very fine representation from our district directors and members of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries attended a meeting at the United Methodist Children's Home in Selma, Alabama, on October 23, 1979, to receive both inspiration and information for the White Christmas emphasis. As of March 14 (9½ months report) the total amount contributed was $379,414.00.

We have pledged to reach a goal of $40,000 on Mother's Day. Golden Cross receives 30¢ and Wesley Manor receives 70¢ of each dollar. More requests are received each month than we have funds to meet these desperate needs of some of God's children. Due to the increasing need to keep the churches of our conference informed of active ministries growing out of health and welfare ministries relating to Golden Cross and the homes for the aging, we recommend that special days be designated for each of these vital programs. We recommend the Sunday following Labor Day as the day for observing and recognizing the Golden Cross Ministries, as a time to deny ourselves to care for another's needs, and to join the general church in the recognition of Health and Welfare Week (Mother's Day) for our homes for the aging. This is to begin in 1981.

The District Directors of Health and Welfare Ministries are to be commended for their fine spirit of cooperation and active participation in the total program and work of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. These district directors are:

Andalusia District:	Rev. David H. Chunn	Brewton, Alabama
Demopolis District:	Rev. Gerald H. Maddox	Moundville, Alabama
Dothan District:	Rev. Richard O. Sigler	Dothan, Alabama
Marianna District:	Rev. Haroll M. Devane	Lynn Haven, Florida
Mobile District:	Rev. Thomas M. Ellis	Mobile, Alabama
Montgomery District:	Mr. William Wilson	Montgomery, Alabama
Pensacola District:	Rev. Jimmie R. Spikes	Destin, Florida
Selma District:	Rev. J. Wilbur Majors	Selma, Alabama
Troy District:	Rev. Elvin T. Edgar	Phenix City, Alabama

We urge a much wider showing of the film "Unto One Of The Least Of These" (United Methodist Children's Home) and of the film "A Gift Of Love" (United Methodist Homes For the Aging) as a motivation for our ministry throughout the conference. These are available free of charge for your showing.

We are happy to cooperate with District Directors of Health and Welfare Ministries for participation by every district in the Chaplain-In-Service program each week at Wesley Manor in Dothan, Alabama.

When I look at the needs of persons in the local church and community, my concern is PEOPLE, whoever they are and wherever they may be, who experience the terrible pain of loneliness, sickness and disease, death and dying, exceptional children and youth, the needs of persons with handicapping conditions, those in jail and prisons, and the struggles of frustrated families. ALL need us to demonstrate an expression of the Christian gospel in our service and to share their suffering. This concept of the CARING and SHARING ministry is our goal for each local church.

Elvin T. Edgar, Chairman

REPORT NO. 3

UNITED METHODIST HOMES FOR THE AGING 1979-80 REPORT TO ANNUAL CONFERENCE

In 1956 resolutions from the Alabama Conference (now the Alabama-West Florida Conference) and the North Alabama Conference of The United Methodist Church authorized both the creation of a corporation known as "The Methodist Home for the Aging" and the election of a Board of Trustees. In the articles of incorporation the resolution further states that the purpose of this corporation "shall be to care for eligible aging persons." Since that time of incorporation, Fair Haven, our home in Birmingham, was built and opened in 1961 and our second home, Wesley Manor, was built and opened in Dothan in 1968. Today 325 persons live at Fair Haven and 210 at Wesley Manor. Both homes are filled to capacity with a waiting list that continues to grow for those wanting residency in the retirement and health care areas. Since opening, Fair Haven has received the 1003rd person and Wesley Manor the 504th. We give thanks to God for the Church's ministry to his children.

During this conference year we have faced a continued crisis with the Medicaid program. Between both homes there are 72 individuals on Medicaid. At the present rate of reimbursement this means $32,000 monthly for Wesley Manor ($384,000 yearly) and $18,000 monthly for Fair Haven ($216,000 yearly). Adequate funding of the Medicaid Program is essential if we are to be able to continue services to these persons.

In addition to those on Medicaid we have a total of 62 persons who do not qualify for Medicaid but who receive financial assistance on a monthly basis. During 1979, $33,174.60 of assistance was given at Wesley Manor and $120,971.00 at Fair Haven. To help us meet this expense, approximately $30,000 was received from the Alabama-West Florida Conference for Wesley Manor and $45,000 from the North Alabama Conference for Fair Haven.

It is extremely important that our Methodist Churches of both Annual Conferences share in this ministry of caring. Every local church is called upon to take part in continuing to provide assistance for those persons who can no longer pay their monthly charge because they have moved beyond the day of increasing their income. As one resident put it, "the days of hoping to earn enough to care for me are over." She spoke for many of our residents.

During this year of strengthening our existing homes, efforts have been made to broaden and expand our number of homes. Complete working drawings are ready for Wesley Terrace in Auburn-Opelika and Wesley Acres in Decatur. Due to inflation, the cost of building materials and the inability to get an acceptable tax exempt bond issue we are unable to move forward with these projects at the present time. It is our hope that by Annual Conference or shortly thereafter conditions will have changed to allow us to bring these homes into reality.

The trustees are aware of the growing aging population and are committed to enlarging our services and building additional homes. However, sound financing of each home is most essential. The trustees believe that each home must be able to fund their own capital indebtedness and operate without jeopardizing the security of the other homes.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees on January 17, 1980, a review was made of the financial strength of our homes. A study was made of the policies of the Life Occupancy Fees (Founder's Fees) and the procedures for refunding these fees if a person or persons moved from the apartment or single room within the first 365 days. The following refund schedule was adopted to become effective July 1, 1980: 85% of the Life Occupancy Fee (Founder's Fee) shall be rebated (less any expense for re-decorating) up to the 91st day, 70% from the 91st to the 180th day, 60% from the 180th to the 271st day, 50% from the 271st day to the 365th day.

This has been a good year for our homes even though we have faced spiraling costs and uncertainties with funding for those who need assistance. The support and interest we have received has been most helpful and for this we are grateful. Your United Methodist Homes for the Aging are illustrations of our Church being at work in a visible and positive way.

As we look back across these twenty years of service we give thanks for those whose visions became and continue to unfold into reality.

Please continue to pray for us in this ministry with God's "Older Children."

A. Wray Tomlin, Executive Director

REPORT NO. 4

Wesley Manor opened its doors to its first residents in September, 1968. Of the seventeen admitted during the next three months, four are still with us. Very early we discovered that if the church was to have a full ministry to meet all the needs of God's "Older Children," it was essential that a health care unit be added. This began the growth pattern for the ensuing years. During the seventies, we have experienced three major building programs, bringing our housing capacities to the following:

- 12 Apartments
- 66 Single Resident Rooms
- 8 Family (double) Units
- 116 Health Care beds (62 Skilled, 54 Intermediate Care)

The decade of the eighties brings new opportunities for ministry to the elderly. It is predicted that an increasing number of our population will live to be 65 and older, and that approximately 5% of those will live in a congregate setting. There will be an increasing demand for housing for the aging.

The State of Alabama has set (at least temporarily) a virtual moratorium on additional certificates of need for health care beds. The rising cost of building will make it almost impossible to build additional resident accommodations yet stay within a reasonable monthly care charge rate. It seems, therefore, that the Methodist Homes for the Aging and the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries have the opportunity now to develop and expand other ministries for the aging. Some of these will be developed with the purpose of serving our aging in settings of their own homes and communities. Others will be to deepen our commitment to those in our institutions.

With inflation increasing the costs of institutional care, there is a pressing need for the church to respond with assistance to those living in our homes. Presently, Wesley Manor has budgeted $36,000 for assistance to residents through the Good Samaritan Fund. This is about one-half of what is greatly needed by our Methodist patients/residents. Last year, the income for the Good Samaritan Fund was less than $30,000.

The Mother's Day offerings, the memorial gifts and other gifts are our only income to the Good Samaritan Fund. The churches are called upon to keep it before our people.

Let us continue to remember our ill and elderly in our daily prayers.

Wesley Manor

REPORT NO. 5

UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME SELMA, ALABAMA

Persons close to the home agree that in 1979 we were privileged to serve the finest group of youngsters we have ever had in care and blessed to have a hard working and dedicated staff to provide that care. A "visit Selma" day in August brought our entire "family" together — some 200 strong and a wonderful time.

During 1979 we emphasized, through several methods, interpretation of the various services and programs of the home to United Methodists in both conferences. A television station produced and aired, at no cost, a documentary on the home. Six districts in Alabama-West Florida hosted "kick-off dinners" for White Christmas. Former Director, Dick Kirkland, is assisting with promotion and interpretation in the North Alabama Conference.

The home as a multiple service, child care agency covering Alabama and west Florida, began the year with 145 children in care; received 728 requests for service; accepted 541 new children thereby serving a total of 694 children as follows:

Children's Village	126	Emergency Shelter Care	377
Group Homes	72	Children's Village	151
Florence	10	Birmingham	226
Huntsville	6	Foster Homes	14
Scottsboro	9	Adoptions	0
Tuscaloosa	10	Scholarship	10
Mobile	10	Family Aid	95
Pensacola	13
Dothan	14
		TOTAL	694

Although we began 1979 with a deficit budget, through careful spending and a 14% increase in White Christmas giving from Alabama-West Florida we ended the year without a deficit. Giving from North Alabama remains constant. There are no funds available for expansion or new services. Hundreds of disadvantaged and homeless children are counting on you as a caring church to continue to support your United Methodist Children's Home. Will we?

R. Lee McLaughlin, ACSW
Executive Director

REPORT NO. 6GOLDEN CROSS

Golden Cross is the fund of the Alabama-West Florida Conference which gives financial aid to United Methodist families who are in extreme financial need because of hospital and medical bills which are beyond their ability to pay. During 1979 sixteen families were assisted with a total of $6,223.00, an average of $388.94 per family.

Golden Cross has received financial support from the Monther's Day Offering which has been taken in May each year. Your gifts to this offering enable Golden Cross to respond to the medical expenses of United Methodists in our conference who are in need. Golden Cross brochures are available from conference headquarters or from the director of Golden Cross.

The rules that govern the Golden Cross Fund are in the 1978 Golden Cross report printed in the 1979 Journal on pages 247 and 248.

Respectfully submitted,
Fred W. Bailey
Director of Golden Cross

REPORT NO. 7EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN AND YOUTH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Alabama-West Florida Conference through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, along with fourteen (14) state wide organizations, continues to support the work of the Exceptional Children and Youth Education Association (ECYEA). The purpose of this association is to support funding for and full implementation of Alabama Act 106 and Public Law 94-142. These laws seek to guarantee appropriate education for exceptional children and youth.

In the education of exceptional children and youth, as in every area of our lives, inflation poses a real threat to the progress made in past years. Administrative and budget cuts are being carried out and more suggested for the sake of economy and under the promise of a more efficient education and government. It is the task of ECYEA to monitor these moves and support those which are necessary and actual improvements and oppose devices to accomplish other ends.

Our goal of an appropriate education for every exceptional person is far from being realized. In July of 1979 there were more than 8,500 identified exceptional children and youth on waiting lists for appropriate public education in the State of Alabama. Within the bounds of our conference there are thousands of exceptional children and youth who are not receiving public education for their special need.

The members of ECYEA are working to insure that past advances are not lost and that progress continues. We believe public education for exceptional children and youth, even in the face of today's many problems, is still a workable reality well within our reach.

We pledge our continued efforts on the behalf of exceptional children and youth. We also earnestly and sincerely request the support of every minister, every lay person and every church within our conference on behalf of our special children and youth and their right to a public education.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert G. Ross, ECYEA Representative

COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

During the 1976-80 quadrennium the disciplinary responsibility of the Alabama-West Florida Commission on the Status and Role of Women was "to challenge The United Methodist Church . . . to a continuing commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church, sharing fully in the power and in the policy making at all levels of the Church's life." (Paragraph 2101) The commission, composed of fourteen members working with a network of friends throughout the conference, has begun to carry out this responsibility in the following ways:

1. In ten full meetings and one task force meeting during the quadrennium it has forged its own community and processes. These basic organizational tasks have been difficult because the conference failed to convene the commission at the appointed time in 1976. The late convening and organizing of the commission in February and March of 1977 forced it to initiate its work under more budgetary and personnel constraints than it might have fairly expected. The commission appreciates the help of the Council on Finance and Administration with these problems. In 1979 the commission received for the first time a conference allocation sufficient for underwriting a minimum program.

2. The commission has offered its members and friends training for carrying out the disciplinary mandate. They have participated in training events in Nashville, Dallas, Athens, Al., and Evanston, Illinois. In addition, Nancy Grissom Self of the staff of the General Commission on the Status and Role of Women led a one-day workshop for the Alabama-West Florida commission at Evergreen, Alabama, on August 26, 1978.

3. The commission has sought to involve many people in the conference in reflection on its disciplinary mandate. It has promoted the study of women and the Bible. It has presented its concerns at Annual Conference in four breakfast meetings with women delegates and other women attending the conference. Each time about 100 women have attended. It has spoken to the whole Annual Conference sessions about its concerns through oral reports using mimes, poetry, ventriloquism, and drama. It has mailed 12 issues of the general commission's newsletter, The Flyer, to 60 conference leaders.

4. The commission has served as an advocate of women's fuller participation in several conference organizations and events. It originated a proposal for changing the conference standing rule on the membership of the conference Committee on Nominations to include the nine district presidents of United Methodist Women. It urged local churches to invite women to preach on Laity Sunday and to observe at least one "Woman in the Pulpit" Sunday each year to affirm the right and the responsibility of lay and clergy women to participate in the preaching of the gospel. Its liaison with the Board of Managers of the Pastors' Assembly has encouraged the inclusion of clergywomen in that group. It served as an advocate for the clergywomen of the conference in obtaining continuing education funds from the conference Board of Ordained Ministry to attend the Second Consultation of Clergywomen at Dallas in January, 1979. In preparation for the 1980 Annual Conference the commission chairperson met with Bishop Sanders in July, 1979, to request that he invite a nationally known and outstanding clergywoman to preach. At the bishop's request a list of potential preachers was submitted to him, including the Rev. Leontyne Kelly from Richmond, Virginia, the Rev. Rosemary Brown from Nashville, Tennessee, the Rev. Janice Riggle Huie from Austin, Texas, Dr. Elizabeth Lopez Spence from Cedar Crest, New Mexico, and the Rev. Jeanne Audrey Powers from New York, New York. In 1979 the commission also encouraged the participation of women delegates to Annual Conference in the first district laity caucuses for nomination of General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates. At its Annual Conference breakfast in 1979 it introduced the women who had been nominated, distributed a chart on the election of women from the conference since 1940, and discussed procedures for supporting women in the elections then in process for the 1980 General/Jurisdictional Conferences.

In preparation for its work in 1980-84 the commission has made cooperation with and support of the Conference Clergywomen's Task Force one of its priorities. It also anticipates further opportunities to work with other conference agencies, including Huntingdon College, in pursuing common goals. With the intention of making the transition from this quadrennium to the next as smooth and creative as possible the present commission has scheduled a workshop for the new commission at Conference Headquarters, Andalusia, Al., on Saturday, August 23, 1980, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m., to be led by Everett Barnes, Marie K. Clark, and Norma Taylor Mitchell. This workshop will be designed to help the new group appropriate the experience gained in this quadrennium. Additionally, the present commission will deposit the minutes of its meetings and other important records of its work in the Conference Depository at Huntingdon College.

The experience of the commission in this quadrennium has dispelled any easy optimism that the deeply-rooted habits of discrimination against women in the life of The United Methodist Church can be quickly or painlessly discarded. At the same time the 1976-80 commission ends the quadrennium with a firm commitment to its disciplinary task, conscious that it is God who is calling the Church to repentance and redemption in its attitudes and practices with regard to women.

Respectfully submitted,
Norma Taylor Mitchell, Chairperson

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Ethnic Minority Local Church Priority in The United Methodist Church, 1980.

II Kings 10:15: "Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thine heart . . . if it be, give me thine hand." Certainly in some quarters there is a recognition of a marvelous opportunity to enrich the life, witness and work of United Methodism by strengthening the ethnic minority local church. We cannot trust the general order of the life of our conference to do the special things which must be done. Many of the services and skills for the ethnic minority local church will have to be designed to meet these special needs. That is, the ethnic minority church can only meet the challenges it faces with the proper planning, implementation and financial upgrading of the total conference — providing the resources to enable the ethnic minority church to meet the needs I hope to identify. The problems that are being addressed in this conference are:

1. Recruitment
2. Church extension (parsonages)
3. Salary supplement — over and above the equitable salary scales
4. Evangelism — Massive unreached population
5. Outreach ministries
6. Christian education
7. More training for leadership
8. Change of appointment of black ministers for new life, new leadership to the ethnic minority local church
9. Black ministries' members of the conference Council on Ministries

There may not be needs in some areas, I think. We simply have to face the fact that there are needs which must be responded to — the strengthening of the ethnic minority local church with some directions. The above mentioned is all essentially summarized in mission.

The Commission on Religion and Race has already emphasized the needs of the ethnic minority local church — "Specialized training to meet specific needs, better leadership in local churches, establishing new churches, and responding to those in need." This, of course, has been under way.

This report will conclude with the following resolution to be adopted:

RESOLUTION

1. The ministers of the local church assist ethnic churches in developing and implementing meaningful training programs for children, youth, young adults and older adults in need of strengthening the local church.
2. Be it resolved that the local church with adequate membership, financial support, and the potential be consolidated for full-time ministries.
3. Be it resolved that two or more local churches of the same charge organize the Youth Council on Ministries to train black youth of the Methodist churches.
4. Be it resolved that the Council on Ministries give support to the needs of the ethnic minority local church through specialized training to meet specific needs to strengthen the local church.

Respectfully submitted,
Martin L. Goodson, Chairperson

ADDENDUM

The Commission on Religion and Race shall develop specific plans and programs to implement this report, reporting these to the fall meeting of the Council on Ministries so that specific plans may be developed for districts and local churches to carry through on the implementation of these recommendations.

ALABAMA-WEST FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

The foundation was authorized at the Annual Conference in May, 1978. During the rest of that year, 36 lay directors pledged financial support to assure operations for the first five years, and were joined by the nine district superintendents on the board. The organizational meeting was held January 11, 1979, at which time Harry P. Hall was elected President, Edward J. Woods, Vice President, and James Y. Carroll, Secretary-Treasurer, and subsequently, Mrs.

Dorothy Mahaffey, C.H. (Babe) McGehee, K.T. Riley, and Rev. Lester H. Spencer were nominated to serve with the three officers as the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee was directed by the directors to fill the position of Executive Vice President and to locate the offices. The committee subsequently decided upon Bishop Carl J. Sanders as Executive Vice President and Dothan was chosen as the location for the office. With the help of a $5,000.00 contribution from the First United Methodist Church of Dothan and numerous substantial gifts of furniture, the office opened June 11, 1979, in a comparatively modern 25'X75' building in downtown Dothan.

Solicitation of deposits from churches, commissions, and districts, the establishment of special funds and giving through wills was begun.

Today we have the following deposits:

First United Methodist, Dothan, AL	$6,000.00
First United Methodist, Montgomery, AL	5,000.00
Brundidge Penny Endowment Fund	2,416.00
Lafayette St. UMC, Dothan, AL	1,000.00
First United Methodist Church, Clanton, AL	10,000.00
Aldersgate United Methodist, Molino, FL	3,052.50
First United Methodist, Bay Minette, AL	10,175.00
Ashland Place United Methodist, Mobile, AL	2,000.00
First United Methodist, Eufaula, AL	1,000.00
Brundidge Special Funds	7,821.59
First United Methodist, Geneva, AL	2,000.00
Grimes United Methodist, Grimes, AL	8,300.00
First United Methodist, Atmore, AL	1,000.00
First United Methodist, Slocomb, AL	2,500.00
Commission on Finance and Administration	103,500.00
Board of Pension, Homes for Claimants	25,000.00
Pensacola District	3,000.00
Dothan District	2,000.00
Total	$195,765.09

During the nine months we have made the following loans to churches:

(1) $3,500 to the St. Paul United Methodist Church (Montgomery District) for needed repairs at 8% interest, whereas their usual source asked 14½%;

(2) $9,000 to the Pepperell United Methodist Church, Opelika, at 9¼% interest, to apply aluminum siding to the church's exterior because of damage to new paint from the effluent of a nearby mill;

(3) $15,000 to Grace United Methodist Church, Auburn, at 9½% interest, to help buy a new parsonage; and

(4) we are now in the process of making a $10,000 loan to help build a new $35,000 Fellowship Hall for Tabernacle United Methodist Church (Dothan District), at 9½% interest.

We have four established funds, and all of them together will begin, next year, generating annual contributions of $308.55 to the Children's Home, $463.91 to the Board of Pensions and Homes For Claimants, $65.32 to Candler School of Theology, $65.32 to Wesley Manor, $65.32 to Huntingdon College, $65.32 to the Bishop's Convocation on Preaching, and $65.32 to UMCOR's Feed-the-Hungry program. In each fund 25% of the interest income will be retained assuring future growth, plus the fact that additional contributions are likely in each case.

The wills of one couple naming the foundation as executor have already been recorded and filed with us. The wills of another couple are now being completed by their attorney. The wills name the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants and Wesley Manor as beneficiaries.

The Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling decided to place the $35,000 T.L. Butts Endowment Fund with the foundation for management and it was promptly reinvested at 2% higher yield.

Officers elected for the year 1980 were Harry P. Hall, President, K.T. Riley, Vice President, James Y. Carroll, Secretary-Treasurer, and C.H. McGehee, Rev. Lester Spencer, and Foy Campbell, additional members of the Executive Committee. The board unanimously requested the presentation to the Annual Conference the following people for election to new terms as directors of the foundation:

James C. Bledsoe
 Dr. Ben R. Byrd
 Foy Campbell
 James Y. Carroll
 A. Preston Hood
 Alto V. Lee, III
 Clyde P. Mahaffey
 Cecil C. Spears, Jr.
 Albert M. Thompson

We have made a beginning, very slow to be sure, but a beginning. Dr. R.C. Holmes, for many years the inspired director of the Florida foundation, told our January board meeting that our beginning was better than theirs for the first year. That is a little comfort, but the greatest comfort the directors of your foundation now seek can best be expressed by a deluge of deposits from our churches so that our work can continue.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES PROGRAM PRIORITIES FOR 1981

The conference Council on Ministries has adopted, after recommendation of the Research and Planning Committee, the following report:

We lift these up as priorities for 1981. We feel that they are of equal importance and encourage their implementation in local churches, districts, and the conference.

I. Begin planning for the Bicentennial of United Methodist Church in 1984.

II. We encourage as soon as possible all United Methodist properties be made accessible and facilities provided for the elderly and handicapped.

III. We encourage the Boards of the Laity, Education, and Evangelism to work together in training laity in their job responsibility and total ministry of laity.

IV. A. Education:

(1) Emphasis on ministry to and with older adults, pre-school children and families.

(2) Sunday School emphasis on attendance and enrollment through (2) two rally days. These rally days to be held National Family Week (May) and Christian Education Week (September).

The training of teachers of all age levels by continuing the "Teaching Yourself To Teach" program and a Sunday School Weekend.

(3) Leader development through training of local church Committees on Nominations and Personnel in cluster and district workshops.

B. Evangelism:

To meet our share of the General Conference goal of one million new members by 1984, we need to receive a minimum of 1,600 new members each year. To continue to reach the goal of ten (10) new churches by 1984, adopted in 1979, we need a minimum of two (2) new churches.

C. Health and Welfare Ministries:

Promote support to our Children's Home programs and Homes for the Aging. Special emphasis on Mother's Day offering to go to Wesley Manor, Dothan, and Golden Cross.

D. Higher Education and Campus Ministry:

To support our children away from home, we encourage a greater support of the Wesley Foundations at the University of South Alabama, Troy, Livingston, Marion, Pensacola, and Auburn, and our church colleges.

E. Missions:

(1) We encourage all churches to become Four Star Mission churches by accepting and paying World Service in full and contributing to the four areas of Advance giving.

(2) Encourage all United Methodist families to become members of the Ten Dollar Club, thereby providing for new church growth and church expansion.

F. Town and Country Work:

Continue to train new ministers through the "Minister's Workshop"; assist in developing programs for small membership churches. Provide information to ministers of resources available (services, training, planning and programming).

PROCESS FOR PLANNING FOR MINISTRY

The conference Council on Ministries again suggests the following guides to all boards and agencies in their projection, implementation and evaluation of their programs:

June-July, 1980 — Implementation and evaluation of 1980 program. Projection of plans for 1981.

Fall, 1980 — Meeting of conference Council on Ministries.

September-October, 1980 — Meeting of conference staff with district Councils on Ministries to evaluate and to develop program plans for 1981.

Committee on Research and Planning for the conference Council on Ministries gather needs and develop its recommendations for programming for 1982.

November-December, 1980 — All boards and agencies to meet:

a. Develop program and fund requests for 1982.

b. Check details for implementation for 1981.

c. Develop process for reports to Annual Conference.

d. On-going board business.

January, 1981 — Coordinating Committee of conference Council on Ministries to meet:

a. Coordinate program and fund requests recommended by boards and agencies for 1982.

Review all conference programs and finances to be presented to Council on Finance and Administration for evaluation and ultimate recommendation to the Annual Conference for adoption.

Spring, 1981 — Meeting of the Council on Finance and Administration to hear requests from conference Council on Ministries and other agencies and finalize reports to Annual Conference.

March, 1981 — Meeting of executive committees of boards and agencies as needed to finalize reports to Annual Conference.

June, 1981 — Meeting of full boards and agencies at Annual Conference — as needed.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

In October, 1979, Dr. George Hunter, Dr. Ray Sells, Dr. William Ellington, and the Rev. Don Crandall, from the Board of Discipleship in Nashville, came to Blue Lake for a five-day School of Evangelism. More than one hundred fifty persons registered for the school. Because of the extensive damage done on the Gulf Coast by Hurricane Frederic just prior to the school, some persons were unable to attend. This school turned out to be one of the finest training events ever sponsored by our board. On March 18, 1980, Dr. Sells and Dr. Ellington returned to our conference for a one-day follow-up on the school.

The next training event will be October 21-22, 1980, when Dr. Carl George, from the Department of Church Growth, Fuller Theological Seminary, will be the resource leader. This will be a two-day workshop. He will share with pastors and lay persons a program on "Spiritual Gifts" having to do with how we may help our people find their spiritual gifts and put them to work in the local church. The board will underwrite the cost of this event, except for materials to be purchased by each participant.

During the past year, the Alabama-West Florida Conference had a net gain of more than 1,200 members, making our Annual Conference one of the leaders in the entire United Methodist Church. The general church has set a goal of 1,000,000 new members by 1984. Our share of that goal is a net gain of 1,600 members each year. This certainly is not an unattainable goal for 729 churches, or 424 charges.

The 1979 Annual Conference, on recommendation of this board, voted to set a goal of establishing 10 new churches by December of 1984. One new church has been started in the Dothan District and one in the Mobile District. We commend these two districts and the superintendents for setting the pace in this long-overdue project. We urge each district superintendent to make a study of the possibility and need for starting a new church within the district.

Once again we lift up to this Annual Conference the need for more funds to be made available to new churches and congregations through church extension. We believe it is possible for this Annual Conference to provide thousands of dollars in aid to new congregations, making it possible for the new churches to move forward without being severely handicapped and without penalizing the pastor financially.

It is the feeling of this board that our most critical need in the area of church growth and evangelism is a continued emphasis upon the training and motivation of both clergy and laity in the reason for evangelism, as well as the how-to aspect. We feel that district programs should be used more in order to get the training events closer to the local church where more of the laity can attend. The Board of Evangelism is making two hundred dollars available to each district for one such training event during 1980.

A second recommendation to the district superintendents is the use of conference preachers for a saturation event within one district at a time, with special emphasis upon making the smaller churches stronger through a combined every-member visitation-preaching event.

We commend the work done by the Committee on Sunday School and Mark Stewart of the conference staff in the efforts to strengthen our Sunday School program. We urge every pastor to take full advantage of all available resources to help the local church develop a stronger Sunday School.

Early in the year our board urged all district superintendents to enlist at least one pastor from their districts to attend the 1980 Week of Evangelism at Lake Junaluska, August 4-8. Each year this board makes funds available to send to Junaluska the district secretary of evangelism from each of the nine districts. Resource leaders this year will be Bishop Carl Sanders, Dr. Alan Walker, and Dr. Wallace Chappell. Dr. John Ed Mathison will lead a workshop on "Evangelism through the Sunday School."

During the coming quadrennium, the Board of Evangelism pledges to continue to provide training experience for our clergy and laity that will provide both motivation and skills training to help all our people become better equipped to do the work of ministry.

This board salutes Bishop Carl J. Sanders for his unwavering support of the cause of evangelism in this episcopal area and throughout The United Methodist Church. Bishop Sanders, from the time of his election to the episcopacy, has given a high priority to evangelism, and the results are apparent in our Annual Conference.

During the past decade The United Methodist Church has given a low priority to evangelism and church growth. As a direct result our Church has continued to show a loss in membership. Even now, with evangelism as one of three missional priorities, the Church is not providing for adequate support of the work of evangelism through the Board of Discipleship. Many pastors and congregations are unaware that World Service Specials may be given to further the cause of evangelism. Send gifts to the conference treasurer, marked "World Service Special — Foundation for Evangelism." Priority will be given to endowing chairs of evangelism in schools where they do not exist and to offering more training in annual conferences.

BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The purpose of the Board of Church and Society is to relate the gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of the church and to the persons and structures of the communities and world in which they live. We proclaim the Lordship of Christ over the whole life of man and woman, their activities, possessions, and community and world relationships. We seek to demonstrate to all persons that the reconciliation which God effected through Christ involves personal, social, and civic righteousness. We affirm our belief that the gospel relates to the total needs of persons and we try to plan the programs of the board in the context of this understanding. Through a process of research, education, and action the Board of Church and Society seeks to implement its purpose.

The Board of Church and Society has held two meetings since last Annual Conference. We helped subsidize and participated in the planning of the Conference School of Christian Mission held last summer at Blue Lake. Several of our board members attended a jurisdictional training event for church and society leaders at Lake Junaluska in July. One of our concerns this year has been to provide information on the theme, "The Church in Society." Materials provided on this emphasis included "Register Citizen Opinion," the "Christian and Political Responsibility," "Drug and Alcohol" concerns brochure, and "The Roots of Our Social Vision." The Impact organization and network has continued to be of vital interest to our board also.

As the Board of Church and Society, we have several on-going concerns. One of these is to communicate the programs and priorities of our board to the local church level. We want to emphasize the need for Christian involvement in the political and legislative arena. To do this we support the Impact organization, an interreligious organization seeking to bring the gospel to bear on various issues in the context of the legislative process. We have a board member serving on the Impact governing board. We are purchasing informative filmstrips on Impact for each district and the conference audio visual library. This will hopefully aid in getting the word on Impact to each local church. We urge that each local church chairperson of Christian Social Concerns join the Impact organization. Another concern of our board is training for leaders in the area of church and society. We feel that more and better work is done when board members, district directors, and local church leaders avail themselves of training opportunities at the jurisdictional, conference, and district level. Another vital area of interest to our board is the Conference School of Christian Mission, which we help subsidize and plan. This cooperative effort of the Board of Church and Society, the Board of Missions, and the United Methodist Women is one of the most significant learning events offered in this conference. This is an excellent opportunity for anyone, but we particularly urge each minister and each local church chairperson of Christian Social Concerns to attend. We continue our cooperation and work with other committees such as the Task Force on World Hunger and the Ethnic Minority Enablement Task Force, as well as the School of Missions committee and Impact network.

As we look to 1981 we are concerned with providing up-to-date information on pertinent social issues. We are planning to provide regular mailings to local churches on current legislation relating to a number of issues. Also, we are planning to purchase a film dealing with a current issue to be placed in the conference audio visual library. In addition, a church and society packet will be developed for district directors and local church Christian Social Concerns chairpersons. Furthermore, there will be a two day training event in early 1981 for new board member orientation to the work of the Board of Church and Society and to make plans for the new quadrennium. The context in which the Board of Church and Society does its work is the "Social Principles." Informed United Methodists make better United Methodists. Thus we voice our support and urge United Methodists across the conference to support and study the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

R. Neil McDavid, Chairman

BLUE LAKE CAMP

The Blue Lake ministry is an ever growing ministry. Blue Lake serves many churches and groups, furnishing facilities that are delightful and adequate. The wilderness setting of these camps is a source of joy to many persons. During the past year over 191 different groups used Blue Lake for their programs. There were 35 local United Methodist Churches, 92 conference and district groups, and 64 non-United Methodist groups served by your assembly ground. These groups represent a total of 33,829 "camper days."

The policy of Blue Lake concerning reservations is as it has been for many years. Conference boards and agencies, and district and local churches are urged to schedule their retreats and events early. When groups are small an effort is made to schedule more than one group at Oakwood in order to accommodate more groups. Non-conference groups may reserve the facilities if no Annual Conference group has reserved a date ten months in advance of the desired date. Methodist boards, agencies and local churches in the conference have until October first to schedule their activities for the three months of June, July and August. After the first of October, non-conference groups will be scheduled if dates in the summer are available.

The rates for Blue Lake are as follows: Methodist groups within the Annual Conference: $13.00 per person, per day at Oakwood Lodge. $11.00 per person per day at Pinewood and Dogwood camps. These rates include one night's lodging and three meals.

The Blue Lake Fund apportioned to the local churches is essential to the operation of the camp. Inflation is still a way of life at the lake and without the help of the local churches your assembly ground cannot make its way. There is also an ever increasing demand for added services. Your support is essential. Even more important is your support by "coming to Blue Lake for a visit." Every effort will be made to make your stay one of great meaning.

The continued support of the United Methodist Women of the Alabama-West Florida Conference is greatly appreciated. The U.M.W. has always dreamed of an ever increasing ministry of the assembly ground to the people of the Annual Conference and beyond.

The financial report for 1979 may be found in the Journal in the division containing other financial reports.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The members of the Board of Education — especially the chairpersons of the committees — deserve our deepest appreciation for setting the goals, fulfilling the purposes, and doing the work of the educational program of the conference. And the conference staff has been most cooperative in meeting its responsibilities to the board. Under the leadership of Rev. Everett Barnes, Mrs. Carolyn Cumbie, Rev. Buddy Capps, Mr. Mark Stewart, the program of education has made strides which would make any conference proud. The work of the Board of Education has been fulfilling and challenging, and it has been a delightful means of service to the Church during these last four years.

COMMITTEE ON ADULT MINISTRIES

The Committee on Adult Ministries has been involved in some intensive planning that will carry us into and through the 80-84 quadrennium. We challenge every church to concentrate on their adult ministries and to engage the district Committee on Adult Ministries to assist in developing programs.

The Committee on Young Adult Ministries (COYAM) is functioning with a conference-wide organization. Two retreats have been experienced at Blue Lake (Spiritual Life and Personal Growth) with another retreat planned for June 20-22, 1980. Young adult ministries is responsible for a wide arena of situations and life styles demanding specialization in activities. We recommend the establishing of a Chairperson of Young Adult Ministries to develop these potentials.

Being made aware of the increasing number of older citizens, the Committee on Adult Ministries has prepared some exciting plans in this area. Plans include developing resources and individuals that are certified older adult lab leaders so that effective programs will be developed. Three potential older adult leaders are scheduled to participate in the Southeastern Jurisdiction workshops this summer and fall at Lake Junaluska and St. Simons. Utilizing the district Committees on Adult Ministries, we hope to be creative and challenging as we develop older adult workers throughout the conference.

The Committee on Adult Ministries has established some action goals and time lines for older adult ministries.

We recommend:

(1) That the Board of Education elect (appoint) an Adult Committee within the board to represent the three specific areas — a. Young Adult, b. Middle Adult, and c. Older Adult.

(2) That the district Council on Ministries give high priority to the three areas of adult ministries as they are listed above in no. 1.

(3) That each local church seek to discover new and creative programs in each of the three areas of adult ministries.

(4) Consider utilizing the coordinator of adult ministries as the leadership development chairperson and to be co-chairperson of the Committee on Nominations and Personnel.

(5) Be aware of the needs of the handicapped individual, remembering that many of the older adults find themselves in this category, and that our church facilities are not adequately constructed to meet their needs.

(6) That the District Committee on Church Location and Building insist that all new construction and renovations provide for the handicapped in all facilities.

Curtis S. Ford, Chairman

COUNCIL ON YOUNG ADULT MINISTRIES (COYAM)

Under the mentorship of the Rev. Curtis S. Ford, Chairman of the Committee on Adult Ministries and Mrs. Carolyn Cumbie, Coordinator of Adult Ministries, the Council on Young Adult Ministries (COYAM) has had an active and productive year as an advocate for and facilitator of ministry with and for young adults. In the past year COYAM has sponsored two retreats for young adults and will sponsor a third retreat at Oakwood Lodge, Blue Lake, on June 20-22, 1980. The first retreat on June 22-24, 1979, was led by Dr. William Mallard, Professor of Theology, Candler School of Theology, Emory University, that had a spiritual growth emphasis. The second retreat held January 18-20, 1980, was led by Dr. Bryce Kramer, a well-known leader in personal growth. Both retreats were well attended and have served as a building block for continuing ministry for young adults in the local church. COYAM most recently met on March 15-16, 1980, and has planned many future events in ministry for young adults. Representatives from the council went to the SEJ Young Adult Coordinating Committee meetings on October 19-20, 1979, and May 23-24, 1980.

At the September meeting of COYAM, a purpose for its existence was resolved: "The purpose of Young Adult Ministries in the Alabama-West Florida Conference is to provide opportunities for and to motivate Young Adults to growing in the Christian faith through service and fellowship realizing that Jesus, himself, performed his earthly ministry as a young adult."

During this same meeting five (5) long range goals were set to achieve the purpose of COYAM. These goals are:

- (1) To provide ministries for the changing needs of the individual young adult.
- (2) To provide for a point of contact between young adults of varying ages and interests.
- (3) To enable young adults to become involved in the life of the church and to strengthen their faith.
- (4) To enable the church to become increasingly aware of young adults as responsible leaders in The United Methodist Church.
- (5) To be the Body of Christ in the world through missions, outreach, and service.

The Council on Young Adult Ministries is a new conference-wide structure that actively solicits your support.

Danny Cartwright, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON CAMPING

The camping season of 1979 was a banner summer in the conference program. 1,088 boys and girls experienced Christian living in the outdoor education program under the auspices of our committee. In the area of eight elementary camps there were 630 rising fourth, fifth, and sixth graders. The junior high section experienced 219 youth in four camps. The Elementary Choir Camp was held for the first time in 1979, and also the Youth Adventures through the Bible. Both camps were very successful and will be continued in the summer of 1980. In the senior high and mid-high agencies, 167 young people participated.

The Camp Discovery, 4-L Camp, and Sunshine Camp operated at near capacity again during this year.

Not only was the participation a source of delight but the program offered was an outstanding one. We express our appreciation to the volunteer staff personnel and to the program staff at conference headquarters for their leadership in the program of Christian education in the out-of-doors. We are deeply grateful to the district superintendents for their encouragement and support of the camping program.

As we go home from this session of the Annual Conference:

(1) Promote the 1980 camping program in your local church. We urge each church to inaugurate a scholarship program to assist their children and youth in attending one of the camps. Assist the minister and staff person to distribute camping materials to the proper age group.

(2) Assist us in soliciting scholarships for our special ministries camps — 4-L, Sunshine, and Camp Discovery. Thirty-five dollars ($35.00) will send a child to one of these camps. We urge you to challenge your Church School classes, United Methodist Women and men's clubs to sponsor one or more of these youth in the summer program. Remit funds to Mr. Art Copper, Box 700, Andalusia, AL 36420, marked "Special Ministries Camping Fund."

Linwood Lewis, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

During 1979 the Committee on Children's Ministries has met regularly to plan and implement a program that would be beneficial to the children of our conference. This committee is composed of the nine (9) district coordinators of children's ministries and the certified lab leaders in children's ministries within the bounds of our conference. They have planned well and worked hard.

As always an emphasis has been placed on working with children in the Sunday School. During the first part of 1979, four "Here's How" workshops in the use of media with children were held in clusters around our conference. These were co-sponsored and co-conducted with the United Methodist Communications area office. These workshops were designed to provide practical experience and training to workers with children in the process of making visuals, audios, and using media equipment, including all types of projectors.

The conference coordinator of children's ministries has conducted approximately twenty-four (24) workshops with workers with children and children's Sunday School teachers. These workshops were on local church, cluster and district levels. Workshops varied in length from two (2) hours to three (3) nights. Assistance to workers with children is available through the conference office by the conference coordinator as well as district coordinators. Local churches are urged to request needed assistance which will be provided as can be scheduled.

The first ever National Conference on Children's Ministries was held during 1979 in Nashville, Tennessee. Approximately fifteen (15) persons from the bounds of our conference attended, receiving exciting information and helps on working with children as well as the ministry of children.

The 1979 children's camping season built on the success of the 1978 program. It has to be one of the best seasons ever, as seven (7) camps were scheduled but all spaces had been filled by June 22. An eighth camp was "sandwiched" into the schedule at the end of the summer to accommodate a waiting list of approximately 70 campers. Children's ministries also worked with the special ministries camps for retarded (4-L Camp) and the very first camp for deaf children (Bell Camp). The first Elementary Choir Camp to ever be held came off as a very successful cooperative effort with the Futures Committee. The summer of 1980 contains eight (8) regular children's camps, Elementary Choir Camp, 4—L Camp, Bell Camp, and Camp Discovery, all of which are designed to meet the various needs of children.

This committee also lobbied with the Alabama State Legislature to defeat bills which would remove church sponsored day care centers from meeting state licensing requirements. The committee feels for the sake of children that all day care centers should at least meet minimum state licensing requirements, but church centers should go on to greater efforts for the welfare of children.

1980 got off to a start with twelve (12) cluster conferences on "Children and Their Beliefs." These were conducted by Dr. Carrie Lou Goddard, Professor Emeritus of Scarritt College in Nashville. The future plans of this committee include workshops on weekday ministries with children and training for children's Sunday School teachers in the various skills of teaching.

This committee encourages all local churches to have a Vacation Church School during the summer. A guide book has been prepared and additional copies are available for distribution to assist local church VCS directors in planning and conducting a VCS. This guide book is entitled "Let's Have A Vacation Church School" and contains resources for teachers as well as other helpful information.

Respectfully submitted,
Jack Holland, Chairman

Mark Stewart, Conference Coordinator

FUTURES COMMITTEE

The Futures Committee continues to propose experimental ministries that will speak to certain needs within our conference.

During 1979, we sponsored the Elementary Choir Camp as well as the camp for the deaf in August. In February, 1980, we sponsored a Chancel Drama Workshop with Dr. James Warren from Scarritt College, Nashville, Tennessee. Fifty persons from across our conference participated in learning skills pertaining to drama within the church. We were very pleased with the response for this workshop.

Our Bishop's Confirmation Rally, scheduled for March, was postponed due to the illness of the bishop.

Our plans for 1981 include an "Anthem Reading Session" as a pilot project in one district which will help persons of small churches become familiar with a wide variety of anthems.

Other goals include: backpacking for the youth area, continuing to sponsor the camp for the deaf, and the Bishop's Confirmation Rally.

Committee members are open to ideas from members of our conference on new avenues of experimental ministry.

Nancy Pugh, Chairperson

LEADER DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Leader Development Committee of the Board of Education has had a busy year with primary focus in two areas — Young Adult Ministries with the Committee on Adult Ministries, and a long range program of training every local church in the role and function of the Committee on Nominations and Personnel. The District Coordinators of Adult Ministries in each district have committed themselves to this task and workshops have been held in Mobile, Pensacola, and Troy Districts. A Death Awareness Seminar once again proved to be one of the most requested and well attended events of the conference year. Officer training at the local church level is still a priority and Council on Ministries training remains the most requested training event in the local church. Work has begun on training leaders for older adult ministries in the new quadrennium.

Carolyn Cumbie, Chairperson

SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Since last Annual Conference, the Sunday School Committee has been working to implement our "Five-Year Plan" for training Sunday School teachers in our conference. Our progress is as follows:

(1) In September, 1979, persons from each district were trained as workshop leaders for local churches requesting teacher training. RESULTS: 50 persons, representing all districts are now trained in our resource, "Teaching Yourself to Teach." These persons are available for local church teacher training.

(2) Sunday School teacher training workshops have been held in numerous local churches this past year. A local church requests this training by contacting the District Coordinator of Education.

(3) Celebration of the Sunday School Bicentennial Anniversary at this Annual Conference will include:

(a) A Sunday School Rally on Sunday Afternoon, May 25, 4:30-6:00 p.m., in the Delchamps Student Center and an address by the outstanding Christian Educator, Dr. Richard Murray, of the Perkins School of Theology.

(b) A "Time Line" charting the development of the Sunday School will be displayed.

(c) A booklet of ideas for strengthening local church Sunday Schools will be distributed.

(d) Sunday School memorabilia will be displayed in the coffee shop of the student center.

(e) A variety of posters and other art work on this theme will be displayed.

(4) A task force is designing models for two local church Sunday School "Rally Days" each year. These days could coincide with National Family Week in May and Christian Education Week in September.

(5) A delegation from our committee will attend the annual Sunday School Weekend at Leesburg, Florida, September, 1980. This successful conference provides workshops in Sunday School curriculum, objectives, teacher qualifications and overall church school cultivation. We will develop a proposal for such an experience in our conference in the spring or fall of 1981.

(6) An Adult Education Sub-Committee has been formed to study Sunday School curriculum, objectives, and teacher qualifications for that age level.

Our task is to help strengthen local church Sunday Schools within our conference. It is toward that end that we labor.

R. Lawson Bryan, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRYREPORT NO. 1

Your committee has continued to work this year to strengthen the area of campus ministry through the six Wesley Foundations and in its effort toward a stronger and more equitable program of support for our two colleges. We are encouraged at the renewed interest and progress being made in the Wesley Foundation programs at Auburn, Troy, and South Alabama with more and more students being reached and with the new working relationships between the local churches and the foundations in these communities. Meetings have been held in the spring to attempt the organization of Wesley Foundation work at Auburn University in Montgomery. We commend all our directors for the time they reported spent in many personal contacts and hours of counseling with the students which do not reflect in the statistical report. We are happy to report that we are in the process of moving from a part-time director at South Alabama to a half-time director. We hope for the day to come soon when we can provide adequate facilities and a full-time director there. We are glad to see a continual increase from the local churches in support of the Wesley Foundation Fund but, if we are to carry on the programs we hope to in this area, it will take all our churches accepting and paying in full their askings. Until more funds come forth to undergird these programs we will be greatly hindered in our efforts in campus ministry.

The area task force dealing with our two colleges has met and continues its efforts to work with the issues of mutual concern relating to the colleges. We have seen good progress made in this area during this quadrennium and expect even greater cooperation and understanding in the next quadrennium. More and more people of both conferences are becoming aware of the needs of our colleges and are lending their support. Evidence of this is seen in the two highly successful scholarship fund campaigns and in the increased giving through the regular apportionments for the two colleges.

We continue to be encouraged by the increased support to the Higher Education Fund but we are still falling far short of our total asking. Again we urge all churches to accept in full and pay their askings for this fund. It is vital to the programs of Birmingham-Southern and Huntingdon College for operation and scholarship funds that we meet our responsibility to these two excellent institutions. We recommend that the Huntingdon-Birmingham Southern Fund be in an amount equal to $2.75 per member for a conference total of $356,144 to be apportioned on the decimal formula with the division of all monies received in the apportionments from the local churches to the Huntingdon Birmingham-Southern College Fund in 1981 to be divided as follows: Ninety percent (90%) for Huntingdon College and ten percent (10%) for Birmingham-Southern College. We encourage local churches and our people to join in observing Huntingdon College's Founder's Day each year in February and to place in their budgets or raise by special offerings or individual gifts as many $500 Youth Education Scholarships as possible for needy and deserving students who desire to attend Huntingdon College but cannot unless aid is offered.

Our people are urged to continue and increase their support of the Black College Fund. This fund provides continuous methodical support for twelve (12) black colleges historically related to The United Methodist Church.

We call upon our people to observe Methodist Student Day with a special emphasis in the local churches and to receive a love offering to support the Student Scholarship and Loan Fund. A number of students from this conference have benefited from the fund in the past and several are at present receiving aid through it.

As you can see the need for support from our people in the area of higher education and campus ministry is great. Tremendous challenges and responsibilities continue to face us in the days ahead as our conference seeks to meet the needs and demands in this area. We must give priority to these matters if our young people in the colleges are to come back into our communities and be leaders in local United Methodist churches.

Your committee will continue to work diligently to help improve the programs of campus ministry and to meet the needs of our church colleges. We seek your advice and support.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank L. Scott, Chairman

BOARD OF PENSIONS AND HOMES FOR CLAIMANTSREPORT NO. 1*PENSION RATES AND APPORTIONMENTS

We recommend that the total annuity rate of this Annual Conference for the calendar year 1981 be one hundred three dollars ($103.00) per service year for service as ministerial members and approved lay pastors with pension credit; the total rate for widows be seventy-two dollars and ten cents ($72.10), provided that for ministers, lay pastors, and widows who are provided homes by the conference the annual pension amounts shall be adjusted by a reduction equivalent to twelve dollars ($12.00) for ministers and lay pastors and eight dollars and forty cents ($8.40) for widows for each year of service as a supply or lay pastor with pension credit and for each year with pension credit as a minister in any Annual Conference or under special appointment as a minister without pension credit on the Annual Conference.

We recommend that the payment from pension funds of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) be contributed toward funeral expenses of each widow who is a claimant of the Annual Conference, such payment to be made as soon as possible after the death of the widow.

We recommend that the apportionment to the pastoral charges for the pensions and benefit program of the conference shall be $940,000.00 for the calendar year 1981.

We call attention to paragraph 1706.4a of the 1976 Discipline relative to the requirement that the apportionment for the pensions and benefit programs to be paid in proportion to payments of salaries to ministers and also to the board's policy of charging defaults to ministers and associate ministers for deduction from pensions if not otherwise paid. Interest is added to other unpaid obligations of the minister at the rate of 7% per annum.

REPORT NO. 2RESERVE FUNDING OF PENSIONS

We recommend that the resolution designated as Report Number 1, page 161 of the 1969 conference Journal and subsequent amendments, recorded on page 154 of the 1972 Journal and page 135 of the 1973 Journal shall be further amended to provide that, effective with the deposit due December 31, 1980, the level annual deposit for the purpose of funding pensions through the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund shall be $459,000.00; such adjustment being required to provide for the increase in pension rates to $103.00 per service year.

REPORT NO. 3DEATH BENEFIT PROGRAM

We recommend the continuation of the Alabama-West Florida Conference in the Death Benefit Program, Plan C, with the cost and benefits for each calendar year being determined by the latest average salary computed prior to the beginning of each year (average salary of $14,628.00 for 1980).

We recommend that, as a part of the conference pension and benefit program, all persons in the following categories of this Annual Conference be continued in the Death Benefit Program and that newly eligible persons be enrolled as of the closing dates of the Annual Conference session, and that they be asked to fill out and submit enrollment application cards:

1. Ministerial members — associate, probationary, and in full connection — who are appointed with pension credit on this conference, except those who are appointed to attend school and not appointed to a pastoral charge in this conference.

2. Approved lay pastors listed in the conference minutes as eligible to be appointed, as in the full-time category and receiving appointments in the conference session, or within a 21 day period, beginning with the opening day of a regular annual session of the conference, who are not gainfully employed in non-pastoral work and not attending school as a full-time student.

3. Ministerial members on disability leave and receiving disability benefits on account of service in this conference, ministerial members on sabbatical leave and lay pastors receiving disability benefits.

4. Any lay person employed as associate director or assistant director of the conference Council on Ministries.

5. Ministerial members in the retired relation, who currently receive pensions on account of not less than four years of service in this conference.

6. Retired lay pastors listed with latest conference minutes and who receive pensions for not less than four years of service in this conference approved for pension credit.

We recommend that all persons in the following categories be permitted on an optional basis to enroll in the Death Benefit Program as of January 1 of any year with coverage in effect as of the first day of that month; provided that each such person electing to participate shall pay the conference treasurer prior to December 10 of the preceding calendar year, such amount as computed by this board as the cost in effect for such year; provided further that persons entering these categories at the time of a conference session may be enrolled within a period of 60 days following the closing day of such session, if they were not previously eligible for participation.

(1) Ministerial members — associates, probationary, and in full connection — appointed without annuity claim on this conference or appointed to attend school.

(2) Retired ministerial members who do not receive pension on each of four or more years in this Annual Conference.

(3) Other eligible persons, who, in the judgment of the board, render or have rendered service on a full-time basis sufficient to warrant inclusion in this program.

We recommend that the cost of the Death Benefit Program coverage not paid by individuals in the optional groups be provided from receipts from churches by apportionments for the pensions and benefit program, as provided in Report No. 1 of this board.

We recommend that the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants be authorized to administer the participation of the Annual Conference in the Death Benefit Program and to determine the eligibility of individuals for participation in this plan.

CLAIMANTS MEMORIAL FUND

We recommend the continuation of the Claimants Memorial Fund, such funds being invested by this board with interest being used for the benefit of the conference claimants. Individuals and groups are invited to make voluntary contributions in any amount to the fund as memorials to deceased ministers or members of ministers families or lay persons. Checks should be made payable to the Alabama-West Florida Conference, The United Methodist Church, and sent to Mr. Art Copper, P.O. Box 700, Andalusia, Alabama 36420, with the names of persons being memorialized. The families of persons being memorialized will be notified of such memorial gifts.

REPORT NO. 6

SPECIAL APPOINTMENT PENSION RESPONSIBILITY

In keeping with Paragraph 1796.5 of the 1976 Discipline, we recommend that the following United Methodist institutions or organizations be approved for pension responsibility on this Annual Conference: Alabama-West Florida Conference Council on Ministries, Assembly Ground Commission, the Wesley Foundation at Auburn University, the director of Pension Funding Crusade and Homes for Claimants.

We recommend that special appointments as employees of United Methodist colleges and universities and other general agencies shall be listed as with pension responsibility on the institution or agency.

We recommend that chaplains in the armed forces be listed as with pension responsibility on the chaplaincy of the military service.

We recommend that ministers under appointment as approved evangelists, to Inner City Missions, to The Methodist Christian Advocate, to other area appointments and to other special ministries, shall be listed as with pension responsibility on this Annual Conference only upon payment to the Conference Claimants Fund an amount equal to twelve times the current annuity rate for conference members which for the year 1981 would be $1,236.00 ($103.00 per month). See Paragraph 1706.3a of the 1976 Discipline.

We recommend that special appointments to non-Methodist institutions shall be listed as without pension responsibility on this Annual Conference.

We recommend that all missionaries shall be listed as with pension responsibility on the Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church.

REPORT NO. 7

DEPOSITORIES

We recommend that the official depository for the pension funds shall be the same as that designated by the conference for other conference funds and the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church; provided that the Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants may from time to time determine other depositories for invested funds among financial institutions that are insured by a government sponsored agency.

REPORT NO. 8

REGULATION FOR OCCUPANCY OF HOMES

1. Applications of claimants for homes shall be sent to the Rev. John Lane, and shall include the following information:

a. Name of claimant and immediate members of family.

b. Indication of choice as to location of home.

2. Minor repairs on homes will be paid for by the occupant. Major repairs will be paid for by the board. No repairs or alterations can be made to any of the homes at any time except those authorized by John Lane as director of homes for claimants.

3. The board will equip homes with a stove, heating equipment, refrigerator and water heater.

4. Occupants will furnish the board with the name of the person(s) who will attend to his or her personal affairs in the event of disability or death.

5. Care should be exercised by the occupant in the erection of T.V. antenna so that the existing property is not damaged.

6. The board recommends that when the occupant of a home serves a charge which provides a parsonage, he should live in the parsonage and thereby free a claimant's home for another claimant.

7. When a claimant vacates a home he or she should release it in writing to the Rev. John Lane, Director of Pension Funding Crusade and Homes for Claimants, and remove all personal belongings immediately.

8. Upon the death of an occupant the heirs or responsible person shall remove all personal property belonging to the claimant within thirty (30) days. All property left beyond this time will be disposed of by the board.

REPORT NO. 9

PENSIONS FOR LAY EMPLOYEES

We strongly endorse the reserve pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions for lay employees of United Methodist agencies and local churches. We recommend it to our local churches and agencies and urge that they use this official plan for The United Methodist Church to provide pension coverage for the devoted lay men/women who serve in their employ just as the Annual Conference provides for pensions for ministers.

Interested churches and agencies should contact:

REPORT NO. 10FULL-TIME SERVICE AS A REQUIREMENT FOR PENSION CREDIT

We call attention to the following provisions which appear in paragraph 1706.4a of the 1976 Discipline relative to full-time service as a normal condition for pension credit.

a. Full-time service of a ministerial member or a lay pastor shall be required as a normal condition for pension credit; provided, however, that such credit may be granted for part-time service by a three-fourths vote of those present and voting in the Annual Conference, on recommendation of the conference Board of Pensions (and Homes for Claimants).

b. Full-time service shall mean that full time is devoted to the work of a pastor by one who has not attained the age of mandatory retirement for a conference member, who is not attending school as a regular student, who is not substantially employed in nonpastoral work; and whose cash support per annum from all (church) sources is not less than the schedule of equitable salaries adopted by the Annual Conference for those in this person's classification.

It should be noted that service of either a ministerial member or lay pastor is without pension credit if it is not full-time service as defined, unless such credit is granted by special action under extremely unusual circumstances.

REPORT NO. 11ANNUITY FOR MINISTERS IN AREA OFFICES

As approved by our Annual Conference in the 1972 session the following policy continues in effect:

The area offices being served by the ministerial members from the conferences in the Birmingham Area where there is no annuity payment to provide pensions and benefits for these men shall have their pensions and benefit payments provided by the two conferences of the area with the Alabama-West Florida Conference paying an amount equal to 40.6% of twelve times the annuity rate and the North Alabama Conference paying an amount equal to 59.4% of twelve times the annuity rate of the conference in which the minister holds membership. This formula was agreed upon by the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences.

REPORT NO. 12A RESOLUTION ON HOUSING AND UTILITY ALLOWANCE FOR RETIRED MINISTERS

Whereas the U.S. government has recognized in its income tax regulations monies paid by a minister for the utilities of such a "parsonage or home" for a minister to be exempt from taxation; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Alabama-West Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church meeting in annual session May 25-May 28, 1980, that $3,000 of the total annuity paid each year to each retired minister and lay person shall be designated as a rental allowance and for maintenance of a place to live and for utilities.

REPORT NO. 13OTHER NOTATIONS

The Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants recommends that the Rev. Clifford Abbott should be given two years Annuity Credit which the journal does not now show, from August 1947 to 1949, when he was serving the Robertsedale appointment full time.

This data has been corroborated by the Board of Pensions.

The Board of Pensions and Homes for Claimants recommends that the Rev. Ray Whatley, after investigation by the Board, should be given credit for six months while serving the Gainesville Circuit in 1941, and an additional $\frac{1}{4}$ of a year while serving the La Place Circuit in 1942. At present this year and a quarter does not reflect on his record as it should.

HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL PROGRAM

The conference will remain under HMEP for the coming year (1980-81). The Board of Pensions is to make a thorough comparison of rates and programs for presentation at the 1981 session of the conference.

PENSION FUNDING CRUSADE

April 30, 1980, marked the half-way point in the Pension Funding Crusade. The response from the majority of the churches of the conference has been very good. There has also been a very positive attitude on the part of almost everyone with regard to the crusade. It is the will of the conference to conclude the crusade successfully in order to have on hand funds with which to provide pensions for our ministers upon their retirement.

Funds received at the half-way mark, April 30, 1980, are as follows:

Churches and Special Gifts	$1,907,552.00
Interest received on deposits	308,000.00
Total Receipts	$2,215,552.00

Thirty-nine churches have paid 100% or more of their four-year goal. Three hundred seventy-three of the seven hundred-twenty churches in the conference have paid 50% or more of their four-year goal.

The goal of $4,000,000.00 can be reached by the end of the crusade on April 30, 1982. The last two years will most likely be more difficult than the first two years. However with each member helping his church to pay its share, we will reach our goal.

HOMES FOR CLAIMANTS

The demand for conference homes for retired ministers and their wives or widows continues to increase. Since June of 1978, eight ministers and their wives or widows have been provided with homes. In most instances they have been placed in the area of their choice. While it is not always possible to provide homes where preferred, every effort is made to do so.

An excellent response has been experienced in cash gifts, property gifts and bequests in wills as follows:

1. Cash gifts	$ 32,800.00
2. Property gifts	145,000.00
($40,000.00 in escrow annuity obligations)	(40,000.00)
3. Gifts in wills	233,000.00
	$370,800.00

The conference now owns 49 units valued at $1,298,000.00. Most of our homes come to us as gifts from dedicated Methodists who are concerned about the well-being of the retired ministers of our conference. Your continued support is greatly needed and appreciated. For additional information call or write: John H. Lane, 707 Canterbury Drive, Dothan, AL 36301, Phone 205/792-9474.

COMMITTEE ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

The purpose of the equitable salary fund is to provide assistance to those ministers and their families serving charges whose salary will not assure a minimum standard of living. We believe that every charge desires to provide its minister with an adequate salary without assistance.

1. We, therefore, recommend that all charges receiving equitable salary assistance continue a program that will eliminate the need for salary supplements for their pastors.

2. The Discipline requires that a fully scheduled equitable salary be paid before pension credit can be granted by the Board of Pensions. To participate in the Insurance and Death Benefit Programs the minister must have pension credit. To receive fully scheduled equitable salary for the minister's category the Church must pay 80% of the equitable salary schedule for 1981. Pastors of newly organized congregations can for two years receive up to one-half of the equitable salary schedule from the fund for its pastor.

3. The equitable salary schedule shall be based on the conference average salary of the full connection and probationary members as determined by the Board of Pensions. The schedule for the various categories (rounded to the nearest $100) will be based on the following percentages of the conference average salary:

Member in Full Connection, 80% of conference average salary

Probationary Member, 80% of conference average salary

Associate Member, 70.5% of conference average salary

Seminary Student (married), 62.5% of conference average salary

Seminary Student (single), 58.5% of conference average salary

Full Time Local Pastor, 66% of conference average salary

Local Pastor — Student (married), 50.5% of conference average salary

Local Pastor — Student (single), 46.5% of conference average salary

4. The amount of equitable salary a minister is eligible to receive is based upon the total of his salary, travel allowance, utilities and other approved, church related allowances.

5. Only full time pastors, retired pastors as specified in Item 6, and student pastors are eligible for equitable salary support.

6. If the combined total of all income received from The United Methodist Church by a retired minister (plus his Social Security) is not equal to the equitable salary schedule then the Commission on Equitable Salaries shall pay the difference up to $2,400.00. To qualify the retired minister must be serving full time.

7. It is recommended that the equitable salary secretary be authorized to issue check orders for equitable salary only after each district superintendent has certified (a) complete income and amount of need of each pastor who is to receive equitable salary aid; (b) that the charge did conduct an Every Member Commitment program emphasizing the total program of The United Methodist Church; (c) that the pastor gives leadership in promoting the total financial program with special emphases being given to the ministerial support and World Service and Conference Benevolences apportionments. It is not the responsibility of the Committee on Equitable Salary to determine all the ramifications of a man's employment; this is the responsibility of the district superintendent. It is recommended that the secretary withhold any funds until the district superintendent has provided all the information as accurately as possible on the forms provided by the secretary.

8. No pastor of any classification shall receive aid from the fund if he receives income from any other church source, if the income, plus salary from the charge he or she serves, is more than the equitable salary for his or her classification, except as provided in 16 and 17 of this report.

9. No person qualifying for equitable salary which amounts to less than $100 will receive any equitable salary. We feel that local churches can take care of this small amount.

10. The administering agency will not grant aid to any Probationary or Associate Member who does not pass a full year of the Course of Study or fails to meet the minimum requirements for a student.

11. No associate pastor shall receive aid from this fund.

12. Each district superintendent is required to review all equitable salary situations in his district to reduce the need for equitable salary funds. No charge shall receive equitable salary assistance when divided unless the Commission on Town and Country Work has surveyed and recommended, and the Commission on Equitable Salaries has approved, the division. We recommend that churches or charges, to be eligible for equitable salary aid, should consist of three or more churches or a minimum of 100 members, except in the case of a new church.

13. We recommend that the conference budget provide the funds necessary to carry on the equitable salary program as directed by the Annual Conference.

14. The secretary of equitable salary shall file with the Assistant Secretary for the Journal for publication in the Journal each year a report listing the payments for the Equitable Salary Fund during the year, giving names of the pastors and charges, and amounts paid from the Equitable Salary Fund.

15. We recommend that no pastor serving outside the bounds of the Alabama-West Florida Conference be eligible to receive equitable salary unless there is no appointment available for him in this conference and he is assigned by the presiding bishop to an appointment outside the conference, or unless it be a special appointment by the presiding bishop. Appointment for the convenience of the pastor himself shall not be considered reason enough to receive equitable salary aid.

16. The Committee on Equitable Salaries feels that there may exist from time to time certain situations within our conference where special attention may help a church to more quickly become self-sustaining. In such situations, a supplement, determined by the Committee on Equitable Salaries, above the regular equitable salary, may be given the pastor, provided the money is available for this purpose. Normally no situation will receive this special consideration for more than four years. Ordinarily no more than three such situations will be considered during a year, based on money available. Such cases will be called growth potential situations. In order to be considered, every case will be judged by certain criteria, and final determination will be done with the approval of the Board of Missions, since this board handles the money for church extension. Each situation will be judged by the following criteria: a. growth potential; b. leadership requirements; c. age of the church; d. indebtedness.

17. In the case of cooperative parish ministries or specialized ministries the district superintendent, in consultation with the District Board of Missions and Committee on Equitable Salaries, shall be allowed to supplement the salary of a pastor/director or an associate director of a larger parish or specialized ministry even though the person comes under the benefits of equitable salary, without any reduction in the equitable salary support.

18. The Committee on Equitable Salaries feels that there may exist from time to time hardship cases, which need to be considered for help. These cases may be presented by the district superintendent to the committee. Sensing a need for such help for a charge, the district superintendent should hold the Charge Conference before the November meeting of the Committee on Equitable Salaries. The final decision on each situation will rest with the Committee on Equitable Salaries.

19. As an incentive to motivate churches to begin to reach toward total support of their pastoral leadership, we propose to give the preacher 60% of any salary increase above the amount currently paid by the church after the minimum support required for his or her category has been reached. This would apply to the charge which he or she is serving at the beginning of our payment period, which is January 1. This supplement is to be recomputed each year and we recommend that the Cabinet consider this accumulative amount as part of his salary when appointed to another charge.

20. We recommend the following be the Equitable Salary Schedule for 1981:

Member in Full Connection	$11,700.00
Probationary Member	11,700.00
Associate Member	10,300.00
Seminary Student (married)	9,100.00
Seminary Student (single)	8,600.00
Full Time Local Pastor	9,700.00
Local Pastor — Student (married)	7,400.00
Local Pastor — Student (single)	6,800.00

AREA BOARD OF PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

The Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling has shown during 1979 another significant increase in services rendered to the ministerial families of both Annual Conferences in the Birmingham Area. The counseling and consultation demand indicates a 13% increase over the previous year, with a total of 130 individuals, couples or families seen by appointment. This translates to 530 sessions in counseling and 151 sessions in consultations. In addition, the personnel of the office led 66 group sessions in consultation, supervision and/or support. With a 1.5 hour-per-session average, this converts to over 1,120 hours spent in counseling, consultation, therapy and supervision. Also, the director participated in over 50 board, retreat, workshop and/or seminar sessions within the area, ranging from four hours to three days in length.

Of major significance to the Birmingham Episcopal Area has been the initiation of a training program in pastoral counseling co-sponsored by our board and the Carraway Methodist Medical Center's Clinical Pastoral Education Department. The Reverend Timothy Thomas, a United Methodist clergyman of the North Alabama Conference, was selected out of several candidates to be the first clinical resident in this new program. The Reverend Thomas will be in training with us for two years and is available to see ministers and other staff persons within The United Methodist Church. This program provides not only excellent training in pastoral care and counseling, but also expanded services within our area. The Reverend Thomas is regularly in the Huntsville-Decatur area as well as Birmingham at his Carraway office. We are pleased to have Reverend Thomas as an additional resource in the continuation of this vital ministry.

We call to the attention of the Annual Conference Session the work and planning of two standing committees of the board. They are:

PROGRAM AND PLANNING COMMITTEE: Under the chairmanship of Reverend Powers McLeod, Jr., this committee is planning and has scheduled a 1981 Convocation on Pastoral Care and Counseling to be held on November 10, 11 and 12 at Birmingham-Southern College. This event will be held in cooperation with Birmingham-Southern and the Boards of Ordained Ministry of the two Annual Conferences of the area. Speakers for this event will include Dr. Howard Clinebell, professor at Claremont School of Theology; Dr. Paul Pruyser of the Meninger Foundation; Dr. Peggy Way, professor at Vanderbilt Divinity School; and Dr. Larry Sonner, Executive Director of the Iowa Conference Pastoral Care and Counseling Office.

SYSTEMIC ISSUES COMMITTEE: Mrs. Harriette Huckaby leads this committee into two areas of study of great concern and interest. A report of the Study on Dual Careers in Parsonage Families is attached. Also, a study on ministers' finances, with emphasis on issues that surround financial planning of clergy, is underway. This study is being done with assistance from the Auburn University Department of Consumer Affairs.

The board is pleased to report these new ventures and looks forward to the new quadrennium as it seeks to respond to the needs of ministers and their families. We solicit your prayers and assistance as we continue to serve the Birmingham Area of The United Methodist Church.

Joe W. Lisenby, Chairman
Charles E. Alexander, Executive Director

DUAL CAREERS AND PARSONAGE FAMILIES

The increasing number of ministers' wives who work, and the expressed concerns about the effects this may have on the parsonage family, the appointive system, and the congregation's expectations of the minister's wife have prompted a study by the Systemic Issues Committee of the Area Board of Pastoral Care and Counseling. Little research has been done in this area.

Questionnaires were sent to clergy whose spouses work outside the home, the employed wives, Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, district superintendents in both Annual Conferences, and bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Responses were received from 149 ministers, 133 ministers' wives, 107 Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, 14 district superintendents, and six bishops.

As might be expected, an increasing number of clergy wives work as their children get older. Two-thirds of the parsonage couples agreed that the wife's working had had no effect or had improved their home-life; one-third indicated that her working had increased tension in the home. Most of the couples reported that their two fields of work did not make them feel that they were in vocational competition with each other; and there was a frequent expression that the wife's work enabled her to achieve a sense of fulfillment as a person in her own right. Approximately half of the employee spouses considered their work to be a career (a vocation involving personal commitment) as opposed to a job (primarily income-producing). A majority of the couples indicated that having dual careers has not presented serious difficulties in terms of the appointment-making process, as they see it.

The district superintendents expressed approval (with some reservations) in their attitudes toward dual careers. None of them indicated disapproval. The majority of them stated that they frequently consult with the spouse in the appointment-making process, and most indicated that they believe the wife's working should be taken into consideration when making the appointment, although there was some disagreement as to whether this should be the case every time, or only some of the time. The bishops' responses followed the same general pattern.

Pastor-Parish Relations Committee chairpersons reported essentially no congregational disapproval of the fact that the minister's wife worked outside the home. Approximately two-thirds indicated approval. The extent to which congregations seem to approve dual careers is greater than the extent to which parsonage couples feel their congregations approve. It appears that ministers and their wives believe their congregations are more indifferent regarding this than seems to be the case.

In general, the study reflects that in the Birmingham Area there is less prejudice against dual careers in parsonage families than has been popularly assumed. In terms of the appointive system, dual careers are seen as presenting some complicating factors, but not as opposing it. More than half of the clergy and spouses responding expressed a preference that the wife work, indicating that her working has no adverse effects in terms of home life or the ministry. Congregations, as reported by chairpersons of Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, do not feel that working reduces their respect for the minister's wife, nor deprives them in any significant way. District superintendents and bishops, with some reservation, approve of clergy wives working outside the home.

Systemic Issues Committee

CONFERENCE BOARD OF THE LAITY

This past year has seen the beginning of the end of a quadrennium within our United Methodist Church that has fostered both turmoil and accomplishment. We of the Alabama-West Florida Conference are grateful to God for sparing us the heartache of turmoil that has marked the work in so many of the 73 conferences throughout United Methodism, and we pray for His continuing protective care as we embark upon a new quadrennium, and that He will keep our eyes open for opportunities for service, and, above all, upon Christ as we face the challenges of a new decade.

With the continuing decentralization of responsibilities within the church, more and more United Methodists are beginning to experience the joy of personal contribution and accomplishment in the cause of Christ. We see more active participation in local church affairs, training and development of leaders, lay involvement in worship, etc. The very real and effective revitalization of United Methodist Men, and definitive roles that they may select for Christian nurture for themselves and for others is one of our most visible accomplishments. The evidences of strength and dedication that we have always seen in our United Methodist Women are even more evident now, and, with God's help, will be even stronger in the new quadrennium. God bless them for the example they have, and continue to, set for the Church! The United Methodist Youth organizations within our conference are "bell ringers" for United Methodism. In my travels throughout the conference I never fail to be encouraged and up-lifted by the Christ-centered, spiritual, and others-oriented attitudes of our youth. Many of our people participated in the 1979 Southeastern Jurisdictional Laity Conference at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. We were fortunate to hear the witnesses and challenges presented by such national notables as Major General Jerry Curry, Dr. Ezra Earl Jones, Dr. Arnold Prater, and others. These men "laid it on the line" to both laity and clergy alike. Your Conference Board of the Laity hopes our people had ears to hear.

The lay element of our church must not rest upon these laurels. We must do more—beginning now.

Your reading of this report will refresh your memory of the 1980 Conference-wide Laity Retreat. The spirit-filled leadership of Dr. Dennis F. Kinlaw and the spirited music provided by Dr. and Mrs. Claude Gossett lifted us to heights that we continue to strive for.

God continues to bless the lay participation in our Annual Conference sessions. The grueling hard work is momentarily forgotten during the Annual Laity Banquet. This year, we are fortunate to have Dr. Waights Henry, Past President of LaGrange College, as our speaker. A good message, good music, and good food fortify us for the remaining conference sessions. Let us continue to make this hour a great time in the program of our conference proceedings.

We welcome Mr. John Stair, the new Andalusia District Lay Leader, to the Conference Board of the Laity; and we express appreciation to Bishop Sanders and the conference Council on Ministries staff for the support and leadership they have provided this past year.

Let us remember, always, that we are God's people — called to His service.

Jack Temple, Conference Lay Leader

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

REPORT NO. 1

The Commission on Archives and History continues to oversee the work of the Conference Depository. The depository, under the direction of R. Glenn Massengale, Archivist/Historian and Mary Ann Pickard, Associate Archivist/Historian, has continued to grow in usefulness and volumes of material.

Thanks to a very generous gift of the George W. Proctor family the replica of Lambuth Memorial is nearly finished. Two plaques are being placed there, one in Memory of George W. and Gussie Ross Proctor and a second in honor of the Forkland congregation which gave their church to the project. The furnishings are all from the original Forkland-Lambuth Church in Green County, Alabama. Lambuth Memorial is on the right as you enter Blue Lake campground. A very special thanks to the Assembly Ground Commission for its assistance in this project.

Mrs. J.P. Walton, secretary of the commission and district secretary from the Dothan district, is to be commended for her work in compiling a book of the history of almost every church in that district.

We urge each local church to place in the depository at Huntingdon College a copy of its history. If a local church does not have a history, the local church is urged to write one and send a copy to the depository.

As we close out one quadrennium and begin another, we urge all boards and agencies of the Annual Conference to deposit records and materials not essential to their ongoing work with the depository.

The family of the ministerial members of this annual conference who have died this year will receive from the commission a bronze grave marker. These markers are available at cost to others who wish to purchase them through the depository.

RESOLUTION I

In accordance with paragraph 735, Section II of the 1976 Book of Discipline, be it resolved that the Commission On Archives and History be authorized to organize a Conference Historical Society. (Proposed Constitution in Report #2)

RESOLUTION II

Whereas, the year 1984 will be the Bi-Centennial of Methodism in America.

Whereas, the Alabama-West Florida Conference has a long and great history.

Be it Therefore Resolved that the Alabama-West Florida Conference request Bishop Carl J. Sanders to name a three (3) person committee to formulate and implement plans for the 1984 Bi-Centennial celebration. Be it further Resolved that this committee be funded by the Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
W. Thad Chesser, Chairman

CONFERENCE DEPOSITORY ARCHIVAL AND HISTORICAL MATERIALS

1. ROUTINE ACTIVITY. Routine activities of the depository include the correspondence related to requests for information concerning churches, ministers, and personal genealogy; the processing of books for the conference library of United Methodist materials; the weekly indexing of The Methodist Christian Advocate; the helping of researchers who come to the depository; the updating of ministers' records; the completing of records of deceased ministers and corresponding with families concerning ministers' papers; the processing of archival materials to be placed in permanent storage, including the necessary indexing and creation of finding aids.

2. SPECIAL PROJECTS. Special projects have included an open house at the 1979 session of Annual Conference, at which time duplicate books and journals were made available without charge to ministers and lay persons wishing to have them for their church and personal libraries. Also during this conference session a portrait of the Reverend Franklin Shackelford Moseley was hung in the depository. (See article in The Methodist Christian Advocate, February 19, 1980).

Special efforts are being made to secure materials related to the former Central Alabama Conference. A major break-through in this area came with the receipt of thirty-two Annual Conference Journals from Mrs. Thomas H. Houston of Tuskegee. Special efforts are also being made to get historical information on all United Methodist churches in Alabama and West Florida, especially on discontinued churches. Arrangements have been made with the photographers to get two prints of all pictures made of ministers in the Alabama-West Florida Conference for the new pictorial directory. This project received a temporary set-back when many pictures taken at last year's Annual Conference session were destroyed before they could be printed. It is anticipated that this project can be completed shortly after the 1980 session.

3. SPONSOR PROGRAM. Some months ago the depository was given permission to solicit "front end" funds to (a) assure the necessary cash flow at the beginning of each new fiscal year and (b) purchase some badly needed supplies and equipment, such as a typewriter, filing cabinets, storage containers, and shelving. As of April 1, $2,120.00 had been received through the depository "Sponsor Program." It is anticipated that the goal of $3,000.00 will be reached by Annual Conference.

4. QUADRENNIAL RECORDS. As this quadrennium draws to a close and the composition of boards and agencies is being changed, all officials are urged to review their non-current records for their historical and evidential value and place the appropriate ones in the depository in accordance with paragraph 735.1 of the Discipline. The Archivist/Historian is making himself available to help any agency or board appraise its records and make arrangements for their proper preservation.

5. PERSONAL GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH. The depository is being called upon more and more to assist individuals in personal genealogical research. This is an interesting and exciting enterprise, but it can detract from the depository's major function and prove costly. The Commission on Archives and History, at its February, 1980 meeting, authorized the depository to request a modest contribution for research, copying, postage and services done for purely personal purposes.

BOARD OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

We deplore those trends within our culture that divide us as a people. The dangers that confront all the people of the world should compel us toward a spirit of true unity. We should actively seek those avenues that will enable us to work with people of all faiths.

There are many fine interdenominational and inter-faith organizations in Alabama. We urge the United Methodist churches to participate in these organizations. We further urge our churches to foster genuine cooperation with other churches in their respective communities.

We continue our commendation and support of the Baldwin County Migrant Ministries.

Respectfully submitted,

Davis Y. Martin, Chairman

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

The Commission on Worship has now completed the fourth and final year of the 1977-1980 quadrennium. The goals set forth in a four year plan drafted in 1977 have been met. The five priorities for action: Annual Conference Worship, Lectionary distribution, alternate ritual distribution, district workshops and music workshops are now being fulfilled annually.

Last year the commission provided for Annual Conference Worship by providing the Brochure Of Reports with printed hymns and liturgies. The theme for the morning worship experiences was "the ethnic minority local church" which is one of the three quadrennial emphases.

The Rev. Ed McDevitt, a Roman Catholic priest, was one of the inspiring speakers to lead the morning services last year. Fr. McDevitt's address was an historic first for the Alabama-West Florida Conference.

The chairperson and the secretary-treasurer represented the conference at "Design '79," the national United Methodist Convocation on music, worship and the arts in Albion, Michigan, July 15-20, 1979.

A youth choir camp took place July 29-August 3, 1979, at Oakwood Lodge. Mr. Eugene Clement of Perkinston, Mississippi, and other excellent resource persons led the conference choir camp. A special expression of thanks goes to Mr. Jim Paxton of Dothan for furnishing the spark that began the Conference Youth Choir Camp three years ago and to many other friends of this good project.

An inter-conference convocation on worship was held in Columbus, Georgia, on February 15 and 16, 1980. The Rev. Dr. Don E. Saliers, Associate Professor of Theology and Worship, Candler School of Theology, Emory University, was the resource person. "Worship In The Wesleyan Tradition" was the convocation theme. This was the fourth annual convocation of this sort sponsored by the committees on worship of the Birmingham and Atlanta Episcopal Areas of The United Methodist Church.

Good worship should not seek to be impressive but to be expressive; expressive of the best Biblical faith, Wesleyan tradition and personal involvement. Good worship is a living thing that can be evaluated but never totally pre-determined or guaranteed. May the people of the Alabama-West Florida Conference continue even more vigorously in the quest for good worship in the churches. May that worship express the best of who they are and of what they can hope.

Respectfully submitted,
Joseph Haywood Reams, Chairman

COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

The primary responsibility of this committee is to keep the idea and the challenge of Christian vocation before the churches of our conference and provide information and resource materials to assist local churches and pastors in this essential area of ministry.

The wide spectrum of our concern includes:

1. The proclamation of the Christian understanding of work.

That work is not a curse, but an opportunity to be co-laborers with God as we respond to his call. This response may be through a church-related career, but we also emphasize that a Christian may serve God in many, so-called secular jobs, thus to find meaning and fulfillment in life through their work.

2. Assisting young people in their efforts to find themselves, understand their abilities, to become familiar with the world of work and to make career decisions from their Christian perspective.

3. Providing information and counsel for mid-career job changers and for women who may be entering the job market for the first time.

4. To help pre-retirement and retired persons in our churches to gain greater understanding of that phase of their life and explore creative possibilities for continued part-time employment, hobbies, and volunteer service.

One project we plan to continue is a Career Information Booth at the Fall Youth Rally featuring printed information and adult leaders, representing various career fields, on hand for informal conversations. Also, we hope to continue cooperation with Huntingdon College in mailing out copies of the booklet, Church Occupations and Career Planning, to all high school guidance counselors in Alabama and West Florida.

Our big event next year will be a Workshop on Christian Vocations at Blue Lake on January 16-17. Bishop Joel McDavid will be speaking on "What is My Call?" and "Calls Missed, Calls Answered."

Rual Morris, Chairman

JOINT COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATIONS

REPORT #1

As the end of this quadrennium approaches, the Joint Committee on Communications looks with pride at the expansion and effectiveness of the ministry of communication. We believe this ministry has served both Annual Conferences of this area with distinction.

We anticipate the continued effectiveness of this ministry of communication and look upon it as a challenge as we move into the future.

We have worked closely with our director of communication as he has developed the communication program. During this year, he has produced two outstanding slide shows—one for the North Alabama Crusade for Pensions and another for the Southeastern Jurisdiction United Methodist Men; planned a Christian Writer's Symposium (which was cancelled due to Hurricane Frederic, but is re-scheduled for this fall); worked with the disaster team in Mobile; continued to work for better relations with the public media; held numerous consultations and seminars in local churches; published "The Daily Seed" and "The Seed"; held training events for and worked with district coordinators in developing an area communications network.

A series of radio spots for black audiences will be introduced at both Annual Conference sessions. It is expected that these spots will be aired in the fall.

The national radio program, CONNECTION, is now on 13 stations in Alabama and West Florida. Additional stations will be added annually.

A summary of services offered the districts and local churches include:

- Training for the coordinator of communications;
- Parish newsletter training;
- Television awareness training;
- Consultation in planning for radio and television spots;
- Video and cable television seminars.

Davis Y. Martin, Chairman

REPORT #2

"The Bishop's Hour," the television ministry of The United Methodist Church in the Birmingham Area is coming to a new milestone. Bishop Carl J. Sanders will be completing his eighth and last year on this program.

Bishop Sanders has built a large viewing audience across these eight years. His regular and faithful viewers will miss his monthly sermons. His jovial presence in the WAPI-TV studios will be missed.

We are very grateful to him for his participation in this effective television ministry. We join with all other members of this Annual Conference in wishing him the best of God's blessings in the years of his retirement.

Davis Y. Martin, Chairman

REPORT #3

We endorse the report of the Committee to Study the Offices of Communications and The Methodist Christian Advocate, as printed on page 27 of this Brochure of Reports, and urge its adoption, with the following understanding:

That the report clearly establishes an effective Office of Communication/Advocate with an executive director and additional professional staff persons and support staff as needed to fulfill the responsibilities of the total communication ministry as outlined in the "Committee to Study" report.

We further recommend that Robert F. Storey be appointed as director of the Office of Communication/Advocate. We believe he has demonstrated the necessary communication skills, administrative ability and has demonstrated a desire to be an effective servant to both Annual Conferences.

Davis Y. Martin, Chairman

REPORT #4

The financial records of United Methodist Communications have been audited by Mr. Robert Walston and found in good condition.

Mrs. Jeanne Glasgow is to be commended for her excellent work as treasurer of United Methodist Communications.

Copies of the audit report have been placed on file and with each Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration and the secretary of the Joint Committee on Communications.

Davis Y. Martin, Chairman

THE METHODIST CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

REPORT NUMBER 1

The Methodist Christian Advocate is entering its centennial year of service to the Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference. The publication was established by vote of the 1880 sessions of the two Annual Conferences. The first issue came from the press under the date of May 25, 1881, in Birmingham, Alabama.

Particularly in view of the Advocate's history and the continuing importance of a weekly printed news medium to convey the news of United Methodism — on all levels: general, jurisdictional, area, conference, district and local — and to communicate program emphases of the two annual conferences, we hope that the United Methodists throughout Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama will accord new attention and consideration to the Birmingham Area publication in the immediate present and during the coming conference year. We plan special celebration of the Advocate's centennial, as by the publishing of a centennial issue on or near May 25, 1981.

WE MADE LAST DECEMBER a major step in the publishing arrangements of the Advocate, affiliating on a three months' experimental basis with The United Methodist Reporter of Dallas, Texas. The United Methodist Reporter, which began as the Texas Methodist, now prints special editions for 43 of the 73 annual conferences of United Methodism (including our two conferences). This step was taken in the confidence that this affiliation would strengthen the Advocate, especially by:

(1) Making available to the Advocate the services of the large and journalistically expert staff of The United Methodist Reporter and the many feature stories and articles which The United Methodist Reporter (UMR) produces from across the nation and world;

(2) Reducing the total cost of preparing and mailing the Advocate. Volume production by the UMR of three pages for a four page edition or three pages for a six page edition and the maintaining of a publication's mailing list by the UMR on its own computer makes the total cost less than the Advocate would now be paying under its previous publishing contracts;

(3) Making available to local churches local church editions of the Advocate/UMR publication, containing one page prepared by a local church, comparable to a local church publication. This can be done through the facilities of the UMR at a price not approachable through the Advocate. Further, the printing of local church editions is not possible through the Advocate, with its limited staff.

The Advocate Board of Trustees recommends that the affiliation with the United Methodist Reporter be continued. Printing and mailing contracts are for a year, renewable after that upon the choice of the Annual Conferences.

THE ADVOCATE OPERATED IN 1979 with a balance of $1,617.58. This is pleasing in these times especially and the more so in view of the fact that the Advocate has experienced deficits in operating funds in the immediately preceding three years. The deficits of those years were offset by balances the Advocate had in years previous to those, particularly 1972, 1973, 1974 and 1975. The Advocate has invested capital funds of $38,000.00 and $1,000.00 ($500.00 interest earned from these funds and $500.00 operating funds). The capital funds are from the sale of the lot formerly owned by the Advocate at 516 N. 22nd Street, Birmingham, Alabama. Interest from capital funds investments are applied to operating funds and are vital aid in the Advocate's program of work.

The balanced budget in 1979 was made possible by reducing staff, by the increase of subscription prices by 25¢ per subscription, by increased appropriations from the Annual Conferences (Alabama-West Florida appropriated in 1978, $9,000.00, paid $5,809.02; appropriated in 1979, $10,000.00, paid $8,388.41. North Alabama appropriated in 1978, $14,867.00, paid $14,867.00; appropriated in 1979, $15,000.00, paid $15,000.00. For 1980, Alabama-West Florida has appropriated $11,000.00, North Alabama $16,500.00), and by keeping expenditures to a minimum.

THE FORMAL FINANCIAL REPORT AND AUDIT of the Advocate for 1979 are contained in the financial report and audit of the North Alabama Conference Treasurer, Mr. Bill O. Beverage, as Mr. Beverage served on a volunteer basis in the capacity of financial secretary of the Advocate in 1979. The Advocate is deeply grateful to Mr. Beverage and his staff for the services they have rendered to the Advocate. These services enabled the Advocate to reduce its staff (financial secretary) and were vitally instrumental toward the Advocate's operating with a balanced budget in 1979. We are grateful also that Mr. Beverage, with the approval and permission of the North Alabama Conference Council on Finance and Administration, continues to render this service for the Advocate.

BEGINNING WITH THE YEAR 1979 the subscription year of all churches of the North Alabama Conference was made parallel to the conference fiscal year, which is the calendar year. This transition was necessary because the North Alabama Conference Treasurer served as financial secretary of the Advocate and the North Alabama churches' payments to the Advocate were listed on the North Alabama Conference Remittance Form. This change is advantageous to the Advocate in that the amount due from the churches for the year January-December is ascertainable far more readily than when church subscriptions began and ended at numerous times in the year. We would like and will ask the Alabama-West Florida Conference churches also to follow the calendar year as their subscription year and will work with them to effect this conversion in the near future.

EVERY CHURCH in the two Annual Conferences should have a group of subscribers to the Advocate, and we urge each church not now subscribing to enter a group according to one of the following offers: 100% resident active membership (every family), $3.50 per subscription; 100% membership of administrative board (every family) or council on ministries (every family), $4.00. Individual subscriptions are: 1 year, $5.00; 2 years, $9.00; 3 years, $12.50. Rate to ministers of the two conferences is $4.00 per year.

Subscriptions and subscription payments are to be sent to The Methodist Christian Advocate, 1100 Campus Circle, Birmingham, Alabama 35204. Subscriptions entered by churches or individuals are effective until expiration of the subscriptions regardless of the Advocate's publishing arrangement. Publishing arrangement has no bearing on the duration of subscriptions.

MATERIALS FOR PUBLICATION are to be sent to The Methodist Christian Advocate, 1100 Campus Circle, Birmingham, Alabama 35204. Changes of address may be sent either to the Advocate address or the address of the printer. If the relationship with The United Methodist Reporter is maintained, the address of the latter is: P.O. Box 221076, Dallas, Texas 75222.

THE ADVOCATE APPRECIATES the consideration given its work and its representative by the Committee to Study the Offices of Communications and The Advocate of the Alabama-West Florida and North Alabama Annual Conferences and assures its cooperation in the implementing of actions voted by the Annual Conferences on this committee's recommendations.

WE RECOMMEND, in addition to the continuing of the affiliation with The United Methodist Reporter, already cited herein, that:

(1) The Alabama-West Florida Conference and the North Alabama Conference declare the conference year, 1980-81, as the occasion for special observance by the conferences and their churches of the Centennial Year of The Methodist Christian Advocate;

(2) That during the conference year, 1980-81, every church in the two Annual Conferences make particular endeavor to promote subscriptions to the Advocate among its membership, and that the minimum goal in this effort be the subscribing by the Administrative Board or the Council on Ministries in each local church.

(3) That the Alabama-West Florida Conference designate The Methodist Christian Advocate as a priority in World Service and Conference Benevolences appropriations and that the North Alabama Conference continue the Advocate as a priority in World Service Benevolences appropriations.

We submit this report with appreciation for the fine cooperation and steadfast interest in the Advocate and its mission of Bishop Carl J. Sanders, the district superintendents, the pastors, the lay leaders and the general laity; the conference Councils on Finance and Administration, the conference Councils on Ministries, subscribing local churches, individual subscribers and all others who help enable the communicating of the news of United Methodism on all levels — local, district, conference, area, jurisdiction and general — by The Methodist Christian Advocate.

REPORT NUMBER 2

Since I am entering the retired relationship of the United Methodist ministry at the 1980 session of the North Alabama Conference, I have asked and been granted by the Advocate Board of Trustees the opportunity of submitting here an expression of my gratitude for the high privilege of serving since August 6, 1965, as editor and business manager of The Methodist Christian Advocate.

What a privilege it has been to be here at such an eventful time and to seek to convey and interpret the news of United Methodism, including such extraordinary developments as the coming to be of The United Methodist Church (1968), the Centennial Observance of the North Alabama Conference (1970), the formation of the new Alabama-West Florida Conference and the new North Alabama Conference through merger with the former Central Alabama Conference (1972), the church scholarship campaigns of Huntingdon College (1974) and Birmingham-Southern College (1976), the pensions funding crusades of the Alabama-West Florida Conference (1977-1978) and the North Alabama Conference (1979-80), the Sesqui-Centennial Observance of the Alabama-West Florida Conference (1978), and the current construction of the Edward L. Norton United Methodist Center on the Birmingham-Southern College campus, which will contain the North Alabama Conference Headquarters Building.

What a privilege to be in this place on the eve of the Centennial Year of the Advocate and, all the more because of this historical hour to be aware of the works wrought by all of those who have labored here before us! And to see it come to pass that a microfilm copy of the Advocate from the first issue through 1979, and continuing permanently, is now on file in the Birmingham-Southern College Library, provided by Birmingham-Southern College and the North Alabama Conference Commission on Archives and History.

What a privilege to seek to communicate and relate the gospel of Jesus Christ through editorials. This has been a particularly cherished opportunity in all of these years — from the national issues of the Vietnam war to Alabama's recent problems regarding Medicaid.

I express deep gratitude to Bishop Carl J. Sanders for his constant and inspiring interest in the Advocate; to the members of the Advocate Board of Trustees, with whom it has been a joy and privilege to serve, for their skilled endeavors and steadfast devotion in behalf of the Advocate, among whom the Rev. J.P. West, Jr., chairman, and the Rev. Dr. Andrew S. Turnipseed, vice chairman, merit special thanks for the leadership and guidance they have given in the publication's cause; to the district superintendents, the lay leaders, conference and district; the subscribing local churches and individuals; the Councils on Ministries, the Councils on Finance and Administration, the boards and agencies of the two Annual Conferences for their cooperation; the national and area offices of United Methodist Communications; the district and local church coordinators of communications; the United Methodist Women and the United Methodist Men of the two conferences; the feature articles writers and contributors of stories and news articles for the publication; members of the Advocate staff, and all others who have furthered the work of the Advocate.

May the days and years ahead be the best yet for the Alabama-West Florida Conference, the North Alabama Conference and The Methodist Christian Advocate!

REPORT NUMBER 3

The Board of Trustees of The Methodist Christian Advocate joins the Methodists of Alabama and West Florida in honoring Dr. Herschel Hamner on the occasion of his retirement from full time active ministry. He retires at this session of the North Alabama Conference after forty-three and one-half years of dedicated service to his conference, the Birmingham Area, and The United Methodist Church.

Birmingham-Southern College recognized Dr. Hamner's outstanding contributions to the life of our church by conferring a Doctor of Divinity degree on him in 1971. We wish to further recognize him at this time of his retirement.

In his conference he has served faithfully both as pastor and in connectional work. His pastoral appointments include the Fayette Circuit, Birmingham First as assistant, Fairfax, Trussville, Attalla, Russellville, Hueytown First, Trinity in Tuscaloosa, and Ensley First. Early in his career, he became conference youth director and later was executive secretary of the conference Board of Education. He was secretary of the North Alabama Conference, 1964-72.

Perhaps he is best known for his work as editor of our area paper. He was appointed to this important position in August 1965. From that day until this he has given himself devotedly to this responsibility. Unselfishly, he has agreed to serve, if needed, after his retirement until his replacement is appointed. In this capacity he has served the Birmingham Area extremely well.

But his influence has been felt even beyond Alabama and West Florida. He has faithfully supported the general church. His writings have appeared in numerous church school adult publications, The Upper Room, The Christian Century Pulpit, and five volumes of Harper and Row's Ministers Manual.

"I have greatly enjoyed and been enriched by my entire career in the ministry and now that the time of my retirement is at hand, I anticipate this new phase of life as further opportunity for study, writing, growth, and enjoyment," says Dr. Hamner. No doubt, a part of the enjoyment he looks forward to is the increased time with his lovely wife, Lena Mae (High); his lawyer son, Herschel, Jr., of Tuscaloosa; and his wonderful grandson, Herschel, III.

We offer Dr. Hamner the heartfelt thanks of our grateful conferences for his years of devoted service to the church, especially his almost 15 years as editor of The Methodist Christian Advocate.

Council on Finance and Administration
Alabama-West Florida Conference of
Andalusia, Alabama

We have examined the statement of recorded receipts and disbursements of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 1979 and the statement of investments at December 31, 1979. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The Council's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash received and cash disbursed; consequently certain revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of recorded receipts and disbursements and statement of investments present fairly the recorded receipts and disbursements of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Alabama-West Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church for the conference year 1979 and the investments held at December 31, 1979.

DIVISION X — MEMOIRS

REV. ERNEST A. CHILDS

1888-1979

"If I had a thousand lives to live I would give them all to the Christian ministry," were the words of Ernest A. Childs upon his retirement from the ministry after 51 years. His retirement came in 1961 following a very successful pastorate of six years at Greenville. Upon his retirement he continued to live in Greenville where he was greatly beloved, and where he gave strong support to his successors in that pulpit.

He was an unusual man with the right skills, proper attitudes, and full commitment for his rich ministry.

Ernest Childs was born December 13, 1888, near Hartford, Alabama, in a two-room house made of lumber cut and hand dressed by his father. At the age of 21 he entered the ministry and was licensed to preach on June 30, 1909. The following December he was married to Noma Irene Ennis. To that union were born two children: Ernestine, now Mrs. Irving Lafayette Levi, Jr., and Norman Ennis. Mrs. Childs entered the heavenly portals of life October 23, 1917.

On July 20, 1918, Ernest was married to Annie Bethaneth Grimes in Geneva, Alabama. To that union came Edward Ainsworth, who is now a medical doctor. This family found the Christian commitment of parents a benediction of love, care, and integrity upon the home. The children in their honored lives bespeak these Christian parental influences.

During his 51 years of active ministry Ernest Childs served 18 different appointments. He served a second time as pastor of Opp and Greenville, which is a cherished record for any United Methodist preacher. His churches were among the largest and the smallest in the Conference; rural circuits and churches in the heart of cities; agricultural and industrial settings; suburban and inner-city. His effective ministry in all of these settings and experience therefore made him one of the very able district superintendents of the conference. He brought to the District Superintendency of the Mobile District (1947-1951) the pastor's heart and a great love for clergy and laity.

To his pastoral ministry he added great interest in the institutions of the church and its world ministry. He served as a Trustee of Huntingdon College and received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Birmingham-Southern College, his academic alma mater, when it was Southern University in Greensboro. To the total ministry of The United Methodist Church were his loyalties and his efforts.

The Gospel to Ernest Childs was "Good News" and he proclaimed it from the pulpit and in person. His humor was contagious and delightful, his compassion responsive and warm, his manner relaxing and concerned, his attitude positive and hopeful. When God called Ernest Childs to the Christian ministry he called a total person. The completeness of it inspired many persons to respond effectively to the claims of Christ upon their lives — over 3,000 during his 51 years. Many a young preacher looked to this preacher as his mentor and inspiration for ministry as it ought to be expressed.

My personal word is of gratitude for a rich and rewarding friendship and an inspiration for a better ministry because Ernest Childs walked before me. With Paul as he spoke to the Romans, Ernest was not ashamed of the Gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation. So with Paul he said, "I am eager to preach the Gospel." He preached it well and God has a special place for him in his eternal love and care.

— Joel D. McDavid

REV. WALTER O. PHILLIPS1892-1979

Brother Phillips was born in Harris County, Georgia, March 15, 1892. He grew up in Phenix City, Alabama, and attended Birmingham-Southern 1912-16. Brother Phillips was admitted to the Alabama-West Florida Conference November 11, 1911; was ordained a Deacon in 1913 and an Elder in 1915. After receiving his B.D. from Emory University in 1920, he served six and one-half years as a missionary to Japan.

Brother Phillips' active ministry in the Methodist Church spanned 42 and one-half years before he was retired in 1954 following major throat surgery. During that period he preached 11,137 sermons, baptized 2,195 adults and children, received 1,375 members by transfer, performed 314 weddings, conducted 1,105 funerals, made 33,625 pastoral calls, conducted 227 revivals, and spoke to 5,782 church and civic groups. Until the onset of his illness in 1953, Brother Phillips missed only two preaching appointments because of sickness.

Since "retiring" in 1954, Brother Phillips had been very active in rendering voluntary services to this church, community and fellowman. He devoted two days each week to volunteer work at the Rehabilitation Center. He served as president of the local Laryngectomy Club and helped 69 cases with laryngeal speaking. Each Wednesday he visited the sick and confined church members. His Sundays were devoted to work with the First United Methodist Church School (Montgomery) and the Men's Wesley Bible Class. The entrance door at which he greeted people to Church School was named for him. Brother Phillips died October 7, 1979, in Montgomery, Alabama, and was buried there.

Brother Phillips had all the traits and qualities of greatness and, in his quiet manner, the glory of God radiated through him. He carried no bitterness even to those who had wronged him. One of God's great servants went home to God when he left our midst.

RALPH WESLEY NICHOLS

Ralph Wesley Nichols was born in York, Alabama, on May 8, 1923, the sixth child of Grover Cleveland and Olta Mae (Tyler) Nichols. He was schooled in the elementary and high schools there, and obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree from Birmingham-Southern College in 1945 and his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Vanderbilt University in 1949. While at Southern in 1944 he married a fellow student, Elsie Grace Edwards, and four children were born into their family: Beverly Cecile Smith, Hayden Prinston Parks, Deborah Wesley Coady, and Ralph Wesley Nichols, Jr. There are five grandchildren: Kent and Jason Smith, Alison and Nicole Parks, and Eliza Coady.

Ralph served appointments in North Alabama, at Mount Tabor and Herd's Gap, and in the Tennessee Conference at Santa Fe, Good Hope, and Thompson, during his student days. After transfer to the Alabama-West Florida Conference in 1949, he received appointments at Eutaw, Grove Hill, Phenix City First, Dalraida, Wetumpka, Warrington, and Atmore First. From the day in 1944 when he preached his first sermon at Mount Tabor until he preached his last pastoral sermon at Atmore in 1967, he was a very effective and beloved preacher and shepherd of his people. After twenty-three years of pastoral ministry he became a missionary, and for twelve full years, which began July 1st, 1967, his heart was devoted to remembering those people whom most folk would like to forget: the Indians, the mountain dwellers, and rural Americans. He became a member of the staff of the National Division of the Board of Global Ministries, and at the time of his death on July 22, 1979, he was Executive Secretary of Church and National Ministry.

A number of memorial services were held over the nation to honor Ralph's life and service, for his work with town and country churches and minority groups and his deep appreciation of Methodist deaconesses in their vital ministry had spread his friendship like a blanket over Methodism. In the Memorial Service at the Interchurch Center in New York City several of his fellow-workers, his son and his brother participated. His ashes were interred in the Columbarium of nearby Riverside Church, on July 25, 1979.

In a service held at Lake Junaluska on August 1, 1979, during the Convocation for Churches with Small Membership, Doris Gidney paid this tribute to Ralph. "He was a real live human being. He administered a program whose main focus is on ministry to those places that may have otherwise been forgotten and neglected. Remembering Ralph means recalling events filled with much joy because he gave us the gift of a joy-filled life. Even when there were painful matters to be worked through, Ralph could always bring humor to the situation. There was ever-present concern for the maintenance and support of the workers themselves."

In all the roles he served in his professional life, in his home conference and the larger church, and in all the relationships he enjoyed as son, brother, husband, father and grandfather, as friend, as preacher and pastor and missionary . . . he may have had some equals, but no superiors. He both loved life, and lived love.

JAMES CRAWFORD JONES

1925-1979

James Crawford Jones was born January 18, 1925 near Georgianna, Alabama. He was the son of George and Mary C. Jones. On January 16, 1943, he married Rachel Naomi Crum in Greenville, Alabama. Jones, Robert Earl Jones, Shannon Jones and Claude E. Jones; and two sisters, Mrs. Seale Ray and Mrs. Louise Bolton. He is also survived by five grandchildren.

He was ordained deacon in 1958 and elder in 1960. He served Pollard Ct., Byrneville, Ensley, Castleberry, Sweetwater, Louisville-Clio, and was serving Thomaston Ct. at the time of his death.

As a humble, dedicated servant of God, he diligently sought to know God's will and to do what was pleasing in his Master's sight. He carefully ministered to God's church. He passionately carried the message of salvation to a lost world. He faithfully worked to care for his family. He was a man of the Bible, for he always remained a student of the Word. He was a man of compassion, for he freely shared God's love with all.

Having been licensed to preach under his ministry as my pastor in 1958 and remaining not only as brothers in Christ but dear friends, I count it a privilege and honor to write this for the Journal.

Brother Jones died at his home in Thomaston, Alabama, August 6, 1979. His funeral service was held in the Thomaston United Methodist Church with the Rev. Hurley D. Guy and the Rev. J.D. Renfroe leading the service. He was buried in the Holland Cemetery near Castleberry, Alabama.

The Alabama Conference elected James Edward Tate its secretary in 1945, an office he held for twenty-two years. He was named Secretary Emeritus on June 2, 1966, after asking the conference to name his successor.

He was married to Irene Calista Averitt of Henderson, Kentucky, on April 20, 1919. She was the daughter of William and Eva Averitt.

His survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Bryars of Bloomington, Delaware; two sons, C. The following is from the close of a sermon Dr. Tate preached at First Methodist Church of Tallassee, Alabama, on June 18, 1950, at the morning service:

"At best, the things which this world offers may be ours for but a few brief years. To squander them upon our own selfishness can bring no permanent nor satisfying good to us. To invest them in the building of a better world in which God shall rule, and Duty shall command, and Eternity shall inspire is but to fulfill our highest vocation and calling in life."

This is a better world for James Edward Tate having been here.

The Reverend Charles J. Johnson was admitted on trial in the Central Alabama Conference in 1939 and came into full connection in 1941. He retired in 1969 and, until his death on March 5, 1980, lived in Birmingham.

RESOLUTION

Housing For Ministers

Whereas the United Methodist Church is a connexional system using the itinerant and appointive system in its ministry, and,

Whereas historically the churches have provided living places for the clergy, and,

Whereas it has been the policy of the Alabama-West Florida Conference to provide a parsonage and basic furniture according to variously adopted plans in past years, and,

Whereas in every conference where a survey has been conducted relating to a provision of a parsonage as opposed to housing allowance or other arrangements, the overwhelming conclusions have been that it is urgent to maintain the church-owned parsonage system, and,

Whereas we need the guidance of a clearly defined policy within our conference in order to avoid difficulty in making appointments in the itinerant system and in strengthening the connexional system of our conference and denomination.

Therefore be it resolved that the Alabama-West Florida Conference in session on May 26, 1980 hereby requests the 1980-84 Committee on Standing Rules to give thorough consideration to this matter in consultation with the bishop and the Cabinet, the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Council on Finance and Administration and other interested parties to recommend a stated policy for this conference for possible inclusion in the standing rules of the conference.

Further be it resolved that this committee make its report at the first business session of the Annual Conference in 1981 for action during that Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
J.O. Ellisor
